MAJOR PATON Commander of "A" Squadron

Major Paton was born at Ayrshire, Scotland, Oct. 21, 1856, and received his primary education there. Early in life he came with his parents to Canada, locating at Toronto, and completed his education in that city at the Toronto Collegiate Institute. On leaving school the Major entered the employ of the Steele, Briggs Seal Co. and remained there nine years. In 1886 he enlisted in the Queen's Own Rifles, "G" Co., and served until 1892. The Major then came west to Calgary. During the South African war he saw service at the front with Strathcona's Horse. On his return from the war he came to Edmonton and engaged in the cartage business, making a great success of this. Just recently Major Paton disposed of his interests in the aforesaid business and intends to have a little leisure after his past arduous work.

TENDERED INFORMAL BANQUET IN SOUTHERN ALBERTA

Made a Guest of the Evening By a Representative Group of Vermilion Business Men

Bulletin Special. Vermilion, Oct. 31.—Dr. McIntyre paid a visit to the town last evening, but owing to the short notice given, it was impossible to give our worthy number any great reception. Arrangements were made, however, for an informal supper which was held at the Alberta Hotel, and was attended by about twenty-five of the leading men of the town. After the supper, Mayor Belcombe as chairman proposed the toast of the evening, "Dr. Wilbert McIntyre, our esteemed representative," to which he coupled the name of Mr. Cameron. Mr. Cameron, a few chosen words, welcomed the Doctor on the occasion of his first visit to Vermilion. From what had been said during the last session it was easily seen that no man need be ashamed of their representative. He went on to lay before the Doctor the great need of a Land Office here and also the appointment of a homestead inspector for this part of the country.

Dr. McIntyre, rising to respond, said that he must first make excuses for Senator Talbot, who had fully intended making this trip with him. When Mr. Talbot arrived in Edmonton he found his son-in-law seriously ill and had to remain behind to make arrangements for his care. He then went on to say that it was with very great feeling that he stood before the hearty welcome which had been extended to him, all the more so because the people of Vermilion were the first in the whole constituency to honor him in this way.

He was strongly impressed with the prosperity of the town. It was not railroads alone that had brought it to its present position, and it was individual effort and united effort, and he well knew that the people of Vermilion were a united people. There is no election pending, so he could make promises without being accused of political matters, and he would promise that anything that would be asked by a united people would receive his best attention. Further than that he could not expect. It was from the towns on the C. N. R., said the Doctor, that he had had his main support, and he believed that he would continue to receive this support as long as he lived to the best of his ability, and the people saw that the present government were doing the right thing by them. During his last session he had been very careful to watch the business of the House in order that when anything connected with his part of the country came up for discussion he would be there and ready. One thing he would lay claim to credit for, and that was the naming of the "Alberta Red," which he considers to be of great importance to this country.

The mayor said that while he did not expect promises, he knew that the Doctor would do all he could for the people described how seriously handicapped he were in not having a Sun-Land Agency here, and gave instances of the loss incurred to the town. The question of postal arrangements was also brought up and the failure on the part of the government in the settlement of the townsite difficulty, as the plan of the townsite had never been properly registered, and this is causing great inconvenience to the residents.

Several of those present bore out the statements already made, and after a short recitation given by the mayor in his well known style, a very pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem and Au d'Lang Syne.

We regret to note that Mrs. Hayward met with what might have been a serious accident last evening. She was rendered unconscious by a fall into the cellar, and Dr. Ryan was hurriedly called on. We are glad to learn this morning that Mrs. Hayward, although still feeling badly shaken, is a great deal better, and we hope to see her about again before long. Arrangements are being rapidly pushed ahead for the establishment of the town of "Winnipeg" on the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific south of here, and the Western Canada Trading Company has already purchased a site for the erection of a store.

OUR FELLOW IN JAPAN S. Tamura, a Vancouver merchant, returning from Japan, where he was assisting in placing orders for Canadian goods, says of the flour trade, that Canadian flour was first placed on the market in Osaka, three years ago, and he considers that in a very short time it will replace the United States articles throughout the country generally.

INDIANS MIGRATING. Omaha, Neb., Oct. 31.—Rumors of a fight between the troops and Utes in Wyoming are discredited at military headquarters, no advices of that kind having been received. On the other hand a message sent from the front by a courier last night, and wired to headquarters today, said that the Indians were peacefully inclined and no trouble was anticipated. A special says the Indians are travelling northward and have already passed the Montana state line.

City Council

WILL MEET THIS EVENING

Question of Traffic at C.P.R. Bridge May Come Up

(Thursday's Daily)

A special meeting of the city council is called for this evening to attend to the business which should have been transacted at the meeting which failed to take place on Tuesday evening. One of the important matters that will probably come up in the consideration of the stand to be taken by the city with regard to the traffic facilities for the high level bridge. It is being pointed out by one or two of the aldermen that if the city is to ask the Dominion Government to provide a parkway for the traffic, the traffic attachments into the bridge there is now only a couple of weeks in which the request can be made, as unless it is sent in before the House opens at Ottawa it could not well be included in the program of the session.

The C.P.R. has its plans ready and R. R. Jamieson has intimated that he will be in Edmonton next week for the purpose of laying them before the council. Dr. Clendenning, who was in Calgary last week, brought back with him blueprints showing profiles of the plans which the company proposes to submit. The estimated cost of the traffic attachments is $300,000, according to the figures given by Dr. Clendenning. Coroner's Jury

MAKES SWEEPING CHARGES

Attached Blame to the Constables the owners of the Property and Dr. Rodrigue

Bulletin Special. Ottawa, Oct. 31.—The findings in the coroner's inquest on the victims of the Buckingham shooting, was along the lines of the charge of the coroner. It recommended that the constables should be sent before the criminal court, that the McLaren's were a cesspool for bringing the constables in, that members of the mob should be tried for inciting the strikers and that Dr. Alexander Rodrigue of Buckingham should be put on trial for having neglected his duty in not having taken steps to prevent the trouble. Two of the fourteen jurors refused to sign. Ottawa, Nov. 1.—The coroner's jury at Buckingham gave orders that Frank Kirnan, chief of police, Bailiff Cummings, Picard Engram and Warner, the latter now dead, special constables, be sent before the criminal court for killing Thomas Bolanger and F. Theriault; and that Alexander and Albert McLaren, of Buckingham, were also guilty for their deaths in bringing these men to town and should also go before the criminal court; also that Hamelin, Charlot, Clement, Croisje and many others were guilty for accompanying these men and should go before the court. Dr. Rodrigue is said to have anticipated the troubles and should also go before the criminal court. Twelve out of fourteen jurors agreed. Two refused to sign. The jury was equally divided between French and English speaking.
