THE CONFIRMATION.—A full report of the confirmation, prepared for this issue, is unavoidably crowded out. It will appear next week.

WANTED.—1000 Doz. Eggs per week, highest prices paid cash or trade at E. C. BISHOP'S.

Casperau.

On Monday last George Casperau of Casperau sold at public auction his dwelling house, carpenter shop, household effects and stock in trade, and left the same evening for the United States. Mr Casperau has carried on the business of a wheelwright at Casperau for several years and has had all the work he could attend to, and it appears that nothing but a disposition for change caused him to thus sell out and go away.

Work on the Cornwallis Valley Railroad has been pushed forward quite rapidly of late. The location of the road has been settled upon, and the land surveyed. After leaving Canning the road crosses the dyke to Canard side and then takes its course west. Probably a station will be placed near the iron bridge leading to Randy's, if the road is constructed.

Canard Items.

Cucumbers, Aye! And Yet Again.

Messrs EDITORS.—After the able article in last week's ACADIAN on the "Pickle Industry," it would be simply folly for me to say anything more to show the profitability of growing cucumbers at the disputed price. Producer commenced his letter with a little game at guessing who "Another Producer" is and of course he will grant me the same little amusement. My idea, that this "Solon" in disguise is no other than a "retired minister," noted for his dissatisfaction with everything and everybody, is generally agreed in by all the farmers around here, who are tickled to death that such an individual should pose as their champion. Of course it is very uncharitable but at the same time side-splitting with fun to hear them compare him to a piece of machinery whose descriptive name ends with a K. I don't want to be greedy so your readers shall participate in the guessing. I will remind him once more that a bushel of cucumbers does not weigh 60 lbs and also that I did not acknowledge that under the old way of making pickles they could be produced at 2 1/2 cents per lb. I said it might be done. The tenacity with which he clings to his ideas reminds me of a certain annual celebrated for his stubbornness; but then it would be a libel on a donkey tribe to call him by the same name they are often called. With regard to him I shall in the future act on the advice given in that "good book" from which he will tell you, you should govern your conduct by, and which is to be found in Proverbs xvi., 4 verse. Thanking you once more for space I remain, gentlemen, Yours &c. ANOTHER PRODUCER.

Married.

BECKWITH-MCLEOD.—At the residence of the bride's parents, Berwick, on the 26th inst., by Rev. E. O. Reed, assisted by Rev. S. McC. Black, Agnes Smith, second daughter of A. J. McLeod, attorney-at-law, to J. L. Beckwith, of Victoria, British Columbia.

The Town Talk.

"Good afternoon, Mrs Runaround, I am so glad to see you, walk right in and spend the afternoon with me. I was thinking of you to-day, and coming events cast their shadows before.

How's baby and hubby, all well? I'm so glad to hear it. I was out shopping yesterday and I heard that they were unwell. Do you go shopping any Mrs Runaround? I do so like to go shopping and price goods. I suppose that the clerks got vexed with me, but I flatter them a little and make it all right. Speaking of shopping, have you ever seen B. G. Bishop's new store, No. 999, Main St., Wolfville? I was in his place yesterday. He has just opened the most beautiful lot of Tea Sets, Vases, Fancy Goods, Crockery and Glass I ever saw—and so cheap; and such pretty lamps, it is worth your while to see them. And a beautiful stock of Tinware! He sells a large Wash Boiler for $1.25, and a nice Coal Scuttle for 30 cents. His Tinware is dirt cheap, just think of a one-gallon Oil Can for 30 cents! I never heard the best of it, and such an endless variety! My hubby says that he gets the best satisfaction in Paints and Hardware from Mr Bishop as he is bound to sell cheap and keep good stock only. Yes, we will go in and see his store. Oh, must you be going? Well, call again and bring baby with you. Good-bye! Oh, yes, I shall go and see you soon. Good-bye, and come again. Oh my, yes, I guess I will. Good-bye! Good-bye!"
