The brids and groom of yester-year, who made this their love nest planned wisely. They saved and preserved by the use of paint. Other generations saw the wisdom of this, and today the old home stands as a monument to those who not only built weil but knew the economy of surface preservation by paint.

"My little girl had organic nervous trouble, could not sleep, had severe headaches and fainting spells. This went on for three years, and three doctors helped her very little. After reading of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food had done for others, I got some for her. She is now so well that she is like a different child. That the Indian village of Hochelaga, which stood on the site of the present city of Montreal, was a place of about fifty wooden houses having a population of some 4,000 souls when Jacques Cartier sailed up the St. Lawrence, was the assertion made by Dr. W. D. Lighthall before the Antiquarian and Numismatic Society of Montreal recently. Dr. Lighthall was able to give the boundaries of the village and described it as resembling the home of Cedric the Saxon, in "Ivanhoe."

Apropos of the recent "Save the Forest Week," E. W. Beatty, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, stated: "A week's concentration on saving the forests of Canadia is well worth while—much better to make it a 'Forest Saving Year' and, if the forest resource to adequately avail the greater Canada of a few years hence it must be a 'Forest Saving Generation.' Forest wastage is to-day tragically too great and we Canadians must pay and are paying for the loss,"

When you drink tea every cup should be a delicious refreshment—a distinct pleasure. But this demands good tea in the pot. You cannot possibly get satisfactory results from inferior tea.

Now consider the small cost of a cup of King Cole Tea—a mere fraction of a cent. Surprising isn't it? But its secret is in the rich liquoring King Cole blend which yields so generously in the number of cups to the pound. It makes King Cole the truly cheap tea.
