TRINITY CHURCH, SIMCOE HAS GOOD YEAR

Fire Inquest in Simcoe; Youth Shot at Chariivari

(From our own Correspondent)

Simcoe, April 24.—The first fire inquest in Simcoe is being held here to-day, commencing at 10 a.m., by L. G. Lewis, deputy fire marshal, who is investigating the causes which led up to the conflagration at the Cannery factory last week. Evidently the matter is to be dealt with very thoroughly, and among those summoned to attend are R. E. Guntton, chairman utilities commission; Geo. Luscombe, chief of the fire brigade; W. G. Jackson, E. E. Collins, also members of the brigade, and W. L. Hines, general manager of the local plant; Foreman Chas. Witherspoon and Wm. Dutton, and A. E. Slater, A. Anderson, E. Marks, Hal Culver and others. We learn that the deputy warden will recommend the compensation of a paid fire chief, and additional appliances, although still firm in his opinion that the brigade gave an excellent account of themselves at the scene of the fire. The exact question regarding the reticence about turning on high pressure when called for by the brigade will doubtless be threshed out too. Though not summoned to be present, Mayor Williamson has been requested to attend, and there will doubtless be enlightenment for the general public in so far as the town's fire fighting apparatus is concerned.

O. D. E.
 The Daughters of the Empire held a meeting yesterday, Mrs. L. P. Alken, acting secretary, was in charge of the scribe's pen in the absence of Mrs. Tomlinson. Mrs. Simpson, the regent, was also absent and Mrs. Hicks took charge.

Press Photographs
 Mrs. W. B. Tomlinson has been appointed to the staff of travelling lecturers under the Department of Agriculture, and leaves to-morrow for Toronto to attend a conference for the purpose of mapping out the year's work. The appointment will be generally endorsed here. Mrs. Tomlinson's special department will be "Poultry Husbandry," but the talented and accomplished lady would be at home in avian lore as well.

Mrs. John Pratt is still in the hospital at Toronto, and recovering slowly after a relapse.

Mrs. Edgington, of Tibot Street south, is slowly recovering from her recent illness.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Eaid motored to London to visit their son, Dr. Bruce, arriving home yesterday afternoon. They report the roads fairly good for motoring—doubtless excepting that part within the county.

The Casualties
 Cables continue to arrive here regarding casualties in France. On Saturday morning Mrs. Berry received advice that her husband, Paul, Chas. E. Berry, of the former 133rd has a "gunshot wound, arm, compound fracture; admitted to hospital. Pte. Berry threw up a compound fracture and severely injured in Ottawa to enlist in the Norfolk unit. He was a son of Mrs. Ira Whitehead of Lynwood avenue, and if his present misfortune is to be regretted, it is doubtless a result from his going for his friends to know that he is for the present removed from the danger zone.

The same may be said of Bert Hammond, who went over in the Autumn of 1915 with Lt. Dugit. He was to-day reported thus: "Bert Hammond, mounted rifles, admitted to Australian Gen. Hospital. Slightly wounded slightly head injury, send further particulars." Only last Friday his youngest son was reported wounded, and there are yet two brothers at the front, "peppering away" no doubt.

We cannot get a line on the identity of N. Telford, reported yesterday as from Simcoe. R. Telford, formerly of the Bank of Hamilton.

Our old friend, Clarence Messecar does not want his letters published, he has heard of fellows from Simcoe getting into trouble through their letters being published in the local papers and getting over to the States. Clarence seems unconscious of the fact that his letters never contain anything objectionable in the way of telling where he is or any secrets as to the nature of trenches, nor any complaint. Neither does he say how many men are about him. He has written to say that Fritz got nasty and nasty and endeavored to bury him without first killing him, and he would not "stand" for it. His mate was completely covered, but was dug out. Clarence has a sore back and a bruised leg, but the nurses are feeding him good eats, including chocolate, using him like a prince and Clarence is doubtless repaying it all in his unconscious droop and characteristic buoyant optimism.

Bread is up to 9 cents a loaf; of 24 ozs we presume.

Townsmen's Casualty
 A host of young fellows ambled last evening to bid welcome to a newly-arrived couple a short distance from town in the Township of Townsend. An old time chariivari was nicely underway when the enforced host of the evening, it is said, came out and fired three shots. One of the bullets found its mark and

A Very Interesting Thrift Exhibit

Mr. J. H. Fisher, Owing to Parliamentary Duties Could Not See the 215th Off

(From our own Correspondent)

Paris, April 24.—A very interesting exhibit is now on view in the Y. M. C. A. entitled the "Thrift Exhibit," which has been witnessed by nearly two million people in other places. The various characters are certainly true to life, and our citizens should not miss the opportunity of going to the exhibit. The bad effect of the waste of money at any time is a vital problem, but truly so at war time as it creates bad economic conditions besides having an evil effect on character. The thrift exhibit teaches the principal things of saving, spending and investing of money, as well as the proper use of one's mind, body and spirit. It also teaches people to be thrifty with time and energy, and in fact everything that enters into one's daily life. The exhibit in the Y. M. C. A. will close on Thursday evening. It is free, and the Courier reader should not miss this opportunity.

The accident happened at the old station, where the horse got frightened at a passing train.

Mr. Aaron Laycock, Amelia St., had the misfortune to be thrown out of his rig on Saturday afternoon. The accident threw ribs and his shoulder.

Mr. J. F. Gillespie, who has been on the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Chatham for the past two years, has been appointed accountant at the Bank of Commerce here. We understand it is in the place of Mr. Dixon, who has been promoted.

A wedding of interest to many in town took place in the English Church at Medicine Hat on Saturday morning, when Elizabeth, second oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowe, River Street was united in marriage to Mr. George Conrad, son of Mrs. Wm. Conrad of Pincher Creek, Alta. The bride wore a wedding gown of grey silk, with white picture hat and carried a beautiful bouquet. Later the happy young couple left to spend their wedding trip at Calgary, the bride travelling in a navy and groom in a suit and chat hat to match.

The absence of his father, a number of his friends, and the fact that he is in memory of their fallen comrades and to commemorate the day on which the Canadians held the line at the battle of Ypres. The men seemed very much impressed by the service, and said that Reg. C. Jenkins, late Chaplain of the 58th Battalion gave a very inspiring address.

The remains of Jack Cahill, second eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cahill, Sr., of Paris, station, who passed away last Tuesday at Virgins Station, were brought home on Sunday. The deceased had been away from town for the past 16 years. He had been ill only a few days with pneumonia and his early death came as a great shock to the family. The funeral took place yesterday morning from his parents residence and was largely attended by many sympathizing relatives and friends. Service was conducted in the church of the Sacred Heart by Rev. Father Cassidy, and from there to the R. C. Cemetery. Burial was in the presence of his three sisters and three brothers, namely, Lizzie, of Toronto, Mary and Belle at home; Frank of Grand Rapids; Jim; and the late Walter of Brantford, and Thom. of Paris, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended in their sad bereavement.

Having to attend to his duties at Ottawa, Mr. J. H. Fisher, M.P., left for that city on Sunday, and consequently was not able to see the 215th Battalion on their tour. He was always a warm friend of the Brantford Battalion, and sent a special letter to Lieut.-Col. Snider yesterday, expressing his regret at not being able to be present, and wishing the officers and men a safe voyage and an early return.

 "William Smith," Unknown, Dead.

The unknown "Wm. Smith," reported a few days ago as having been transferred to the county home after finishing a agrangy term in jail, died on Saturday morning. He was a man above average size and of good build, about 65 years of age. He had called at Simcoe often during the past ten years, always under a new name. Death was due to partial paralysis and a general breaking up of the system. He had about $75 in cash concealed in his clothing when apprehended. This will go to the county.

Mr. J. M. Hodson, lay preacher of St. Paul's, conducted the funeral on Sunday at the county cemetery.

Will There Be Any?
 To-day is the last day for the filing of appeals against the arbitrator's award in the matter of the union school on the south-western confines of the town. Up till yesterday evening none had been put in.

Five days more to pay the dog tax.

 Ottawa, April 23.—The Ottawa Women's Canadian Club, which has been undergoing severe internal dissensions regarding whether "O Canada" should be sung at meetings of the club in addition to the national anthem, had a stormy session Saturday at which those who opposed the singing of "O Canada" won out by eleven votes.

East Middlesex Liberals nominated James M. Ross, of Lucan, a merchant, candidate for the Commons. W. E. Grievie, of Westminster, was elected president.

WILD STORM IN GERMANY

Over Socialist Talk of Peace Terms—No Annexation Combated

By Courier Leased Wire.
 Copenhagen, via London, April 24.—The reports of the Russo-German Socialist formulas for peace on a basis of no annexation or indemnities have unleashed a wild storm of discussion in Germany over peace terms. The pan-Germans are showing no disposition to abate one iota their demands, despite the indications that the government is inclined to yield to a certain extent to the pressure of Austria and the home Socialists.

The National Liberal party of Westphalia, the home of big industry, for example, has unanimously passed a resolution demanding an indemnity for financial sacrifices and increases in territory, east, west and overseas.

The resolution demands particularly in view of the Russian revolution, an extension of Germany's frontier eastward in order to obtain lands for German colonization.

George Bernhard, editor of The Berlin Voelische Zeitung, and a member of the inner councils of the Radical party, takes issue with those Socialists who advocate peace on the basis of no indemnity and no annexation. Herr Bernhard declares that the future of Germany will be gravely compromised if the country is obliged to bear the burden of war debt of 120,000,000,000 marks.

The Berlin editor insists that the occupied territories in the east and west must under no conditions be surrendered without an attempt to negotiate an indemnity. He demands that Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg state plainly what peace terms he proposes and no longer permit Schlegelmann to pose as the governments spokesman.

Tony Peters, a Windsor fruit dealer, was fined $200 and costs for selling "fruit extract" to soldiers which contained a high percentage of alcohol.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

BY JOHN W. S. McCULLOUGH, M.D., D.P.H., CHIEF OFFICER OF THE PROVINCIAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

COLDS.
 A COLD IS LOOKED UPON as a trivial complaint. A neglected cold used to be regarded as a forerunner of consumption, but it is now well known that a cold is but an incident in a disease which is due to a specific cause, namely the bacillus of tuberculosis. But a cold, especially "a cold in the head," is really a serious trouble not so much for the annoyance it causes one but for the dangerous conditions which frequently result from it.

For example, a "cold in the head" may start an earache in a child. The earache, if neglected—as it often is—may result in mastoid abscess; that is, a collection of pus in the honeycomb structure of bone just behind the ear, which can be cured only by a severe operation. This, if neglected, may cause an inflammation of the brain structures and the death of the patient.

The neglected earache may cause trouble in another direction. It is a common occurrence that the ear drum from the force of the pus behind it breaks and there is a long course of discharging ear or deafness which if neglected may persist for life. The earache can be readily relieved and all danger and after sequelae referred to by a timely opening of the ear drum. "Laudanum drops," "warm sweet oil," etc., are of no value in the treatment. Puncturing the drum is a simple, rapid, and effectual treatment of the affection which soon secures complete recovery. The other day one of our district health officers had a conference with the members of the Board of Health of a township not very far from Toronto. The revee was objecting to the cost of Board of Health work, and incidentally remarked that "he thought it better that children should get colds than that they should have earaches, and have done with them."

The doctor replied that he had been very deaf, the result of the scarlet fever. So the district officer asked him how many dollars he would be willing to pay to have the boy's hearing restored, which a more careful protection against communicable disease might have prevented. The father had no further argument to offer.

"Splitting" is considered disgusting and dangerous, and signs are put up warning the public against expectorating in public places. "Sneezing" is a habit which still occupies a polite place in people's manners, yet the one is probably as dangerous as the other. How can one expect to avoid colds with their consequences in riding on the crowded street cars of our cities?

PLUNGES AND SWIMMING POOLS.
 Fresh and salt water plunges may carry widespread infection, especially during the season when nasal and throat affections are common. Cold, cases of ear trouble, and mastoid abscesses occur from dirty swimming tanks. Ninety per cent. of cases of middle ear abscess and mastoid disease result directly from ordinary "colds in the head" and "sore throat." Nearly all cases of suppurative of the sinuses of the head (bottle spaces in the cheek bones, frontal and other bones of the head) result from colds. A cold is an infection just as diphtheria or measles or scarlet fever are.

HOW TO PREVENT COLDS.
 (1) A daily cold bath or a cold sponge bath of the face, chest, neck, and shoulders.
 (2) Fresh moving air in one's bedroom. Don't be afraid of outdoor air.
 (3) Avoid public plunges and swimming tanks.
 (4) If one member of the household has a cold the others should avoid too close contact such as kissing. Soft cheesecloth which may be burnt should be used as handkerchiefs.
 (5) Keep the feet dry.
 (6) Have plenty of outdoor exercise.

The best protection against infection of the ears in children is the timely removal of adenoids and tonsils. It is astonishing how the ordinary always-with-a-cold child gets rid of these troublesome symptoms after the removal of adenoids and tonsils. If there is earache get a competent physician and have the ear drum given a slit. This lets out the pent-up secretion and the only thing remaining is to keep the ear clean and dry for a few days.

Douches of the nose, forcible blowing of the nose while it is clogged, and diving in the tank should be avoided.
 Eat plain food; eat slowly; chew the food well, and rest after eating. Is good advice for everyone.
