THE POPE.

The correspondent of the Times at Rome says: "Cardinal

Jacobini, the Papal Secretary of State, has sent a circular to the Nuncios in regard to the recent meeting in Rome to urge the abolition of the Papal guarantee, the purport of which may be judged from the fact that the Pope has openly said that he considers the speeches made at the meeting as a greater offence against the Church than the disturbances at the removal of Pius IX, inasmuch as at the abolition meeting insults were directly and with impunity, levelled at the living Pontiff, in his own person, as the head of the Catholic religion, and as a sovereign guaranteed by Italian laws." Excited meetings against the Papal guarantees were held on Sunday at Geneva and sienna. Much excitement has been caused in Berlin by an article in the Augsburg Allegemaire Zeitung declaring that, by ratifying the appointment of Dr. harmus, Catholic bishop of Treves, the German Government have "gone to Canossa." Liberal papers agree that the Roman Curia has triumphed over

Prince Bismarck. Another despatch says. Relative to the article in the Augsburg Allegemaire Zeitung, asserting that the German Government has yielded to the Vatican, the Kreuz Zeitung declares the Government will never sacrifice the rights of the State and the Emperor, or has approved the negotiations with the Vatican.

WOOD TRADE.

From Farneworth & Jardine's,

Liverpool Wood Circular of August 1st, we quote as follows:—

The arrivals from British North America during the past month have been 55 vessels 44,264 tons, against 104 vessels, 68,889 tons during the corresponding month last year.

The import has been moderate, and the deliveries have been on a larger scale, which has led to an improved feeling in our market and generally firmer prices; this we trust will not be marred, as it too often is, by an undue increase in the shipments, which would very soon cause a reaction in our still sensitive market.

New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Spruce and Pine Deals, etc.—

The import of spruce has been fairly moderate, and the consumption has been equal to last year, leaving us with a more healthy stock; the result has been an improved tone in the market, and an advance in value of from 5 to 7-6 per standard; the country trade, however, do not freely respond to this advance, and will, no doubt, be cautious buyers until the season is further advanced, and it is seen how supplies come for-WARD.

It is still most desirable that shipments should continue on a moderate scale for the remainder of the year. Pine deals are not inquired for. Birch rules low in price, and stocks, though lighter than last year, are still too heavy.

The aggregate tonnage to this date in 1879, 1880, and 1881, is respectively 156,187, 196,010 and 153,669.

The following are the quotations of sales during the month:

Birch.—By auction St. John, 15 inches average, at an average of 6 1/4 per foot; Dalhousie, 14 1/2 inches, at 14 1/2 per foot.

Spruce deals.—By auction St. John, at £6 10 per standard; Parrsboro at £6 12 per standard; other ports at from £6 7-6 to £6 10 per standard; the latest sales have been by private at £6 15 per standard.

Scantling and boards.—The former at from £6 2-6 to £6 5 per standard; the latter at from £5 10 to £5 12 6 per standard.

Pelings.—5 feet 3 by 1 inch at 70s. per mille; 4 1/2 feet 3 by 1 inch at 50s. per mille.

HOW EASY IT IS TO DIE.

"If I had strength to hold a pen, I would write how easy and delightful it is to die," were the last words of the celebrated surgeon, Wm. Hunter; and Louis XIV is recorded as saying, with his last breath, "I thought dying had been more difficult."

That the painlessness of death is owing to some benumbed influence acting on the sensory nerves may be inferred from the fact that untoward external surroundings rarely trouble the dying.

On the day that Lord Colling-wood breathed his last the Mediteranean was tumultuous; those elements which had been the scene of his past glories rose and fell in swelling undulations and seemed as if rocking him to sleep. Capt. Thomas ventured to ask if he was disturbed by the tossing of the ship. "No, Thomas," he answered, "I am now in a state that nothing can disturb me more—I am dying, and I am sure it must be consolationary to you and all that love me to see how comfortably I am coming to my end." In the Quarterly Review there is related an instance of a criminal who escaped death by hanging by the breaking of the rope. Henry IV. of France sent his physician to examine him, who reported that after a moment's suffering the man saw an appearance like fire, across which appeared a most beautiful avenue of trees.
When a pardon was mentioned the prisoner coolly replied that it was not worth asking for. Those who have been near death from drowning, and afterward restored to consciousness, assert that the dying suffer but little pain.

Capt. Marryatt states that his sensations at one time when nearly drowned were rather pleasant than otherwise. "The first struggle for life once over, the water closing around assumed the appearance of wating green fields. * * * It is not a feeling of pain, but seems like sinking down, overpowered by sleep, in the long, soft grass of the cool meadow."

Now, this is precisely the condition presented in death from disease. Insensibility comes on, the mind loses consciousness of external objects, and death rapidly and placidly ensues from asphyxia.

THE CZAR'S PERSONAL POWER ABOVE DISCUSSION!

An article on Russian affairs published by the Moscow Gazette attracts attention in Vienna. It represents the personal power of the Czar as being above discussion. A compromise tending to modify or diminish it would be a source of peril to the state. The hope of obtaining anything by concessions is valuable. The very existence of Russia is dependent on the autocratic power of its sovereign. This article is said to be due to the pen

How Wistar's Balsam cures, From Seymour Hatcher, M. D., of Herman, N. Y.

"Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry gives universal satisfaction. It seems to cure a cough by loosening and cleansing the lungs, and allaying irritation, thus removing the cause, instead of doing up the cough and leaving the cause being. I consider the Balsam the best cough medicine with which I am acquainted. 50 cents, and $1 a
