

CARDINAL MERCIER'S TRIBUTE TO WILSON

"MAGNIFICENTLY HONEST AND IMPLACABLY JUST MESSAGES"

Brussels, Nov. 23, (Associated Press).—Cardinal Mercier and Burgomaster Max, two of the most prominent figures of the War in Belgium, excepting King Albert, received The Associated Press correspondent today. Both men are as different physically and mentally as the ideas, ideals and opinions they represent, Burgomaster Max being one of the leaders of the Liberal Party.

"You have saved us," said the Cardinal, when asked what he thought about America's participation in the war. "You have saved the world."

Cardinal Mercier is tall and dignified. He was garbed in a purple soutane. He chatted with the correspondent for more than half an hour. "I never despaired, I never lost hope, although at times my heart was very full," the Cardinal said, referring to an incident in December, 1914, when Baron von Bissing, Military Governor of Belgium, virtually made him a prisoner in his Episcopal Palace. "I received a telegram from then from The Associated Press and have never been able to answer it. I wish to reply to it now."

"Yes, Bissing treated me as a prisoner for four days." Alluding to the change in the government of Germany, Cardinal Mercier said: "I am no politician. However, the changes there seem too sudden to be lasting. The new government appears to make a camouflage of the autocracy, and the changes seem to have been made to order according to prearranged schedule."

"It is God's justice, and the public conscience is satisfied. The triumph of justice is complete; the barbarian device that might is right has received its death blow: the dream of Pan German domination has been shattered and evaporated like noxious gas in the wind, and, thanks to God's justice, right has triumphed and the Belgians once more are free and independent. We have won the War."

On receiving confirmation of the rumor that President Wilson planned to visit Europe, Cardinal Mercier said that he was a great admirer of the President. "Your President is a great statesman, one of the greatest statesmen of all times. The Germans' dark plotting and treacherous diplomacy were completely foiled by President Wilson's magnificently honest and implacably just messages."

Burgomaster Max was more reticent and refused to speak concerning his treatment by the Germans, refusing even to mention the word Germany.

The Burgomaster asked The Associated Press correspondent to convey his thanks to America and Americans for the tributes of sympathy and offers of aid from the United States. He said: "My country needed yours sorely during the War and we need your assistance again now in work of reconstruction. Your admirable system of finances and business will find a great field of endeavor in Belgium."

TO CAPT. (REV.) THOS. NANGLE C. F., BY MOTHERS OF OUR CATHOLIC SOLDIERS Evening Herald, St. John's, Nfld.

The mothers of the Catholic soldiers in the Royal Newfoundland Regiment desiring to give Capt. (Rev.) T. Nangle, C. F., some tangible appreciation of his devotion to their boys "over there," formed a committee early in the summer with this purpose in view. It was decided that each mother should be asked to subscribe not more than 20 cents towards the purchase of a Ciborium for use by the beloved chaplain when ministering to the spiritual wants of the lads in the Regiment. The committee consisted of Mesdames Buckley and Hancock and Miss Jessie Bullock, and in July an order was placed with the celebrated firm of silver-smiths, Wm. Egan & Sons of Cork, whose fame as designers and makers of ornamental church vessels is world wide.

By the recent English mail the following letter was received from Fr. Nangle acknowledging the receipt of the gift, and expressing his gratitude to the brave mothers of those gallant boys of "Ours" for their kind remembrance of him:

Sept. 10th, 1918. "To the Catholic Women of Nfld.: "I do not know to whom I should address this particularly, but I should like to convey to all you brave mothers, who were so thoughtful and generous, my sincere thanks and heartfelt appreciation for the magnificent Ciborium you have sent me. It reached here on August 30th. "It is made of gold, beautifully erected and inscribed and just the proper size. I need it the first time after it arrived to give Holy Communion to some two hundred Welsh and Scotch troops about to go into battle, and it has been in use every Sunday since.

"Our own 'Boys' are expected back to the line daily, when I shall immediately return to them. Every body in the Division, from the General down, is looking forward to having them with us again, but there will be none more pleased to see them and to minister to them than, Yours most sincerely, T. NANGLE, C. F.

A Ciborium is the receptacle used by the priest in which to carry the sacred wafers for administering Holy Communion. The one sent to "Padre" Nangle is made of solid silver with a gold cup, of a size and shape suitable for a chaplain at the front. It is surmounted by a Celtic cross, which, with the handle, is collapsible so as to make it compact for travelling purposes. The Ciborium is a masterpiece of the silver-smith's art, is of pure Celtic design, being a replica of similar vessels made in Ireland in the 16th century. It is chased and embossed throughout by hand. Artistic work such as this has not been produced in Cork for upwards of 800 years. The following inscription is engraved on the base:

To the Rev. Thomas Nangle, C. F. From the Mothers of the Catholic Soldiers of the Royal Nfld. Regiment, 1918.

CAPTAIN THE REV. CHARLES FALLON, M. C. Capt. the Rev. Father Charles A. Fallon, brother of Bishop Fallon of this city, has been awarded the military cross for gallantry under fire. This was announced in a cablegram received by His Lordship last evening.

Capt. Fallon is the bishop's youngest brother. He was ordained here three and a half year ago and a year later went overseas, and has been two and a half years in the front line as chaplain to the 102nd Battalion of the 4th division under Col. Lester. He is now in Germany with the Canadian army of occupation.

Another brother, Capt. the Rev. James Fallon, who was Catholic chaplain at the camp here, is also overseas.

OBITUARY CORPORAL F. HEFFERNAN Mrs. Wm. Heffernan of Norwood received the following letter from Major (Rev.) W. L. Murray, chaplain of the unit of which her son was a member previous to his death in action: France, Nov. 10, 1918.

Dear Mrs. Heffernan.—It is my sad duty to write you that your son, Corp. F. Heffernan was killed in action on the 27th of last month during the advance made by the Canadians on that date.

His body was afterwards buried by Father Fallon of the 11th Brigade. It will be a consolation to you to know that all the Catholics of the 46th Battalion, one of the units in my care, were at Holy Communion just shortly before going into action, so that your boy would be prepared for the end when it came.

I have already said Mass, according to my custom, for the repose of his soul. Rest assured I shall not neglect to remember him in future when standing before God's Holy Altar.

Please accept my sincere sympathies in your loss of one who gave up all even life itself, in a just and noble cause. God grant you grace and consolation in your bereavement.

Yours sincerely, W. L. MURRAY, Capt. and Catholic Chaplain, 10 Can. Inf. Brigade.

Teach the Children to Save Habits are acquired early in life. Children, who are taught the value of money and the habit of saving, grow up into good business men and capable women.

The easiest way to teach children to save, is to start a Savings Account for each child ($1.00 each is sufficient). After a child has saved another dollar to make an additional deposit, he or she will have a better appreciation of just what a dollar stands for, and how much work and self-denial it represents.
