ARMISTICE DAY

THE ACADIAN is pleased to be able to report that so far as Wolfville is concerned there has been no attempt made to combine Armistice Day with Thanksgiving Day. At the public service on Monday morning no reference was made to the former anniversary, greatly to the satisfaction of a number at least of those present. Just what our town will do to commemorate the end of the war and the coming of peace on that memorable morning four years ago to-morrow we are unable to say at the present writing, but there will be no attempt to side track the anniversary as the government suggests. If Thanksgiving Day was made primarily a time for thanks and praise in consideration of mercies received there might be some justification for an attempt to embrace within its scope the return to peace at the end of the great struggle for world freedom. But Thanksgiving Day has become a time for jollification and feasting and many hearts and homes throughout our land are yet too sore to appreciate such a commemoration of a time which means sacrifice and sorrow. Armistice Day should be a holy-day and observed in such a manner as to perpetuate in the life of our people the high principles for which Canadians fought and died in the Great War.

ARE YOU DOING YOUR PART?

Newspaper advertising is the propelling force that keeps a community afloat. Stop the propelling force in a flying machine and the flying machine drops. Stop the propelling force in your community and the community drops. There is a cumulative effect in every business house, advertising, however small the advertisement carried. One then helps the other to carry the load of winning business to the town and making it the centre to which thought is directed. When only a few advertise, they have to do the work that all should join them in doing, and it is the more difficult for them to create that magnetic influence which attracts and centres trade. What are you doing Mr. Businessman to keep the propelling force going?

CANADIAN DOLLAR HAS ITS TURN

It is most gratifying to note the change that has taken place with regard to the value of the Canadian dollar since the war ended four years ago. Adverse trade conditions reached such a point at one time that our dollar in the United States was worth little more than eighty cents and the U. S. dollar was eagerly sought in this country. Those who came here from over the border found their money had increased wonderfully in purchasing power. Now all is changed again. The other day a resident of Wolfville found that the bank charged him fifteen cents for cashing a twenty dollar U. S. note, which indicates that the tables are turned. Canadian money is good enough for Canadians and apparently good enough again for foreign nations as well.

The new gravel road where completed is now in excellent condition, and might remain so for a considerable time if properly patrolled and kept under careful supervision. That such treatment is most necessary must be apparent to any observant person. Already the process of disintegration is proceeding and every little pocket will soon become a rut if neglected. It will be good economy to place every section under the care of a competent man who would be held responsible for its maintenance and receive a fair remuneration. Otherwise in a comparatively short time the road will be in the same condition as formerly and the money gone.

The necessity for the utmost care on the part of automobile drivers in turning street corners was demonstrated in Wolfville a few days ago. The incident occurred at the corner of Main street and Linden avenue. A car was turning off Main street when a small boy was crossing the avenue. The boy seeing the auto upon him was apparently dazed and stopped abruptly in front of the car. Had it not been that the vehicle was moving slowly and under absolute control on the part of the driver a serious accident could not have been averted. Some day when a swiftly moving car is taking this corner under similar conditions there will be a tragedy.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY

The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, seems to have a genius for collecting, or at least for giving us the best of everything. It is because all needs are catered to, and all minds receive what they need, and all households are given from the experience of the past and the wisdom of the present what is necessary for today and to-morrow also, that none can afford to be without the Family Herald and Weekly Star, particularly as the subscription price of $2.00 a year is within the means of all.

BY-ELECTION IN HALIFAX DECEMBER 4TH

Ottawa, Oct. 29—Writs were issued late yesterday afternoon for the holding of by-elections in five vacant constituencies. These are Lanark (Ontario), made vacant by the death of the late Hon. J. A. Stewart, former minister of railways and canals; Jacques Cartier and Megantic (Quebec), the former made vacant by the death of the late D. A. La Fortune and the latter by the appointment yesterday of Lucien Paquet, sitting member, as secretary of the Canadian High Commissioners' office in London; Halifax, which became vacant with the death last week of Dr. Edward Blackadder; and Gloucester, N. B., vacant through the appointment of Onesiphore Turgeon, sitting member, to the Senate.

Nomination day in each case is November 20 and the voting on December 4. The announcement of the dates was made by the Prime Minister Saturday evening.

BACK TO THE FIRST LINE

Backward, turn backward, O Time in your flight—I am as blue as they make 'em tonight. I have been blessed with an appetite rare, equal to that of a cinnamon bear. Now, I'm lopsided, dyspeptic, and lank, fling on stuff that has made me a crank.—O, for some gravey like Ma used to make.—Pass me the steak, brother pass me the steak!

When I hark back to the smoke-house of yore, loaded with goodies from exit to door... Think of the pantry, and spring-house, and cave, bursting with viands an angel might crave.—Now I front up to some vulcanized meat, doped and embalmed till it ain't fit to eat. O, for some corn-bread, and hog-jowl and greens—Pass me the beans, brother, pass me the beans.

Once we ate hominy, finer than silk. Now, it's ground corn-stalks with racket-store milk—stuff that was never inside of a cow—made out of whitewash, the devil knows how! I have grown weary of "crispiess" and "flakees"—copyright wafers and patented cakes,—factory-made fodder that ain't worth a damn! Pass me the ham, brother, pass me the ham.

FIGURED HIM

Seth Hemway had a reputation far and wide as a person who would not pay his debts.

Grocer Bilkens one day sent his new clerk to collect a bill long over-due. "And don't come back unless you get it!" was the grocer's parting instructions. A half hour later the clerk walked in and handed over the full amount.

"How in Heaven's name did you get all that money out of that old dead-beat?" asked the grocer.

"Huh, I told him I would tell everybody he owed that he had paid me, if he didn't."
