STOCK BROKER, Stocks bought and sold for eash or on margin. Money to loan at 5 per cent. Investments a specialty, Rents collected. Robert Cochran received from New York to-day the following despatch by private wire: The feeling up-town hast night was an improvement over that of previous evenings, and more confidence was expressed in the stock market. The bulls, as usual, laid stress upon the general prosperous condition of the country, and remarked that manufacturers and retailers alike agree that the prospects for a lively spring trade were never better. These influences, they argue, can't fail to exert themselves sooner or later. They can't continue any undue depression in the stock market. W. E. Connor, who is by many believed to voice Gould's opinion, says that walls street to-day offers more temptacion in the shape of cheap properties to investors and to speculators than can be found in any other part of the country. Commission people feel that there is considerable day light ahead. They are almost manimous in their opinious that people can now buy stock, particularly the gilt-edged and dividend payers, with companions saley. They singrest that every advantage has been taken of the bear raids, and any that parties picking up securities on any of these attacks may feel safe. Bears can't strength and any that parties picking up securities on any of these attacks may feel safe. Bears can't strength and the range of fluctuations very narrow. Robert: Cochran received the following despatch by private wire from Chicago to-day: Wheat cables were weak and discountaging, which, with bearish feeling here, caused market to open lower. The offerings of old "Hatch" and his followers were large, and the market is heavy at this writing. May selling at 79% to 79% with thawing weather. Many speculators fear a bad outlook to growing crop, which will influence prices.
