LYDD GEORGE IS SARCASTIC.

LONDON, Sept. 8. Lloyd George in a speech at a meeting of the Welsh National Liberal Council at Langrinden, Wales, sarcastically referred to the promised tranquility besought by the Government. Italy was strangling Greece, he declared, and Great Britain was not allowed to interfere. It was hands off to Britain. The fact could not be screened. Lloyd George continued that with regard to Italy the British had suffered a serious rebuff in the rejection of Britain's sound advice that the matter between Italy and Greece should be referred to the League of Nations. It was not only a rebuff, but might very well be the death blow to the League. The practical acceptance of Mussolini's offer by the Ambassadors' Conference means that the British Empire was being snubbed out of Europe, the former British Premier stated. He added that the present policy of the Government was being elbowed out forcibly amidst the snickerings of the world.

JUST OUT.

The dealer who is always out of things the patron needs is not the hustling sort of scout who in his trade succeeds. I used to go to Bidda's store to buy my kielbasa kraut, and he would tell me evermore, "Ah, chee, we are just out! We have a shipment on the way, that should be here right quick; meanwhile we have some splendid hay, and stovewood by the rack." "I am not sitting stovewood now," I said, in high disdain; "and hay, while soothing to my cow, gives me a convex pain. I've patronized your store for years, until I have the blues; for when I ask for roasting ears you try to sell me shoes. I ask for codfish in a jar, and you are out of that; you offer me a can of tar, a mousetrap or a hat. You've always shipments on the way, of which you proudly speak, but I would have my kraut to-day, and not some time next week." So now I trade with Snide & Snell, who make their business pay; they keep the goods and do not tell of shipments on the way.

PRINCE OF WALES TO LIVE QUIETLY.

ON HIS CANADIAN RANCH.

CALGARY, Alta., Sept. 7.—(A.P.)—When the Prince of Wales visits his ranch near High River, Alta. this fall, he will travel from England in an official capacity as the Duke of Cornwall, according to W. L. Cardie, the manager of the establishment, who has recently returned from England. The prince will stay here quietly several weeks, and then return direct to London. The ranch of the prince is one of the foremost livestock breeding establishments in western Canada. He bought it four years ago on his last visit, and since then has stocked it with a large number of thoroughbred horses, Shorthorn cattle, Shropshire sheep and Dartmoor ponies. The animals have been selected from King George's own breeding establishments and represent some of the best blood in the world. The prince's purpose in establishing the ranch was to raise the standards of livestock in western Canada. As a step in this direction he has already held several sales of Shorthorn cattle and Shropshire sheep, and the animals have brought top prices in Calgary. His stock has been exhibited at all the big livestock shows in western Canada and has carried away a number of first prizes. All of the purebred horses have come away from the royal stables in England and a number of them have been outstanding winners on British tracks.

Old World Has Struck Rock Says Hodges.

BRITISH LABOR LEADER DISCUSSES SITUATION AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, Que., Aug. 28.—"There will be no restoration in Europe, no matter what British politicians may say to Canada and the United States, whether it be Lloyd George or Birkenhead, no solution for the great army of the unemployed, until the broken fabric of Europe and international relationship has been restored, until the men who occupy the functions of statesmen look to the general well-being of their national and international units rather than to the progression of any personal aggrandizement."

This was a passage from a speech by Frank Hodges, one of the best known figures in British labor circles, who addressed a meeting here last night. Mr. Hodges is secretary of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain and is in Canada as fraternal delegate to the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada next month at Vancouver. "The old world has struck a rock: the timbers of the hulk are gradually breaking up," was his further comment.

British Produce New War Weapon.

LONDON, August 30.—(Associated Press).—British gun manufacturers have produced a new war weapon, says the Daily News. It takes the form of a tractor tank and is capable of drawing artillery into action, in addition to being a self-contained fighting unit. The tank is mounted with guns, has a turret and a special compartment in which it carries field artillery. Its range is twice that of the earlier type of tank used in the war. The British Government has planned an initial order for 23 of the new machines, to cost $40,000 each.

Greek Report is Given U.S. Denial.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 29.—(Associated Press).—The American High Commission here to-day denied the recent report from Athens that Turkish soldiers had fired upon a United States motor boat at Gallipoli, killing a man and wounding a woman.

The report referred to was contained in an Athens despatch last Saturday quoting a telegram received from the Island of Imbros. It was stated that the motor boat was flying the United States flag and, carrying ten refugees, had apparently left Matlos, on the Gallipoli peninsula, for Kavala, a Greek seaport, when the engine failed and the craft drifted toward the town of Gallipoli, where the shooting was said to have occurred.
