OBITUARY

Mrs. Harry S. Dickie

It is with feeling of deep regret that we today record the death of Ethel Harding, wife of Harry S. Dickie, which occurred at her home on Granville Street, Wednesday morning, May 17th, at the age of 43 years.

Mrs. Dickie was born at Upper Dyke Village, Kings County, and was a daughter of the late Enoch Griffin.

About four years ago Mrs. Dickie moved to Bridgetown from Berwick, with her husband and family, and through her kindly manner and happy temperament had made many friends in Bridgetown.

The deceased has been the subject of a form of heart trouble for some time past, and her naturally active disposition very often laid her aside with illness.

She is survived by a sorrowing husband and three children, Kenneth, Cecil and Evelyn, and one sister, Mrs. R. E. Rand of Upper Canard who have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their time of bereavement.

The funeral service was held at her late home Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. C. Warren of the Baptist Church, assisted by Revs. F. C. Simpson and A. R. Reynolds. Interment took place in the Riverside Cemetery.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, including a wreath from the members of the W. M. A. S. of the Baptist Church, of which the deceased was a member.—Bridgetown Monitor.

Couldn't Stand That

good story by the late Mr. A. M. Sullivan, M.P., may not inaptly be reproduced at this period. During the Franco-Prussian War of 1870-1 the people of Ireland were most enthusiastic in their support of the French, and many hundreds of Irishmen went into the French Army. So intense was the feeling in Dublin that when a French defeat was blazoned on the placard boards outside news agents' shops, on several occasions, irate citizens were known to kick the boards to pieces.

It was during this period of excitement that Pat Malone was brought before the stipendiary for assaulting his wife.

Pat pleaded provocation, and the stipendiary told him to tell his tale.

"Well, your worship," said Pat, "I went home solid an' sober, an' the wife started to nag because I was late for my dinner. She called me 'a loungin' moucher; I stood it. She called me a 'renegade,' an' a 'traitor,' an' she threw the taypot at me. I stood all that. She said I was an 'apostate,' an' a 'scallywag,' a 'ruffian,' an' a 'thief,' an' even said I'd rob a poor-box. If I got the chance, an' I stood it all, yer worship. An' then, sir, she ups an' calls me a 'blighted Prussian!' An' sure, flesh and blood couldn't stand that, so I gey her a skelp or two o' me fist!"

Evelyn Thaw Married

New York, May 25—Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw, divorced by Harry Thaw last month, and Jack Clifford, her dancing partner, returned here last night after a hasty trip to Baltimore and announced that they had been married in Maryland.

Albert Hubley of Milford was accidentally killed by falling off a pier at the saw mill of Charles Harnish at Grey wood, Annapolis County, on Tuesday, May 16th. Hubley had brought in a load of logs for sawing and in getting them ready for the table had stepped backward over the wharf. He fell twenty feet to the water below and struck his head just below the surface. The body was soon recovered and a big cut in the head indicated that he was instantly killed. Hubley was sixty years of age. He had been twice married and left a large family mostly grown up.

A young woman recently received the following note, and is heartbroken:—"You needn't expect me up to yure house no more Sunda nights. A gurl that leaves toffee a-stickin' on the parlour chairs for a feller to sit on tin't no gurl for me.—Jim."

The Boston and Yarmouth S. S. Co's four trips a week service will begin about the 25th of June, and the daily service about the first of July. From indications the outlook for a goodly passenger traffic are of the brightest and it is hoped our best expectations may be realized.

North Sydney is going to make a bid for the establishment of a shipbuilding plant in the town. The Council has adopted a resolution providing for the town furnishing a free site, tax exemption and any concessions tending to induce a company or persons establishing such a plant in the town, even going as far as to offer a bonus.
