TEN INNING VICTORY
GOES TO THE RED SOX

Chase and Auld Engage in a Pitchers' Duel, But Sox Make Great Finish and Win on Fried's Hit, 4-3.

The Red Sox came right back to Ort, Trout and Sullivan were quickly retired but Long's single, aided by second encounter with the Toronto Beavers and in a fast, and at several points, a thrilling game, defeated the visitors 4 to 3. Del Chase, who pitched for Brantford, played a splendid game, keeping under perfect control at every point and pitching himself out of some real bad holes.

Auld, who is reckoned the Beavers' best, was no puzzle to the Red Sox. The locals got into a good batting stride yesterday and it was a treat to see Cosma and Fried knock out a 3-bagger each, while Chase and Long both got doubles.

It was young Fried's triple in the ninth that saved the day for the Red Sox. After having a lead of 2 to 0, up to the end of the sixth the Red Sox allowed the Beavers to tie the score in the seventh and to get a lead of one in the eighth.

Things looked real bad for the locals when they went to bat in the ninth. It was the "last hope" and a good many fans were getting ready to depart when "biff" went Fried's three-bagger over centre, scoring Barrett, who had walked. The visitors were meat for Rubie's men in the tenth, a lone single by Sullivan being the nearest they could come to an attempt to break the tie.

In the Sox half of the tenth, Chase scored on a single by Roth and Dudley after first being refused a score on what looked like a passed ball by Harkins which Umpire Graham called a foul.

The game by Innings.
In the first innings Hunt struck out, Ort doubled, Trout got to first on Cosma's error, Sullivan, the "heavy hitter" fanned, and Killilea was forced at first on Fried's catching. Trout out at second.

Brantford's Long walked, Roth sacrificed, got to third on a passed ball, Dudley singled scoring Long, Cosma fanned and Dudley was caught at second.

In the second innings was an easy out. Schultz fanned, Harkins doubled, but Matty Lamond's nice catch of Auld's foul retired the side.

The second was a short and sudden death one for the locals, Barrett, Deneau and Fried being easy outs.

Innings No. 3 was a quick one. Hunt was out at first, Ort took first being hit by the ball, Trout was an easy out, and Ort was caught at second, Lamond to Fried.

Brantford's Lamond was out Killilea to Schultz. Chase doubled, Long was an easy out, but Chase made third on the play. The chance to score was lost as Roth was out Auld to Schultz.

The fourth and fifth were uneventful ones, the Red Sox not getting a hit, while the visitors only secured one, a two bagger by Schultz in the fifth which went for nothing, as Harkins, Auld and Hunt who followed were easy outs. It was in the sixth that the Red Sox got their second run.

Sporting Comment

Talk about racing luck! Mr. Fred Westbrook of this city seems to be possessed of more than the ordinary share. If he could spare a little of it to the Brantford Ball Club it would help a whole lot. This week, at Corry, Pa., that good little pacer of Mr. Westbrook, Treddell, brought home the bacon once more. On this occasion the horse wasn't 10-1 in the books. Far be it from such, because the owners had to bet $100 to win $60. At any rate Treddell won the first heat, lost the next and then won the next two. Treddell has a mark of 2,104, and according to the registered mark of a horse he must enter races in the class for which his mark qualifies him.

In the second heat, in which Treddell was declared to be second, Mr. Westbrook's horse was really first by a good margin. The judges declared otherwise, however, and the other horse was given a mark of 2,084. The heat was made in that fast time, and Mr. Westbrook would rather have lost it than have 2,084 chalked up against his flyer. He lost it, and yet he didn't, and it was simply Westbrook's luck to have the judges declare that the other horse won. Had the judges declared that Mr. Westbrook's horse won, it would have meant a mark against Treddell, and instead of getting in a lot of soft races Treddell would have to encounter much stiffer opposition. So far the Brantford horse has been a bread-winner, and with Mr. Westbrook's luck there is no reason why he should not continue. We have a hunch that Brantford will control several more breweries before the summer is over.

Geo. Ort, manager of the Beavers, and Rubie Deneau have both been itching for a trade of ball players. Ort wants Lamond in the worst way. He thinks Matty as a catcher is the class of the league. At first Deneau held out for Auld and Kirley, Toronto's two star pitchers, in exchange for Lamond. This David Harum deal wouldn't go, however. Last night the Rubie offered Lamond in exchange for Graham, pitcher, and Buster Burrill, whom Brantford fans know. Ort said, "I'm willing, if McCaffery is." And there you are. In the negotiations Ort said Graham was a prospect, while Lamond never would go higher on account of his size. Ort's dope, if the famous record of Louie Criger is not forgotten, is wrong. Criger of the Boston Americans was a world's champion, and he was not heavier than Matty at any stage. The respect which visiting teams show for Lamond is worth commenting upon. We remember when Lamond was hooted in favor of a local catcher, but Matty, by his good work, has overcome local feeling. He is one grand little receiver and, as Ort says, "the class of the league."

Johnny Nelson was handed his release last night. Nelson failed to hit, and there are several more on the Red Sox line-up who might keep him company. The Rubie expects Nashier, the new infielder, here to-day.

Cosma wore a lemon over his left thumb last night. That member was black from a bad smash. With that handicap he tore off two beautiful hits yesterday and played good ball at second. Cosma was reputed to have been a fighting bad player, but has been quiet since he came to Brantford. "Put him on third or first," says the Rubie, "and you will see ginger."

Deneau announced last night that the right side of his anatomy, after Wednesday's effort, was too sore for him to pitch, and Cosma was scheduled to go in for one of the games to-day. Eddie Taylor will pitch the other.

Brantford jumps out at 5.45 to-morrow to play Erie a Sunday game.

Auld, said to be the best pitcher in the Canadian, and Chase hooked up together yesterday, and Chase got the best of it. President McCaffery, Joe Kelley and Scout Peaches Graham watched the contest. The Toronto contingent got away too early to get their opinion of the battle, but it is safe to say that Chase didn't lose in prestige. He delivered a fine game of ball, and it was a battle worth going some distance to see. In the ninth, many left the stands, conceding Toronto victory. Fried then tied the score with a fine hit. In the tenth the crowd was out of the stands when Chase crossed the plate on what was really a passed ball, but the umpire called it a foul. That rendered it necessary for Cosma to deliver a hit that won.

In front of the Courier boards last night all kinds of comment was heard on Gero winning his game for Ottawa against London. Later in the evening Tom Kane, pitcher, released by Ottawa, called up Rubie Deneau asking for a job. Gero apparently was lucky in winning. With the bases filled and two-out a London batsman hit a line drive a mile a minute, hitting a London base-runner on the head. Of course the runner was out and Gero was out of a fine hole. Both Ottawa and London gathered twelve hits each.

Frank Long is playing beautiful ball for Brantford. This chap is quiet and unassuming and delivers the goods as well. His hitting has been the most consistent of the whole team.

The Red Sox have actually played four out of five games of the ball week. By that we mean four good games, and yet they have only won one.

Nashier, the new infielder, is expected here to-day for this afternoon's double-header.

Football

The Courier finds room for the following to-day:
Mr. Free Lance:

On behalf of a few football fans and at their special request, I would be glad if you could find room for the following in your valuable space.

We have read with disgust the decision handed out to Tom Mason, one of the Tutela team, by the executive of the Paris and Brantford Football League, and we wish to make our voices heard.

Tom Mason, as a man, is a gentleman, as a player of sport, he has to our knowledge, proved himself one. Reviewing his four year's career as a footballer in this city, Tom is known as one of our very best men, in cleanliness of his game, and at also at the way he conducts himself on the field.

At the game with Scots United last Saturday week, which has been disappointing to many, Tom happens to forget himself for once, owing to high feeling, and was sent off the field of play by the referee.

This is the first time that Tom has

AN ALL-STAR CANADIAN LEAGUE
TEAM TO PLAY THE MACKMEN
WORLD'S CHAMPS AUGUST 11

Manager Deneau Receiving Every Help From Other Teams in the Circuit—Bierbauer, Snyder, Whitcraft and Lamy Are Choices.

(London Free Press)
From the manner in which the Western Ontario baseball fans are availing themselves of early reservation for the season's baseball classic at Brantford, on August 11, between a team of Canadian League stars and the world's champion Philadelphia Athletics, all attendance records for this section of the province will undoubtedly be broken.

President Tom Nelson of the Brantford club is the one to thank for the opportunity to see the best baseball aggregation in the world and to see such a club in action against the best talent in the Canadian league makes it little short of wonderful that the fans are beseeching the head of the Brants by telegraph to be nearest to that $100,000 infield of Connie Mack's.

Attendance Assured
In addition to the many Brantford fans who will be in the throes of their old home week the throngs from every town and city in Western Ontario will make special effort to be in attendance at the fete.

Manager Deneau is receiving every assistance from every club in the league towards making the strength of the all-star Canadian League of such calibre that the game in itself will be worth while besides a chance of victory over the almost invincible world's champions. Canadian league players are all anxious to be selected for the coming big event and, judging from the hearty co-operation Manager Deneau is receiving from the other pilots in the league, the Athletics will be given a real battle, since it boosts this league in the eyes of the baseball world to hand Mack's sure 1914 American league winners a beating.

Will Take Field
The agreement between the competing clubs insures the fans that the regular big league club will take the field. To this end other clubs in the league are conspiring to weaken their teams for the regular league games simply in order to show the big league club just what sort of baseball is being played in this league. Some all-star teams to select from: First team—Pitchers, Kubat and Buck; catcher, Lage; first base, Bierbauer; second base, Cunningham; shortstop, Whitcraft; third base, Scott; outfield, Harris, Rogers, Lamy.

Second team—Pitchers, Shocker, Auld; catcher, Snyder; first base, Kading; second base, Ort; shortstop, Mitchell; third base, Mullins; outfield, Dawson, Kopp, Corns.

NIGHT MADE BEAUTIFUL

By the Electrical Decorations at the Canadian National Exhibition.
Electricity as an ornament will be a striking feature of this year's Exhibition. You'll remember a year ago those little electric bulbs flickering like fireflies among the leaves of the trees. That was only a starter for a series of electric novelties that will this year make the grounds a vision of loveliness by night.

Above the entrance will be the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes entwined, with the dove of peace floating over them, while at the sides of the entrance will be two electric panels, one emblematic of Canada and the other of the United States.

The Grand Plaza has been strung with a network of wires and will be canopied with twinkling electric stars. These with other decorations will make it Electric Year as well as Peace Year at the Canadian National.

The army world has made its appearance in Portneuf county, Quebec.

The dispute between the local and Provincial commissions appears to be on the verge of settlement.

SOME GLEANINGS
FROM THE CIRCUIT

The Fight Is On.
Peterborough Examiner. There is still ample opportunity for a real tight scramble down the home stretch for the league pennant. Eric is still very much in the running, and a lot can happen in the next six weeks. The race is far from over and London is far from secure on the perch at present occupied. The Cockneys are due for a good slump and to run into August will prove more disastrous than if they had it at any other time.

Gabby Is Hitting 'Em.
Hamilton Spectator. Harry Corns and Gabby Ivers continue to sting the ball on the nose. They were prominent with the stick again yesterday.

Mourning His Actions.
Hamilton Spectator. The club directors are still mourning the actions of ex-Manager Yates. Before Yates was thrown out of his job he took a trip to Allen town for the purpose of getting back the money paid to that club for Outfielder Sheekard. Since then the Allentown club has refused to refund the money and the local officials are carrying the matter to the National association.

They Need Them.
Hamilton Spectator. Manager White is considering some changes in his team and may work another trade or two very shortly. He has a couple of deals under his hat and may have something to announce before the week is out.

The Leafs have been strengthened by the addition of Sullivan of the Leafs.

"Sounds good, Fred."
"Yes, and it's just about right, too."
"You seem to know."
"Yes, I've known Regal for years, there's nothing tastes so good on a hot day, or as a luncheon drink. Regal sure is the 'old reliable' lager, clean tasting and always good."
"How about a bottle now?"
"Right."

"No 'unpleasant bitter,' my dear!"
"Yes, I remember how nice it tasted at your place that day—that was Regal, wasn't it?"
"Certainly. It's the only lager I ever liked, because it hasn't that lagers' bitter taste I used to think all lagers had. My husband likes a bottle at dinner. Sometimes I have one at lunch. There is so little alcohol and so much nourishment in it that we always keep Regal in the house. I wonder you don't use it."
"I believe I will."
