Summer Boys' Tiser

NOTICE.

Right now, nearly all the boys who have been doing their bit to make the Boys' Own Tiser a big success are plugging away at their examinations for all they are worth. After that, many of the classes disband for the summer months, so the committee has decided for the summer season to suspend publication of the Boys' Tiser in its accustomed

News of camps, summer sports and boys' doings generally will be carried in a space set apart for this, and all communications should be addressed to the Boys' Page for the summer.

When the boys' work is resumed again in the fall the Boys' Own Tiser will come back bigger and better than ever.
