R. M. Brown Charges Harry Hamburger With Misappropriating Money.

On Saturday R. M. Brown had a warrant issued for the arrest of Harry Hamberger on the charge of misappropriating money.

This is chapter second of the Ginzburg aftermath, Hamberger having collected a number of judgments at Eagle and turned in an expense account within $141.25 of the amount, $2,024.25, collected.

Hamberger was taken to the barracks Saturday evening and released on his own recognizance until this morning when at the instance of Thursday at 2 o'clock, the prosecuting witness wishing until that time ate his charge...

As Mr. Littlefield's bill, which is to be the president's bill to check the trusts, is the reverse of what Senator Hanna stands for, it is easy to see that somebody is trying to precipitate a fight inside the Republican ranks. The Roosevelt faction would have to meet the Hanna faction next session on the question of the ship subsidy bill in order to be consistent as to trusts, and Mr. Hanna and Mr. Payne are committed to carrying through this bill:

There is some reason to believe that the boomers of the new party will attach themselves to Representative Babcock, who has a measure for curbing the trusts by removing the duty on trust-made goods. This hill was not favored by the high tariff people, and never had any
