 Subset matrix and a distance service properties of the se In the Fremderblatt states that they con-tinue to cherish a desire to respect and maintain the traty of Berlin. The action of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria in placing himself and his army at the head of the himself and his army at the head of the rising constitutes a grave violation of international laws. It is a challenge to Turkey. Europe cannot for the benefit of a single Balkan state endorse this infrac-tion of treaty rights, entailing disruption of the balance of power and of the national political forces of the Balkan peninsula as fixed by the Berlin treaty. It is premature to say definitely what common action will be taken by the powers but it is certain that the movement will be kept in the narrowest possible powers but it is certain that the movement will be kept in the narrowest possible bounds, the powers retaining supreme control of events in the Balkans. Gabriel Pasha, the deposed governor of Roumelia, is a prisoner at Sofia. The Bariin Zeitung is confident that the powers are able to deal with the crisis. The various European ambassadors on fur-longh are hurrying to their posts. Anarchy in Albania, CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 21.-Anarchy provails in Albanis. The Turkish troops and a body of Albanians have had an engagement near Prisrend. Five battalions of Turkish troops have been despatched to the scene of trouble. Waiting For England to Speak. PARIS Sept. 21.—The French diplomats hope that the outbreak in Roumelia will reunite England and France. In view of the rising being an apparent scheme for the partition of Turkey, the French news-papers urge that France should act cautiously in dealing with the matter and await a deelaration of Lord Salisbury's policy. Waiting For England to Speak. From the Medical World. "In Valencia, Spain, which is now being decimated by cholera, there is a national tobacce factory employing 4000 women, not one of whom has been affected by the disease." We believe that fact was also noticed in Amsterdam, Holland, during Hog Cholera in Kansas. TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 21.—The state veterinary says there are thirty counties in "THE EARTHLY PARADISE."
