FACTORIES ARE BUSY.

Unless you see the "Bayer Cross" Guelph, Oct. 18.—At a meeting at Acton on Monday evening, addressed by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, the High Protection Conservative candidate for South Wellington, the audience could scarcely hear the speech because of the noise from the knitting mill 300 feet away. In the course of his address, Mr. Guthrie deplored the decline of the woolen industry, and advocated higher tariff in order to revive it. The attendance at the meeting was not large, one of the reasons being that the men of the reasons being that the men of the wollange were too busy working overtime. Elliott, M.L.A., dealt at length and in a good way with Canada in relation to the United States, showing how the Fordney tariff affected Canada. Much was made by each ada. Much was made by each speaker of the need of protection to safeguard the agricultural as well as the industrial life of the country.

Premier Goes To Woodstock For Liberal Rally Wednesday

Special to The Advertiser, by Staff Correspondent. Woodstock, Oct. 18.—Preparations are being made to give a rousing welcome to Premier King when he comes to this city on Wednesday afternoon of this week to address a meeting in the Opera house. Premier King, when he arranged his itinerary, had not included Woodstock in the list of places where he was to speak, and it was only today that information was received to the effect that he would find time to address an afternoon meeting in this city. He is to follow immediately upon the heels of the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, who is to address a meeting here on Tuesday evening. The premier will speak in Brantford on Wednesday evening.
