Guelph Evening Mercury

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 26, 1873

Town and County News.

The Sons of Temperance of Drayton are giving penny readings.

Wesley's Reports of Fashions for fall and winter of 1873 and 1874 now to hand at Day's Bookstore. Price $2.00.

Mr. Thomson, 10th Con., Maryboro', had a valuable yearling colt killed by the excursion train from Guelph, Thursday evening last.

Mr. William Wallace, of Moorefield, recently sold a filly foal, about three months old, by a Reinder mare and the celebrated horse "Harper," for three hundred dollars. What a lesson for breeders!

SHOW ROOM OPENING.—A. O. Buchanan has sent up a mammoth advertisement about the opening of his show room, which takes place to-morrow at 10 o'clock. We have been obliged to hold it over till to-morrow.

Y. M. C. A.—A number of baskets and other articles kindly furnished to the Refreshment Booth have not yet been sent to their owners, as they were not labelled, and consequently none of the Committee knew to whom they belonged. If any of these articles will call at the Y. M. C. A. rooms they will find them there.

HEMALL'S SERENADERS.—The word
"Monday" was omitted by the typo from our paragraph yesterday, making it read that this troupe would appear at the Town Hall "next night" instead of "next Monday night." Anyone who is deceived by the error, and goes to the Hall expecting to find a performance tonight will please call at this office and inform us, so that we may make a local item of it.

As Wm. CLEWEL, of West Garafraza, town line of Luther, was working in his field on Thursday last, his children drew his attention to four bears—two of them old ones—walking leisurely by the fence-side in the woods. He called his dog and gave chase, and treed one of the cubs.
His wife brought his gun and he succeeded in killing the cub, but the others escaped.
There is no bounty, we believe, for killing bears in Garafraza.

HARVEST HOME.—The church people of Peel and Maryboro' held their Harvest Home on Friday, the 18th inst., at St.
John's Church and in the wood at Moorefield. Divine service was held at 11 a.m.
The church was decorated with the products of the soil. Round the windows were wreaths of wheat and oats intertwined, and studded with a variety of fruit. The walls were covered with sacred symbols and texts of Holy Scripture, all wrought in mosses, flowers, fruit and grain. The Rev. E. J. Fessenden, of Fergus, preached from Psalms 24 and 1 to a crowded congregation. Mrs. Bell presided at the organ. Four hundred people afterwards sat down in the wood to a plentiful repast. When the tables were cleared, speeches were given by Revs. E.
J. Fessenden, E. E. Thompson and the incumbent. Mr. and Mrs. Peel, with their son and daughter, and Mr. West, executed very excellent vocal and instrumental music.

OUR DEFENDERS.—Some of the citizens of the West Ward have been making serious complaints against our artillery company, now putting in their annual drill at the Exhibition grounds, or rather in the town. A number of houses in the vicinity have been ventilated on rather too large a scale to suit the tastes of their occupants. The exercise of just a little discretion on the part of the officers would have avoided any unpleasantness in the matter, and would likewise have prevented the necessity of their having to liquidate sundry little bills which, we understand, are to be presented. The in-judiciousness of drilling in the immediate vicinity of residences, and alongside a leading road, must be apparent to any thinking mind.

The Royal Commission.

SEVENTEENTH DAY.

The only business transacted by the Royal Commissioners on Wednesday was the very brief examination of Mr. F. C.
Martin, of Woodstock, who is a cousin of Mr. G. W. McMullen, and had some conversation with the latter in 1872, when Mr. McMullen, holding up a letter just received from Sir Hugh Allan, remarked he was a "tricky fellow, not to be depended upon." Mr. McMullen went on, however, to express the belief that by the letters he had received from Sir Hugh he was too tightly bound to go back on them.

EIGHTEENTH DAY.

The Commission met at noon on Friday, and has been engaged all afternoon in reading and correcting Sir Hugh Allan's evidence. Thomas White, of the Montreal Gazette, will be examined next, touching the bribery of newspapers in Quebec.

Local and Other Items

The Listowel Banner, in giving a list of new buildings, becomes highly congratulatory on the progress of the village, and says that Listowel has, during the past year, made more substantial progress than any other village of its size in Ontario.

Harper's Magazine for October opens with an illustrated article entitled "A Lady's Enterprise," showing what a lady managed to do in a rural part of France in establishing an extensive poultry yard.
Among the etchings are all sorts of tufted and feathered fowls. The second paper, also profusely pictured, takes the reader along with General Sherman in Europe and the East; the present number finds the General in Moscow, St. Petersburg, and other parts of Russia. John Hawthorne contributes a poem called "Lottery." Charles Reade continues his story, "A Simpleton." The usual departments are well sustained, the "Easy Chair" being filled this as well as last month by Dr. Osgood.

RAILROAD MEETING IN GEORGETOWN.— Two meetings were held in Esqueping on Wednesday in the interest of the Hamilton and Northwestern Railway. The first was at Stewart's, but being in the afternoon, it was thinly attended, and was addressed by Mr. Dayfoot. The evening meeting at Norval was largely attended, and was addressed by Messrs.
Dayfoot, McCulloch and Young, of Hamilton; Dr. Stars and others, of Georgetown, on behalf of the road; and by Col.
Clay and Mr. Hartly in opposition. There is great dissatisfaction in Norval because the road does not touch that place. All would favor it if it did.

Another telegram says the meeting numbered 200. After hearing the speeches pro and con, a vote was taken, which resulted unanimously against it.

A great Reform gathering will come off leading officials.

The most unpopular person in Virginia is the man who demonstrated that kerosene oil will cure a snake bite as well as whiskey.

A paper in Dixon, Ky., complains that the dogs scraping their backs on the floor joists of the church put solemn thoughts to hasty flight.

A colporteur in Kansas was told that "this 'ere region ain't much on Bibles, but if you want to make money bring us on a load of shot-guns."

A Danbury boy wants to know if it's right for his folks to pay $500 for a piano for his sister, and make him pick berries for circus money.

The demand for ready-made sermons has become so great in England that they are to be had neatly lithographed for the small price of two shillings per dozen.

The race yesterday in Philadelphia, between Goldsmith Maid and Judge Fullerton, for a purse of $5,000, was won by the former; time, 2:22, 2:21, 2:23.

It is reported that a note has been received at the English Foreign Office from the Spanish Cortes urging the immediate restoration of the frigates detained at Gibraltar.

The following is a copy of a notice displayed in a field in South London:
"Ladies and gentlemen are requested not to steal turnips. Other persons, if detected, will be prosecuted."

A fire-eating resident of Bangor, Me., has challenged the reporter of a local paper for omitting his name from a social paragraph, and now has the satisfaction of seeing himself in print.

The vitality of some people is simply astounding. There is a long-haired youth at Buffalo, who has written 700 verses, the refrain to which is "I'm dying, mother, dying," and wital he isn't dead.

Hutchinson's petition for a writ of mandamus, compelling the board of examiners to grant him a certificate for a local Flour Inspectorship, has been granted by Judge Torrance of Montreal. It will be contested in the Superior Court by the examiners.

We observe that Dr. B. A. Reeves, who lately resigned his position on the staff of the Toronto Eye and Ear Infirmary, has been appointed surgeon in charge of the department of eye and ear diseases, in the Toronto General Hospital.

Napanea had a commendable contest the other evening. At the conclusion of an entertainment the first prize for the best brown was awarded to Mr. William Brown, printer, Ann street, who was the author of the following: Why was the Shah of Persia during his visit to England the greatest card-player in the world?
Because the swells gave up their clubs, the workmen throw down their spades, and the ladies were within an ace of losing their hearts, when he came to show his diamonds.

A Georgia paper recently contains the following items in its society gossip:
"The amiable and delicious Miss Pilkington, whose charms of mind and person have turned the heads of our gallants, now does her hair in braids, and patronizes this paper exclusively in her personal make-up."

The local editor of the Jacksonville, Fla., Republican compliments the honesty of the postmaster at that place because a letter containing a ten dollar bill addressed to an old negro woman, was promptly delivered to the party for whom it was intended.

Eyes like diamonds, hair like a vased mass of golden feathers, a faultless form and a hand which no man can look upon without an intense desire to kiss, are portions of the description of a young lad who is captain of a schooner that rades with Horston Texas.

THE EXHIBITION.

DESCRIPTION CONTINUED.

LADIES' WORK.

In fancy netting Miss Lavinia Parkinson carries off the first prize with very superior specimens, Miss N. Strickland also exhibiting a most beautiful piece of work; Mrs. B. Present, Guelph, and Mrs. D. Caldwell, do; Mrs. Jas. Sudden, do; Mrs. Elam Vrooman, Miss M.
Brown, Chinguacousy, obtains a well earned extra prize in this class. In knitting Miss McClure, Toronto, carries off the first prize; Miss McMillan, Galt, bring second; Mrs. B. Present, Guelph, deservedly winning an extra, and Miss E.
Choate, Ingersoll, doing the same. The other exhibitors are Mrs. M. Kean, Piltington, Mrs. C. Foster, E. Flamboro'; Mrs. Gibbs, Guelph; Miss L. Mickle, do; Mrs. Light, Rockwood. In this class Mrs. W. Cockburn, Painswick, we observe obtains an extra also, which would seem to indicate that the judges must have experienced considerable difficulty in adjudicating in this class. In tatting the first prize goes all the way to St. Catharines to Miss Catherine Smith, who exhibits a most beautiful piece of work; Miss M. J. Day, Eramosa, being second with a very splendid specimen also; Miss K. E. Macdonald, Guelph, and Miss Day, Eramosa, contribute something very choice, so also does Miss Mc-Millan, Galt; and Mrs. A. Heaslip, and Eva. McClure, Toronto, and Miss N.
Strickland are especially meritorious contributors. Miss Annie McVean, Toronto Gore, is awarded an extra for a very superior sample. In extras Mrs. W.
Cockburn shows a nice specimen of braiding, Miss Rosa Clarke exhibits a very pretty chenille moncho case; Miss M. Brown exhibits two flannel hoods and a very flannel shirt which obtains an extra prize; also an exceedingly chaste leather work box, which gets an extra prize. Miss A. Krebs, Guelph, obtains an extra prize for a specimen of very nicely carved card board. Mrs. J. Little, Guelph, shows a very pretty piece of braided work amongst the extras. Miss C. Savors obtains an extra prize for a case of fishing flies, which adds very much to the attractiveness of this portion of the show.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Thos. Richardson, Fergus, shows a collection of stuffed birds and animals, which obtains the first prize. Thomas Wallier is also an exhibitor of a nice collection. John Inglis, Eden Mills, gets first prize for a very nice collection of native birds stuffed; F. H. Gibbs, Guelph, obtaining the second with one of perhaps equal merit. Ed. Burge shows a collection of native insects. Mrs. Kilgour, Guelph, exhibits a nice collection of shells, so also does W. Stevenson, W.
H. Marcon carries off the first prize in this section with a superior exhibit, and John Wilkie follows suit with a good second. The latter exhibitor is first with a fine collection of native minerals, and Wm. Dyson is second with a creditable contribution.

High Miller & Co., Toronto, exhibited a quantity of two articles manufactured by them. The one is the York shire Cattle Feeder, and the other the Epsom Purging Powder, or tasteless horse and cattle physic. On the wrappers of both these articles are testimonials from their extensive and virtuous, from several of the most prominent stock breeders in the country.

Messrs. Lyman Bros., Toronto, show a barrel of oil cake for feeding cattle, and some pale boiled, hard boiled, and raw linseed oil.

The Wellington Oil Company, Guelph, show specimens of the following oils: Crude and refined petroleum, lubricating paint, wool, and shaft oil from petroleum, lard oil, and pale brown seal oil.

T. Copland & Co., Hamilton, exhibit some castor oil manufactured by them, the peculiar feature of which is that any one who just takes it as is not, because it is sweet to the taste.

Mr. W. W. Butcher, of London, exhibits what mothers and nurses ought to appreciate highly, a "baby swing chair." It consists of a close chair suspended by cords from a spiral spring attached to a lever. The latter is attached to a wall, door, or window-case, and the chair allowed to hang so near the floor that when the child is in it its feet may touch the floor. If then the infant wishes to jump it has only to start the fun itself, and the apparatus will do the rest.

Miss Gusio Jhoute, of West Oxford, shows a very large collection of native plants, with the technical and English names and the species of each.

DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES.

The display in this department is on the whole very creditable. We can do nothing more than slightly refer to some of the principal features. Frank & Sons, Caledon
