Not Yet Settled, But Looks as

Cameron Would Win.

Goderich, Ont., Feb. 14. - The West Iuron recount was resumed before ludge Doyle today, he having recovered from his illness, and argument was concluded. There were practically only three ballots to be disposed of-Holmes, at No. 5 Goderich Township, over which there has been considerable conjecture. The judge held he could not count these ballots, owing to the fact of there being no initials on the back of the same, and there being one more ballet in the box when counted than had voted. This is supposed to be accounted for by the deputy returning officer giving a voter two ballots for one by mistake, which had stuck to-

Judgment was reserved on the two Cameron ballots, and also on irregucrities in No. 4 Goderich town. Counsel for Holmes argued that the shole vote should be thrown out by ason of all the ballots being numbered on the back by the deputy returning officer. This division gives Cameron 15 majority.

Says His Ambition Is to Do As Great Work As His Predecessor.

Toronto, Feb. 14. — Speaking at the annual meeting tonight of the Ontario Association of Exhibitions and Fairs, over which he presided, Hon. He beheyed there were many other men until customer is perfectly who could have been chosen with good satisfied. results, but since it was his fortune or misfortune, to be chosen, he would do what he could in the interests of all the people, but particularly the agriculturists, for that was in keeping with his ideal of public service. The policy of the department over which he had been chosen to preside would be a progressive one. He was singularly fortunate, or unfortunate, in following such a man as Hon. John two marked for Cameron and one for Dryden, who had done so much for agriculture in Ontario, He trusted that when his successor came on the scene the same might be said of his work. A man over a department was to a certain extent a figurehead. Success depended largely upon the sup-port he received. He recognized the importance of the problems that were coming before the convention. The influence of exhibitions was far reaching, and great benefits would accrue to all the people if there was complete o-operation in all their work, About a hundred delegates representing the agriculture societies of the Province, were present. IN THE COMMONS Opposition Complains of Delay in the Returns From Yukon. Ottawa, Feb. 14. - Today was very quiet day in the House. The sitting was opened by Mr. Borden complaining that there had been unnecessary delay in the return of the election of the members-elect for the Yukon. Mr. Borden said that as he interpreted the law a returning officer could delay his declaration as long as he pleased. The law, he thought, should be amended to require the declaration to be made within a certain sepcified time.

The Prime Minister said if there had been any correspondence with the returning officer on the question it was

Women Less Healthy Than Men

Many Reasons Why They Are Easily Tired, Grow Listless and Look Prematurely Old As compared with man, woman's nature is infinitely more complex and consequently her struggle for existence attended with untold penalties in the way of pain and suffering. The sensitiveness of woman to disurbances of functional activity makes her very liable to disease. Too often no importance is attached to fitfulness of appetite, to languor and nervous headache. Sufficient nutrition is not supplied and the vital forces of the body are overstrained. The organs upon which health depends are weakened-total collapse and endless days of misery rapidly follow. It is for ladies on the .verge break-down that Ferrozone is specially intended. It is the ideal remedy

U. S. Senate's Treatment of Mr. Roosevelt the Severest Ever Handed Out.

Washington, Feb. 15. - Other presidents have had pet projects squelched by the Senate, but no president in this generation, the wise men of the Upper Chamber say, has ever been blocked as President Roosevelt was Saturday.

There are many features manifest now that serve to emphasize the firm determination of the Senate to teach the President a lesson. The executive sessions preceding the final vote are described as the most dramatic in the memory of those who have been senators for twenty years. The intensity of feeling, the earnestness of speech, the unanimity of sentiment, have not prevailed on any similar proposition since the war.

The criticism and censure of the President was virtually non-partisan.

While all the Democrats voted to amend the treaties, all the Republicans

but nine did the same thing. There were no apparent differences in the manner of expressing convictions that the President was taking away the constitutional rights of the Senate The action of Senators Lodge, Spooner and Foraker, all close friends of the President, and his spokesmen on the floor of the Senate, attracted unusual attention. These men stand higher to day in the estimation of their associates than at any previous time. All three recited the friendship they feel for the President. They told of their intimate relations. All expressed keen regret that their oaths and consciences would not permit them to sustain the President in the pending matter. Mr. Lodge was especially dramatic when he declared that under his oath

he could not vote in accordance with the President's wishes, at the same time speaking with sincere regret of lines of attachment which under or-
