

PETITIONS presented and ordered to lie on the Table—Continued.

PAGE.

From John Prince, for teaching a School in Westmorland,	252
From Thomas Campbell, for teaching a School in Saint John,	252
From Messrs. Street and Ranney, praying a return of duty,	254
From Lieutenant Colonel Booth, 43rd Regiment, with a like prayer,	254
From Thomas Thornton, an old soldier, praying for relief,	256
From Allan M'Kinney, praying an allowance for a road near Phillis' Creek,	258
From John Chappell of Bay Verte, praying aid for a Packet to Prince Edward Island,	259
From Noah Disbrow and others, praying the Saint John Mills and Manufacturing Company may be incorporated,	259
From Richard Coltart, praying remuneration for loss on road contract,	259
From John M'Coll, an old Soldier, praying for aid,	262
From Richard Cathcart and others, praying that no alteration may be made in the road from Saint Andrews to Fredericton, via Connick's,	262
From William Brennan, a School Master in Portland, praying aid,	262
From Esther Cecilia Howland and Thomas Burnett, with similar prayers,	262
From Peter M'Gil, President, and William Badgley, Secretary, of the Constitutional Association of Montreal,	262
From Alexander M'Lean and others, Ministers and Elders of the Church in connexion with the Church of Scotland; the Minister, Elders, Trustees and Members of the Presbyterian Church in the Towns of Saint Andrews, Newcastle, Saint Stephens and Chatham, praying an alteration in the Charter of King's College,	269
From Bradberry Miles and Martin Austin, old soldiers, praying for aid,	271
From Anthony Woodland, Nathaniel Seabrooks, Seth Griswold, William Harper, John Manzer, James Flint, Charles Hazleton, John Dunlop and Joshua Stone, old soldiers; and Mary Kelly, Sarah Bate and Catherine Fero, widows of old soldiers, praying for Legislative assistance,	271
From John T. Williston, of Chatham, praying an allowance for building a Bridge across Little Black River,	272
From Alexander Davidson and others, praying aid for a Grammar School in Newcastle,	272
From John Cuppage and others, praying the Parish of Northesk may be divided,	272
From William Clarke, an old soldier, praying for relief,	272
From Peter Smith and others, depositors of money in the Charlotte County Savings Bank, praying remuneration for losses &c.	272
From Thomas Armstrong and others, praying that the County of Charlotte may be divided,	272
From John Bill, William Welling, and others, praying aid for running a Packet between Shediac and Bedique,	274
From James Millar, praying and allowance for teaching a School in Chatham,	274
From William Abrams and others, praying the Miramichi Banking Company may be incorporated,	274
From Harris Hatch and others, praying the Stock of the Charlotte County Bank may be increased,	274
From Rev. Alexander M'Lean, and others, praying aid for a Church at Whittier's Ridge in Charlotte County,	274
From George M'Kay and others, with a similar prayer,	274
From David J. Turner, praying aid for losses sustained by Lepreaux Bridge being carried away,	274
From John Dick, David Quigley, Robert Robertson and John Henderson, old soldiers, praying for aid,	274
From Mary Burket, the wife of an old soldier, with a similar prayer,	275
From Mordecai Starkie, Elias Second, Barnard Manzer, old soldiers; and Sarah Foster and Elizabeth Green, widows of old soldiers, praying for assistance,	275
From the Saint John Water Company, praying a return of Duties,	277
From Isaac Mills, John Underwood, Frederick Weaver, old soldiers, praying for assistance,	277
From Robert Rankin and Company, praying a return of duties,	277
From Richard Ketchum, and others, praying the Carleton Mining Company may be incorporated,	277
From John Robinson, and others, praying the division line between the Parishes of Douglas and Stanley may be altered,	279
From Thomas Pickard, and others, praying an extension of the Goal Limits in Fredericton,	279
From Ammon Hubble, and Benjamin M'Donald, old soldiers, praying for aid,	281
From William M'Lean, praying a return of duties,	281
From Joseph Read and others, praying an Act may pass incorporating the Miramichi Bank,	282
From Rev. Michael Egan, and others, praying aid for building a School House,	282
From the Minister, Elders, Trustees and Members of Saint Andrew's Church, in Saint John, and Saint Paul's Church, in Fredericton, and Saint Andrew's Church, in Richibucto, praying an alteration in the Charter of King's College,	282
From Catherine Young, widow of an old soldier, praying for aid,	282