WOODVILLE

Messrs Herbert and Gordon Beach, who belong to the 112th Battalion are now in training in Kentville, spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Beach.

Miss Muriel C. Hiltz has accepted the position as school teacher at Halls Harbor for the last half term.

Mrs. W. B. Burgess entertained a large number of friends and relatives last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wood of Newton, Mass., are guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Henry S. Wood. It is eighteen years since Mr. Wood visited his native home.

Miss Sarah E. Beach, who taught the first half of the term at Ross Corner, is attending the Provincial Normal School at Truro. We all wish her much success.

HIGHBURY

As there has not been any news from our vicinity for some time, guess a few lines will not come amiss.

Measles seem to be quite prevalent in our community little Mildred Marsters having had them, also Merlin Eagles and Winnie Rafuse. Mr. John Adams lost a little boy last week from an attack of measles and pneumonia, his other two children are recovering.

Mrs. Albert Rottler is housed with an attack of La Grippe.

Mrs. Burpee Fielding spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Kinsman at Sheffield Mills. We regret very much that Mr. and Mrs. Fielding intend leaving us in a few weeks. We hope they may return soon and settle in our community.

Mr. Downey and Miss Mildred Walker are expected home from U. S. A. in a few weeks.

Mr. Burnett Russell who has been spending the past two months with his brother in Roxbury returned home last week.

We understand that Mr. C. H. Eaton has recently purchased a beautiful Marshall and Wendell piano from J. R. Webster, Kentville.

A number of ladies from Kentville recently spent the afternoon with Mrs. Burpee Fielding.

Mrs. S. Forsythe is visiting in Gaspereau.

The school is progressing favorably under the management of Miss Margaret McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Downey and family spent Wednesday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fielding, North Alton.

Miss Leah Eaton entertained a number of her friends on Tuesday evening. A most enjoyable time being spent in music and games special mention might be made of the selections beautifully rendered by Mr. Harry Kinsman, Canaan, after refreshments were served, the party broke up at midnight.

The Misses Calla and May Cross have been quite sick with la grippe. Dr. Moore is in attendance.

Mr. Budd Eaton who has been in Annapolis Co., in the Davis-on Lumber Co. returned home last week he is looking well, nevertheless he met with quite a serious accident while there.

Mrs. Steadman Marsters hears regularly from her husband who is at sea, he is lying at present at Portland, Me., but expects to arrive at New York next week with a load of plaster.

BORN

Pudsey—At Greenwich, Feb. 27, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pudsey, a daughter.

The death of Martin Porter, Harbor Master at Halls Harbor took place last week.

The United States' Presidential nominations will be made in four months. It looks as if the great European war will be a big issue in an American election.

PORT WILLIAMS

Another one of our boys have answered the call of the Motherland, viz., Everett Fraser.

Miss Florence Brown, who has been very ill with measles is slowly but steadily improving.

Mr. Howard West, one of our oldest citizens, is very ill, small hopes are held of his recovery.

George Lockwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lockwood, is very ill with inflammatory rheumatism.

One of our young men who has been at the front for some time, viz. Mr. George Chase, has been promoted to the office of Major, for some deed of valor.

"Well done, George, we are proud of you."

Mrs. J. Purvis Smith, late Missionary from China, and her sister, Miss Jessie Esam, will hold a "Chinese reception" in the vestry of the Baptist church, Pt. Williams on Wednesday evening, March 8th. She will show to the public the difficulties one has to cope with in trying to present the story of Christ, and His salvation to the people in heathen lands, everyone is invited to be present, and see for themselves in a very real way, our missionaries working among the heathen.

"Ye Bigge Choir" of Port Williams will give a patriotic concert in Citizen's Hall on Friday evening next, March 10th, consisting of solos, quartettes and choruses, recitations, also a flag drill by eleven young ladies, each carrying a flag of the Allies. Everybody come and help swell the "Red Cross" Fund. Admissoin. Adults 25c. Children 15c.

PEREAU AND VICINITY

H. G. Meek spent Sunday, Feb. 27th at his home, returning on Monday to Stellerton where he is employed in the shell factory.

We are glad to have J. W. Hubbard with us again. After having finished work in Halifax.

Pte. Daniel McColl was home from Halifax for a few days last week.

We understand Mr. H. Bigelow of Canning has purchased the fine farm at Blomidon formerly owned by Mr. McGee.

Mr. Kenneth McKeen has returned to Winnipeg having spent the winter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McKeen.

Mrs. Ezra Reid has been confined to the house with a severe cold.

We are sorry to report that one of Mr. W. M. Sandford's horses received a severe injury in the lumber woods which may lay it up for the summer.

Mrs. Elmer Palmer spent a day in Berwick last week.

Among the number who have enlisted from these parts are Cecil Meek and Wilburn Porter.
