There is one remarkable restriction in every Persian city. No Christian is ever permitted to enter one of the public baths. These baths are on the plan of what are called Turkish baths in America. The women baths in the morning ca. The women bathe in the morning and the men in the afternoon. After the bath the bathers lounge in an outer room and gossip and smoke. For the women and gossip and smoke. For the women sepecially the weekly visit to the bath is like resorting to a woman's club. They take their sewing and embroidery, and after the bath sit for hours chatting, sewing and smoking the water pipe. When the women returns home from the bath she is full of the gossip of the neighborhold and has plenty to talk about for a week to come. In Turkey all sects can visit the baths, but the Persians allow no one to bathe with them but the faithful one to bathe with them but the faithful followers of the Prophet.

The favorite woolen lace has become more attractive by the addition of a velue pattern. This covers the thick lace knots and is sewn on in fine chain or stem-stitch lines. Of course the velvet must be exactly the color of the lace it solf. Another very effective and hand-some addition to this lace consists of longish wooden beads which are sewn on in the middle of the lace pattern, but as yet the latter has only appeared in the trade in brown.

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to eure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. Hall's HAIR EXECUTED hair and scalp. Hall's HAIR EXECUTED has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfilment of its promises.

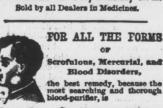

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an affort for its introduction.

RENEWER wenderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanes the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and drypes, and thus prevents baldness. It thin that the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.
