The Women's Christian Temperance Union meeting in the Methodist church last Sunday afternoon took the form of a mass Sabbath-school meeting, and was addressed by Mr John Grierson, agent of the Provincial Sabbath-school association. There was a large attendance of Sabbath school workers and others interested, and the half-hour's talk on "Temperance in the Sabbath-school" was interesting and instructive. Rev. J. M. Fisher, of Canisling, was called on and made a short address, and also the superintendents of the different Sabbath-schools of the town. Good music was furnished by the W. C. T. U. choir, assisted by Miss Mamie Flitch on the violin.
