Synopsis of Canadian North-West HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may however be made at any Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

DUTIES.—(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. He may also do so by living with father or mother, on certain conditions. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

W. W. CORY,

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

This is an Admirable Book.

"The Life of Jesus of Nazareth Portrayed in Colours." Eighty pictures by William Hole, R.S.A., R.E. It is a long time since we have seen a more satisfying gift-book than this portrayal of the life of our Lord. Mr. Hole is a well-known Scottish artist, who, with truthfulness, reverence, simplicity, and reserve, as Dr. George Adam Smith says in the introductory note which he contributes, has endeavored with what one cannot but feel is remarkable success to present to us some of the scenes of the life of Jesus in the setting in which they must actually have happened. The artist's conception of his subjects and his colouring, which is beautifully reproduced, are like Tissot's in being altogether different from the conventional Biblical illustrations of our childhood, but are greatly preferable to Tissot's in some of the qualities already mentioned. No attempt has been made to improve upon the language of the Evangelists; each picture is faced by the passage in their actual words which it illustrates. The Archdeacon of London, Dr. William Sinclair, writes an interesting preface, with notes upon each of the pictures; we have also notes by the artist himself, and an illuminating "Introductory Note," by Dr. G. A. Smith, to which reference has already been made. The book would make an admirable present for an intelligent boy or girl, and the value of it would be increased if the mother went through it page by page with the child, pointing out the special features of the pictures an exercise for which ample material will be found in the notes referred to. This beautiful book and one year's subscription to the "Canadian Churchman" will be supplied to subscribers in Canada for two dollars and fifty cents.

Our reputation for good printing dates back over forty years. A satisfied clientele confirms this. Test it. Results will count.

Starting the New Year Right

We are in a position, now as always, to help shoe wearers start the New Year right.

We don't argue that the lowest priced shoe is the most economical to buy—because it isn't. But our prices, however, are as low, quality compared, as anybody's. Try us next time.

The committee appointed to consider the erection of a memorial in York Minster to the late Canon Fleming have decided that it shall take the form of a statue in stone of King Edwin, one of the martyred Saxon Kings, to be placed in the beautiful niche on the left or north side of the altar in the choir at a spot where Canon Fleming usually stood during the celebration of the Eucharist. King Edwin was baptized very near the actual place and his head is buried in the Minster.

A very largely attended and representative meeting was held in the Parochial schoolhouse on a recent Thursday evening, 17th inst., to present the Rev. Chancellor Beatty, rector of Tarbert and Ballylongford, Diocese of Ardfer, and clergyman in charge of Glin, Diocese of Limerick, with an address on the occasion of his jubilee in the ministry of the Church of Ireland, thirty years of which he has served in the united parishes of Tarbert and Ballylongford, including seventeen years in Glin.
