KIEL, Germany, To-day.
The German armoured cruiser "Blucher" went aground in a fog on North Island between the Baltic Sea and Cattegat. She is lying on a sandy bottom. The commander believes there is no danger.

COLOMBO, To-day.
The British tank steamer Saranac is reported to have struck a reef off Dondra Head in the southernmost extremity of Ceylon, while on a voyage from New York to Calcutta by way of Port Said. She will be able to proceed.

LOUISBURG, To-day.
A heavy gale of wind with a tremendous sea is raging on this coast. Fishermen will doubtless suffer heavy losses by the destruction of salmon and mackerel nets, and lobster traps. The storm at this season of the year and its continuation will probably paralyze the salmon, lobster and mackerel fishing.

VIENNA, To-day.
Great difficulty is experienced in finding an occupant for the throne of the new kingdom of Albania, which is being created out of territory won by the Balkan League from Turkey. The Italian Government lodged a formal objection against the Duke of Urach extinguishing his hopes just as he had put a quietus to the royal ambitions of the Duke Montpensier several weeks ago, although the proposition that the throne be offered to Theodore Roosevelt was made just recently. Some European newspapers have begun to consider it seriously.

LONDON, May 30.
Propovitch, the Montenegrin chief delegate, after signing the preliminary treaty on behalf of Montenegro, delivered a speech which said: "We have signed the preliminary treaty because nothing else remained for us to do. We are glad to have peace, but profoundly dissatisfied with the terms we have been obliged to accept. We have been despoiled of the fruits of our victory. We have been made the Whipping Boy of Europe. Britain took a leading part in depriving us of Scutari, and we look to her to secure a modification of the Albanian frontier, so as to give us lands for cultivation and a natural route between Podgortza and Ipek."

LONDON, To-day.
The eight months' war between Turkey and the allied Balkan States is ended. The Peace of London was signed yesterday. Grey, British Foreign Secretary, presided over the formalities. After informing the Ambassadors at the Conference of the signing of the peace draft, Sir Edward Grey suggested that the Conference limit its discussions to three questions, the constitution for Albania, the delimitation of the Southern (?) frontier of Albania, and the status of the Aegean Islands. The Ambassadors are now waiting further instructions from their governments regarding a constitution for Albania, but the Conference is working in greater harmony than expected and will conclude its labors by the end of June.

LONDON, May 30.
Now that Ireland is in a fair way to receive self-government, unofficial Scottish Liberal members have taken up more seriously the question of securing Home Rule for their country. A committee of these members of Commons drafted a Bill, which was read a second time to-day. It is not thought likely it will go far this session, but the Scottish Liberals are determined to show if they can, that the movement is a live one. As described by Mr. Cowan, the Bill represents a further instalment of the policy of devolution initiated by the Government of Scotland Bill. It provides, differing from the Irish Bill, for the establishment in Scotland of a single chamber, subordinate to the Government of Scotland Bill. if separate provision has been made for devolution in England and Wales. Then representation of the component parts of Britain in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, is to be reconsidered and readjusted. The powers given by the Bill to the Scottish Parliament include the power to transfer to the Irish Parliament except the control of the Post Office and the power to vary customs and excise, but with the addition of the administration of Old Age Pensions, National Insurance and Labor Exchanges. Executive power, it is proposed shall continue to be vested in the King who is to be represented in Scotland by a Lord High Commissioner advised by an Executive Committee of the Scottish Privy Council. This power of varying Imperial taxes except Customs and Excise is by the Bill to be conferred upon the Scottish Parliament which in addition is to have exclusive power of levying existing Imperial taxes on heritable property in Scotland. Provision made for payment by the Imperial Exchequer to the Scottish Exchequer out of the proceeds of Scottish taxes of a sum towards defraying the cost of the Scottish services. A Joint Exchequer Board is to be established to deal with all questions arising under financial provisions. A Judicial Committee of the Privy Council is to be substituted for the House of Lords as the final Court of Appeal and all constitutional questions are to be determined by that tribunal.

NEW YORK, To-day.
The Board of Health adopted a resolution forbidding the use of living bacterial organism for the inoculation of human beings for the treatment of disease, unless permission be first obtained from the Board. Although Dr. Friedmann is not mentioned in the resolution, the effect of the measure, it was announced, will be to prohibit further administration of his treatment except under a special permit from the Board.

Charged With Raising Cheque.

Yesterday afternoon a young woman was arrested, charged with forgery. The charge is as follows: The accused, who was a domestic with Mrs. Mary Smyth, who resides on Military Road, stole a ten dollar cheque and raised it to $100 by altering a word in one place and adding a cipher in another. She took it to a city bank to change it into cash. The bank clerk on handling the cheque immediately became suspicious and acquainted the police authorities. After a delay of five minutes Supt. Grimes and a police officer came, took the girl into custody and brought her to the police station. The accused was remanded to-day.

Here and There.

DETAINED BY SEA.—The s.s. General Gordon, bound for Sydney, and the Olinda for Brazil, were detained to-day owing to the heavy sea running outside.

ICE SCOUT COMING.—The Furness Wharf Company received a wireless last evening from the ice scout steamship Scotia, which is engaged steaming Conception Bay and it very likely will be in the bay to-day. The ship is expected to reach port to-day. She is coming in for supplies and orders.

A COAL CARGO.—The schr. General Louie, laden with a cargo of North Sydney coal, arrived here at 1.30 p.m. to-day to Mullaly & Co. The vessel made the run in 4 days and had fine weather up to last night, when she had a gale of S. E. wind with rain and a heavy sea.

RETURNED FROM HONEYMOON.—Road Inspector M. Bambrick, accompanied by his bride, returned from their honeymoon trip to Salmonier by the train last night. The Inspector and his bride were met at the station by a number of friends and were heartily congratulated.

BRUCE PASSENGERS.—The Bruce arrived at Port aux Basques this morning bringing Rev. M. G. Sears, A. G. Smith, James Drury, C. Sutherland, D. W. Howard, M. H. Dwyer, Max Scott, A. S. McDonald, Mrs. H. Wyatt, Mrs. A. E. Perkins, W. R. and Mrs. Howley and James Reid.

SCHOONER DAMAGED.—The schr. Phoebe Ann, which arrived here from Bonavista Bay yesterday when crossing Conception Bay had it very blustery with a S. E. gale and carried away her main topmast and bowsprit. Some other crafts coming along had also some damage done.

DESERVE CREDIT.—When the three seamen of the Helen Stewart overturned their boat last evening, the promptness of Messrs. David Willis and Patk. Martin of Bennett's premises saved the life of one man who was under water a long while and was drowning. They cut away the painter of a boat and rescued the men just in time.

WASHINGTON, To-day.
Secretary Bryan signalized the day, commemorative of the country's hero dead, by announcing that eight nations have responded favourably to his peace plan, asking that suggestions be submitted in regard to details. The nations in the order in which they have accepted are: Italy, Britain, France, Brazil, Sweden, Norway, Peru and Russia.

LONDON, To-day.

An attempt was made last night to set fire to the Royal Academy. Although the usual votes for women placards were not found, police suspect the militant suffragettes as responsible for the attempt to destroy the building, which housed some of the world's greatest works of art. Shortly after the exhibition closed for the night, a watchman discovered in a small room on the ground floor a cardboard box filled with rags, cotton saturated with oil. A number of wax tapers were bound about the box and these burning, when the watchman found the box, which had been so placed that flames from it easily would have communicated with the walls. The suffragettes resumed the campaign of destruction night at Lewis-ham Branch Post Office which they attacked on several times previous. They set fire to letters and the building. The flames were extinguished.

Here and There.

The S. S. Floriz leaves Halifax this afternoon for this port.

The R. M. S. Mongolian is due here from Liverpool on Wednesday.

INFECTIOUS DISEASES.—During the week five cases of infectious disease were reported—three of diphtheria, one of typhoid and one of scarlet fever.

A SMART VESSEL.—The brig, Olinda, Capt. Courtenay, arrived here this morning from Bonavista, well laden, after the quick run of 15 days. The vessel had fine weather pretty well all through the voyage, and beat the Attila which left several days ahead of her. The ship went down to Pernambuco from this port in 28 days, and made the round voyage in just 74 days.

The Stray Word.

Of a friendly word or two.
When a man is feeling blue,
Gives to him fresh hope and courage
And transforms his gloomy view;
Of a smile and hearty grip
Brightens some poor wanderer's trip
Safely guiding him from pitfalls.

Of, alas! a friendly word
By some ears is seldom heard;
Of a frown of condemnation
Grieves the fellow who has erred;
Of some poor and homeless bum,
Or some wretched slave of rum,
Might be saved from degradation
If the good were not so dumb.

Of a friendly word or two helps some one start anew.
And succeed in life's stern contest and
to aid some brother, too;
Of a man who's down and out, feels relieved of fear and doubt,
When he hears the cheerful greeting,
"Let me shake yer paw old scout."
