

HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

Gillett's Lye has long been regarded as a household necessity because of the fact that it is useful in so many ways, and so satisfactory in every respect that no woman feels that she can keep house without it. Makes the finest kind of soap for washing and cleansing. One can of Gillett's Lye will make ten pounds of good soap in twenty minutes. Many of its uses are shown in booklet under the label.

DIAMOND DUST

Nothing But the Truth—Without Fear or Favour.

Flash the red lights!
Danger!
And Big Stuff!!!
Red Lions and Wanderers tonight!!!
PENNANT—!!!

Should the Wanderers manage to break through to-night it will tie them with the Red Lions for the top rung of the ladder. Should they fail then it looks like a pennant for the Hiltz gang. The position of the teams now is:

Pts.
Lions 5
Wanderers 4
Cubs 3
C.E.L. 1
B.I.S. 0

The Cubs are fervently praying for victory for the Hartnetites to-night as they figure they'll have a chance if the Lions are halved.
Donnelly, who did such great work against the Sydney Millionaires, will be on the mound for the Wanderers, and Tim's big stick will also be in action. Walter Callahan will shoot over his speedy offerings, and with Coke backstopping for him it's going to be some game. As a matter of fact it will be the most important game for the season as the result will virtually decide the flag.

OLD "FUT"

There was an old umpire named Taz, who was all out ginger and jazz; His decisions were bum, And that's how it came, That everyone gave him the razz.

TO-MORROW'S GAMES.

There will be two games to-morrow, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. The C.E.L. and B.I.S. will face each other at 10.30, and as both clubs are in the second division it's going to be a fight for a finish. Harvey, having the start, is by no means anxious to spend winter quarters roosting in the cellar, while of course Channing and his vets think it simply awful that the C.E.L. should be sitting on their necks while they are on the cold ground. J. Cuthbert is calling up the landrum and some old familiar forms will be seen cawing around atired in green and gold to-morrow. George Adams, the popular C.E.L. footballer, is going to try his hand at ball to-morrow, and Harvey assures us that he packs an awful wallop, though if O'Leary gets in the work he did in the Inter-Dominion series he'll have to go some to find him.

The afternoon's game will be between the old rivals—the Cubs and Red Lions. In every branch of sport you will always find two clubs ready to spring at each other necks at the slightest provocation and so it is with these two. They have been hammering each other all year; in their first clash in the League series the Lions walloped them; for the Mt. Cashel trophy however the Cubs spiked their guns and trotted home with the bacon; then, in the Bowring Cup preliminaries the Cubs got such a jolt from Walter Callahan that they are hardly on their feet yet. Thus, it will be that to-morrow afternoon you will likely witness the hardest fought contest that ever took place on St. George's Field. There's going to be no let-up, and we fear Ches is going to be in for a most strenuous time on close decisions. Canning and Orr will be lined up against the champs.

DUST

By Walter and Claude.
Among the words we hear to-day,
Of these there are no lack—
We're just as good as ever now,
Watch us, we're coming back.

POSTPONEMENT NOTICES.

Players are requested to take notice that should to-night's game be postponed, or called, through weather conditions it will be played to-morrow forenoon, and a doubleheader—the C.E.L.-B.I.S. and Cubs-Lions—to-morrow afternoon.

In the event of no game to-night or to-morrow morning, then the Cubs-Lions will be released for the afternoon, as the doubleheader will be between the Wanderers-Lions and C.E.L.-B.I.S.

Players are also requested to note that to-night's game starts at 6.45, and will consist of seven innings.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

Provided the weather permits games to be played to-night and to-morrow forenoon, there will be a five innings junior exhibition in the afternoon when the St. Bon's and Mount Cashel will play off for the championship. The St. Bon's are one game in the lead and should they be successful then they are champs for the season, and will win the Cup presented by the League. The game will commence at 2.30 so as not to interfere with the big Lions-Cubs game scheduled for 3 o'clock.

Who will not say that just a change will oftentimes help a guy.
He starts anew where all is strange
But what's the reason why?

A pitcher slips and slides down hill,
His hokum will not flow,
But trade him off and he will spill
Your dope and prove your foe.

A player slumps—becomes a joke,
He looks as if he's thru,
Gone is his pep—up in the smoke,
No wonder he won't do.

Look 'round and count the discards
How,
When they were thrown away,
They're got another papa now,
And starting every day.

To-Day's Messages.

TERRORISM AT LISBURN.

LISBURN, Ireland, Aug. 22. The business portion of Lisburn to-day presented a scene of ruin and desolation as a result of the burning of shops by Loyalists, in revenge for the murder of Police Inspector Swansy here yesterday. During the night the sky was lit up by flames from shops of supposed Sinn Feiners the fires also involving a number of Loyalist premises. Private homes of Sinn Feiners were burned and furniture carried into the streets and ignited. The military authorities have posted a guard over the Catholic Chapel, Wm. Shaw, Local Sinn Feinn Councilman, was beaten so severely that he is being detained in the infirmary.

UNIVERSAL DISORDER.

DUBLIN, Aug. 23. More than a hundred cases of destruction of property, assassinations of police, royalist reprisals and similar incidents were reported in Ireland during last week end and the list continues to grow.

IN THE EAST.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 23. British and Greek columns are advancing in the direction of Eskishehr, seventy miles southeast of Brussa, new nationalist offensive, which on Saturday resulted in twenty persons being killed, including one British officer, and sixty wounded. An offensive against Allies in that sector began Saturday with a surprise attack on Greeks bivouacking at Baghehlik, fifty miles east of Brussa. French troops are advancing from Miniah, sixty miles north east of Aleppo, to attack Marash, ninety miles north west of Aleppo. Hard fighting is reported.

POLES TAKE ANOTHER TOWN. COPENHAGEN, Aug. 23. Poles have recaptured Bialystok after a desperate resistance by Bolsheviks, says a despatch to Berlin from Warsaw.

A HOOPPOO BOSSING.

CAMDEN, N.J., Aug. 23. Ten persons are dead, and five others badly injured, the result of a grade crossing accident in this city last night. Two of the victims died to-day in hospital. A motor bus, containing fifteen passengers, was struck by a fast Pennsylvania electric train from Millville. The crossing has been the scene of three fatal accidents in the past six weeks.

THE TIMES AND EGYPT.

LONDON, Aug. 23. The Times says convention for the independence of Egypt will be submitted for confirmation to British Parliament and Egyptian Assembly. It is probably the latter body will be asked to pass a new agreement and laying down the future constitution and relative responsibilities of Ministry and Sovereign.

BRITISH DISPERSE ARABS.

BAGDAD, Aug. 23. A British Sikh force, operating near Hilla, engaged Arabs and repulsed them with heavy losses. The Arabs concentrated at Bakuba, thirty miles from Bagdad, have been effectively dealt with. All is quiet on the Tigris and at Bagdad and in the direction of Mosul.

POLISH SUCCESSES.

WARSAW, Aug. 23. Russian Bolshevik forces are retreating virtually along the whole line in an effort to save remnants of the Red army, but they have so far been easily frustrated by Poles. On the north there is heavy fighting in the region of Milawa and Soldan.

Forced to face two Polish armies, one advancing from Modlin and the other from Graudenz, Bolsheviks are making desperate efforts to extricate their advance guard, some of which advanced as far as Eylau and Plonk. Red losses in prisoners in this region have amounted to 11,000 in the last two days. An attempt of the Reds to break the Polish lines on Przasnysz, Makow, Rosany Road, and cross the Narew River, has completely failed. Polish troops advancing up the right bank of the Narew threw back Bolsheviks to the north. Meanwhile the main body of Poles, advancing from Warsaw, occupied all territory in front of the Bug and Narew Rivers. Ukrainian regiments, which are still on their old positions along the Strypa, have successfully repelled all attempts of the Reds and maintained their original lines on the extreme right. In the center, Polish troops, which occupied Brest-Litovsk, are digging in on the eastern border of Polesia.

QUITE CLEAR, But—!

LUCERNE, Aug. 23. An official statement, issued regarding the conference to-day, between Premiers Lloyd George and Giolitti, says the Premiers agreed to the vital need of the reestablishment of the peace of the world at the earliest possible moment, and that the first guarantee of such peace is to be found in the various treaties already concluded. "Victors in the war," continued the statement, "should display a spirit of moderation in their enforcement of terms, and the vanquished a spirit of loyalty in their execution. With this aim Britain and Italy trust that the good understanding reached at Spa will be further developed to cover all outstanding questions. Before peace is fully established, however, there are a number of important questions to be decided, the majority of which are indisputably connected with the march of events in territories of the former Russian empire. Until peace is fully established between Russia and the rest of the world, an atmosphere of disturbance and unsettlement will continue to menace the world. Therefore the British and Italian Governments have been taking steps in the face of much misrepresentation to restore communication between Russia and the world outside."

R.I.C. TAKE A STAND.

LONDON, Aug. 24. A large number of the Royal Irish Constabulary at Dublin informed the Commandant Monday that they were unwilling to be used to suppress opinion, according to the Dublin correspondent of the Central News.

CHASING THE BOLSHIES.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—A despatch from Teheran to the Daily Mail says it is reported that a counter revolution has broken out in Daghestan, and that Bolsheviks are evacuating Baku and are retreating toward Rezent, pursued by Persian Cossacks.

MORE CONSULTATIONS.

LONDON, Aug. 24. The German Food Controller, Herr Hermes, accompanied by experts, arrived in London to consult with the British Food Controller on the West methods of securing the new agreement providing for German miners.

ANARCHY AND INOENDIARISM. BELFAST, Aug. 24. Lisburn, in its zeal to avenge the death of Police Inspector Swansy, yesterday reached a terrible pitch of excitement. Nationalist stores being attacked and many buildings burned.

OF SOME EFFECT.

DUBLIN, Aug. 24. Applications for visas to passports have dwindled fifty per cent since the Daily Breeze (Irish Parliament) issued a decree prohibiting emigration, unless sanctioned by that body.

Early Journalists.

The modern newspaper, as we know it, may be fairly said to have been the invention of James Gordon Bennett, the elder. Before him there were journals, not newspapers. . . he had developed the news scheme in kind, though not in the degree that we see so elaborate and resplendent in New York and other of the leading centers of population. Mr. Bennett had led a vagrant and varied life when he started the Herald. He had been many things by turns, including a writer of verses and stories, but nothing very successful nor very long. At length he struck a central idea—a really great original idea—the idea of printing the news of the day, comprising the History of Yesterday, fully and fairly, without fear or favor. He was followed by Greeley and Raymond—making a curious and very dissimilar triumvirate—and, at longer range, by Prentice and Forney, by Bowles and Dana, Storey, Medill and Halstead. All were marked men; Greeley a writer and propagandist; Raymond a writer, de-claimer and politician; Prentice a wit and partisan; Dana a scholar and an organizer; Bowles a man both of letters and affairs. The others were men of all work, writing and fighting their way to the front, but possessing the "nose for news," using the Bennett formula and rescript as the basis of their serious efforts, and never losing sight of it. Forney had been a printer. Medill and Storey were caught young by the lure of printer's ink. Bowles was born and reared in the office of the Springfield Republican, founded by his father, and Halstead, a cross betwixt a pack horse and a race horse, was broken to harness before he was out of his teens.—Henry Watterson in "Marse Henry," an Autobiography.

Household Notes.

White fish is more digestible than any meat.
Reshape sweaters frequently while drying.
The perfect apple corer has a wooden handle.
Tomato juice will remove ink stains from fingers.
Cream taken after a meal is excellent to increase flesh.
A portable fire extinguisher should be in every home.
The modern housekeeper finds a thermometer indispensable.
Diced marshmallows are a pleasant addition to fruit salad.
Rents in umbrellas can be repaired with adhesive plaster.
Beat a lump of butter into boiled frosting that has cooked too long.
