

IN MEMORY OF HONORED DEAD

Eloquent Tribute to Jeffrey Deane by Pastor of Emmanuel Church.

A memorial service was held in honor of the late Jeffrey Deane, who died in England, Aug. 21st, from wounds received in France.

Mr. Deane was a communicant member of Emmanuel church.

Mr. Hubly preached the following sermon:

Victory Over Death.
Isaiah XXV: 8.

The word I would emphasize on this occasion is victory.

In every contest, in every battle, confidence that join are on the winning side gives cheer and comfort, no matter how distressing the conflict may be.

One can better endure hardship and overcome all discouragements along life's way, when confident that victory will crown the end. There are exceeding precious promises in our text. First: "He will swallow up death." Nothing menaces the human happiness like death.

For those who live without God in this present world there is no hope of ever overcoming the strength and the sting of this indomitable foe. Among the many who spurn the gospel appeal, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and be saved," there may be the thought that salvation from death awaits all men, but this is a false and deceptive view of the whole matter concerning sin and its results.

There is a condition of life most deplorable, characterized by the Apostle, as "being without Christ, strangers from the Covenants of Promise, having no hope and without God in the world."

From this awful condition there is, by the acceptance of Christ as Lord, and Saviour, deliverance. "Death shall be swallowed up." As the rods of Pharaoh's magicians were swallowed up by the rod of Aaron, and as the death-dealing hosts of Egypt were swallowed up by the waters of the Red Sea, or as the darkness of night is swallowed up in the brightness of the sunlit morning.

Second: There is victory. There are thousands of ways by which Death assaults our life. It may be silent, slow and stealthy; it may be violent and sudden. It may be in the homes with loved ones standing round, with gentle touches to fevered lips, or burning brow. It may be on battlefields, amidst roar of shot and shell, and clash of arms; or in the hospital with lingering pain, far away from home and friends ministered to by strangers. But when and where, and how, matters not, when He who gives the victory over death and every foe is present—Hath He not said to His own? "Low I am with you always, even unto the end!" Notwithstanding that, God's people must depart hence under the power of death as others, yet for them there is victory over every enemy, and the "Last enemy is Death." "Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

With this victory made sure the others promises must follow with perfect fulfillment.

Third: There will be no more weeping. The Lord God who secured for His people this great victory will see that no tear-stains will warm the face of those whom He crowns with the triumphs of faith and confidence in His gospel of salvation!

His hand marked by the nails, with the pledge of love, will wipe away all their tears.

Fourth: All rebukes for the victorious will be over and past. Any reproach, shame or rebuke which they have received from the world or at the hands of those who were at enmity with the cause or causes for which they were willing to suffer, while on earth, will be taken away. This final triumph of faith! This glorious victory which crowns the end of the Christian warfare, is made sure: "From the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

For those who are Christians by profession and by possession of the life which such profession indicates, the fulfillment of the promises of our text, is more immutable than the barriers of Creation; more abiding than the everlasting hills.

This is the word of the Lord—"Heaven and the earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." All through this word is written in glowing language, the triumphs of Christ's word over the foes of His believing people, and over the forces of sin, death and hell. What striking words He has spoken by the mouth of the Prophet Hosea: "I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death; O death, I will be thy plague; O grave, I will be thy destruction." This is the same spirit who spoke the words of our text by the mouth of the Prophet Isaiah; and again centuries after, spoke by the mouth of

HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa. "Four years ago I was very sick and my life was in danger. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and was cured. I can now do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Elizabeth J. Johnson, 788 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Before submitting to a surgical operation it is wise to try to build up the female system and cure its derangements with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it has saved many women from surgical operations. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential.

Paul, saying: "so when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall be brought to immortality then shall be brought to glory the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory.

O death where is thy sting?
O grave where is thy victory?

The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Amidst the changes and changes of this mortal life, how blessed to know that we and our loved ones are so identified with the victorious Christ, that whether in sickness or health, in life or in death we are in Him, and nothing can separate us from one another, nor from Him.

We have reasons to believe that many who heroically lose their life in the cruel war, find it again in Christ, the King of Peace, in the city of Salem where some can enter, save those who are "washed and made white by the blood of the Lamb!"

The young soldier, and hero, of Belleville, to whom we would do honor in this service, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, was, we are pleased to say, a member of this church.

On May 21, 1911, at 16 years of age he confirmed his baptismal vows and publicly confessed faith in Christ, then knelt beside his mother, and with her and others partook of the memorials of the body broken, and the blood shed for the salvation of sinners. For some time he continued a regular attendant at the services of the church and Sunday School. But, like so many, he was deprived of these means of spiritual growth, and enrichment by the exacting cruelty of the world and the flesh.

Circumstances over which he had no control forced upon him Sabbath-day labor, and prevented Sabbath-day worship.

We sorely missed his fellowship, his Christian example, and gentlemanly bearing. But we felt assured that his profession was sincere, and that his heart was right.

After joining the colors he visited our home and in conversation gave proof of his Lord and Saviour. In March, 1915, Jeffrey Deane enlisted in the 26th Battery of the Canadian Field Artillery. He afterwards joined the infantry and was transferred to the 59th early in July. In August he went overseas and was attached to the 39th. Later he went with a draught to the 24th Victoria Rifles, reaching France in February, he went through the severe fighting of June unhurt. On July 25th of the present year, he was wounded by a gun shot in the shoulder, and was removed to England. He wrote to his mother from there "I am getting along nicely, in a dandy place near the shore; I will tell you more about it after I get out and have a look around."

The news came suddenly that he had died. Jeffrey was a member of Mrs. Hubly's Bible Class, and like all the boys, had the benefit of her prayers and we know that the prayer of the righteous availeth much.

Let me quote to you these daily prayers for the members of her class who joined the colors:

"God of our fathers through all generations, Thou hast called our boys to fight for their country's faith and honor. May each one know that Thou art by his side to cheer him in hardship and danger, to give him courage in the day of battle and comfort in the hour of distress. Make Thou the sunshine of success to shine

DROWNED WHILE DUCK SHOOTING

Mr. Cole, Formerly of Trenton, Meets With Fatal Mishap Duck-Shooting Near Lindsay.

(Special to the Ontario.)

TRENTON, Sept. 6.—The community of Trenton were shocked this morning to hear that Mr. Cole, formerly of town had been drowned in the Scugog River about six miles from Lindsay. Up till noon yesterday the body had not been recovered. In detail, it seems Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, he being superintendent at the C.P.R., went to Lindsay to visit Mr. and Mrs. Cole over the holiday and the two men had planned to go for a hunt. They intended going down the river on Sunday night and get a good spot for the next morning's shoot but it rained all day and all night until about 8 o'clock Monday morning. Before they could get away Mr. Rogers got a message calling him to Toronto on important business so about 9 o'clock Mr. Cole started out alone with his launch and canoe. He got as far as No. 10 Lighthouse or the Old River, as it is known by the Lindsay residents, and here fastened his launch and took the canoe in search of game. About 12 o'clock a gun shot was heard by near-by hunters and as this is an unusual time of day to shoot, and they not likely saw anything to shoot at, they began to investigate and found the overturned canoe and the deceased's coat and hat. Immediately a search commenced and up till noon yesterday his body had not been found although it was once brought to the surface. Mr. Cole only left Trenton last April, leaving the position of manager of the Canadian Pearl Button Co., to become assistant manager of the Cole Brass works of which his brother is manager. He always seemed to have the good will of all who worked under him and anything attempted was always accomplished. While here he lived on Marmora St., just across the C.N.R. tracks. He was a Baptist but on account of there not being a church in this community attended the Methodist church. He belonged to the Masons, I.O.O.F. and was a Forester. Left to mourn his loss besides a loving wife are two daughters, the younger still a girl attending school.

Mrs. Quackenbush of Ottawa is the guest of Mrs. Doige, Cedar St.

Mrs. Allan, Dundas street left for the city yesterday.

Mr. Robert White, principal of the High School, was in Brighton, on Monday attending the opening of the High and Public School.

Miss Edna Billings left on Monday to teach school near Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. Billings, Murphy St., have moved to Toronto, where Mr. Billings has accepted a position. Miss Gladys will attend Toronto Normal.

Proved: That milk is not as powerful as gasoline, on Monday morning about 4 o'clock while Mr. Yellow was delivering milk near the Grand Union hotel the motor bus came around the corner and had a head-on collision with the milk cart, the result being the nourishment wagon was backed across the road. No damage was done to either vehicle.

The many friends of Mr. Andrew Shirte will be sorry to hear that he is confined to his bed with blood poisoning. The physician lanced the sore yesterday and it is to be hoped he will be around again in a few days' time.

Mr. LaFrance, the barber, who was burned out about a month ago has opened a shop in the building previously occupied by W. Hutton, on Front St.

Every evening some of the dry goods and grocery stores are open and doing business. Too bad all the business men couldn't get together and arrange certain hours to be open and closed and thereby give the owners as well as the employees some time for other than grind.

September Brides

SEYMOUR—SCANTLEBURY.

A pretty wedding took place this afternoon on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Scantlebury, when their eldest daughter Evelyn Elmena was united in marriage to Mr. Edgar Orchard Seymour by Rev. Dr. Scott of Bridge Street Methodist Church. As the clock struck two, the bride entered on the arm of her father gowned in a lovely gown of Crepe de Chine, trimmed with chintilly lace, carrying a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley and wearing the traditional bridal veil. Her bridesmaid, Miss Aileen Scantlebury sister of the bride looked very pretty in a gown of maise color Crepe de Chine and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Little Miss Marjorie Scantlebury carrying a basket of panache made a very pretty flower girl. The groom was attended by Mrs. Harry Scantlebury. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Mrs. H. P. L. Seymour, sister-in-law of the groom, and Miss Alma Sanders sang very beautifully "Because." After the reception a very dainty repast was partaken of and Mr. and Mrs. Seymour left on the five thirty train for the east. The bride travelled in a navy blue suit with hat to match.

Among the out of town guests present were—Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Wolf, Mrs. Harry Nelson Henney of Syracuse, N.Y., Mrs. C. P. Raymond, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. L. Seymour, Melrose, Mrs. (Rev.) Seymour Bath, Mrs. (Prof.) Dosses, Regina, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McCaw, Tweed, Mr. and Mrs. Belshaw, Stirling, Mrs. (Dr.) Dawson, Toronto, Mr. Percy and Miss Lulu Van Vlack, Deseronto.

NEW SIDEWALK

Active operations have commenced upon the construction of a fine new concrete sidewalk extending from the main entrance to the Ontario School for the Deaf and extending eastward along the Trenton road until the city limit is reached. The Ontario Government is paying the main part of the cost but residents along the thoroughfare are paying a considerable share. Col. Ponton has very generously donated a two-foot strip along his property in order that the walk may be located that much farther from the drive-way and not injure the roots of the fine shade-trees along the route. The completion of this walk will supply a long-felt want and was undertaken owing to the personal solicitation of our representative in the Ontario Legislature, Mr. J. W. Johnson, M.P.P.

SGT. AIF. SMITH DIED FROM SNIPER'S BULLET.

A letter to Capt. W. H. Smith, deputy sheriff, Cobourg, received last evening from a comrade of his son, Aif, tells that the wound was caused by a sniper's bullet, which entered the stomach, and that death ensued in about an hour and one-half, during which time Aif remained conscious, and conversed with his comrades, bidding them good-bye, just before his spirit departed.

Besides his parents, he leaves a brother, Rev. D. Russell Smith, Rector of Port Colborne, and three sisters, Mrs. W. A. Seed, of Colborne; Miss Ethel Smith, of Port William, and Miss Lulu Smith, of Cobourg. To them all the deepest sympathy of their many friends in Colborne is extended.

Sergt. Smith was born in Colborne in the year 1881, and spent his boy-hood days here. In his teens he served his apprenticeship in the printing office of The Colborne Express, leaving to go to The Review Printing Office, Peterborough. There he became proficient as a linotype operator, at which he was engaged in the office of The Whig, Kingston, at the time of his enlistment in the 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles—Colborne Express.

MARMORA FAIR SEPT 11 AND 12.

The dates for Marmora's big fair are Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 11 and 12, not Sept. 25 and 26 as previously announced. This year's fair promises to be the best in the history of the society. The chief interest will center in the speeding ring where a purse of $100 is given for the free-for-all and $70 for the 2.30 class. Music by good band. The last day (Sept. 12) is the day to go.

ALBERT COLLEGE REOPENING

Students are returning to Albert College, and prospects are excellent for a large attendance and successful work during the year. The classes open Thursday (tomorrow). Rev. Principal Baker is very optimistic for the coming terms.
