

NERVES AND FAINTING SPELLS

Sent Woman to Bed. Great Change After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sarnia, Ontario.—“After my girlie was born I was a wreck. My nerves were too terrible for words and I simply could not stand or walk without pains. I suffered with fainting spells until I was no longer any good for my household duties and had to take to my bed. The doctor said I should have an operation, but I was not in a fit condition at that time. My neighbor said, ‘Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?’ I am sure it will do you good and will save those doctor's bills. So I was advised by my husband to try it after I told him about it. I am very thankful to say that I was soon able to take a few boarders for a while as rooms were scarce at that time. My baby is 17 months old now and I have not yet had an operation, thanks to your medicine. I have recommended the ‘Vegetable Compound’ to a few people I know and have told them the good it has done me. I know I feel and look a different woman these last few months and I certainly would not be without a bottle of your medicine in the house. You can use this letter as you see fit, as I should be only too glad for those suffering as I have to know what it has done for me.”—Mrs. ROBERT G. MACGIBSON, R. R. No. 2, Sarnia, Ontario.

A recent canvass of women users of the Vegetable Compound report 98 out of 100 received beneficial results. This is a remarkable proof of its merit. C

The Poets Corner

OCTOBER 23 1924

Say sisters, brothers in your hands?
The ballots placed for you, and I,
To do as conscience still demands
To keep our province high, and dry.

Heard not the cry of subtle sin
But use the privilege we've got
To keep our district clear, and clean
From any hidden leprous spot.

Of course the packages, they seal,
A subterfuge so mean, so small,
The vile contents at once reveal,
We do not need the stuff at all.

Perfect the present law we've got,
Don't let Ontario lose it's soul
But settle by our sacred vote
And banish what we can't control.

AN OLD MAN WONDERS

Did we have more fun than they
Who wear the garb of youth today?
Were our eyes really brighter then,
Or are we foolish, gray, old men
Who merely fancy in our rhymes
That life has lost those good old times?

I wonder were the girls we knew
In gingham gowns of pink and blue
And braided hair and ankle skirts,
So very shy; or were they flirts?
Were they much different from the maids

Of now, who have no ribboned braids?
We sang and danced the latest styles
We lost our heads for maiden's smiles
We often stole a kiss or two
Which like as not these youngsters do;

I fancy, though I do not know,
They still hold hands, as long ago.

We tell our little boasts of all
We did when we were young and tall
We fancy joy was sweeter then;
But are we foolish, gray, old men
Still clinging to the long ago,
And is our prattle really so?

Will not these youngsters turn and say,
When they like us are old and gray,
And hear some newer ballad sung;
"We'd sweeter songs when we were young."

I fancy they like us at last
Will cherish memories of the past.
—Edgar A. Guest.

THE MAN WHO IS AHEAD

In almost every paper
You are pretty sure to find
A lot of gush and nonsense
All about the man behind;
The man behind the buzz-saw
And the man behind the ploughshare
And the man behind the sash
The man behind the whistle
And the man behind the cars,
The man behind the kodak
And the man behind the bars;
The man behind the whiskers
And the man behind the fist—
Oh, read of them often,
For they're always on the list;

But there is another fellow
Of whom nothing has been said;
It's the fellow who is even,
Or a little way ahead;
The man who pays his bills
And whose checks are always signed
He's vastly more important
Than the man who is behind,
For every kind of business
And the whole commercial clan
Is indebted for existence
To this honest fellow man.
He keeps his family going
And his memory is never dead,
So we all take our hats off
To the man who is ahead.

THE CIRCUS

We had a circus in our shed,
(Admission three new pins a head)
And every girl and boy I know
Is talking yet about our show.

They laughed so hard at Fatty Brown
When he came out to be the clown
That all the neighbors ran to see
Whatever such a noise could be.

Our tin-pan and mouth-organ band
Played tunes that sounded simply grand;
We had a truly sawdust ring,
Pink lemonade, 'n everything.

The big menagerie was nice;
Three cats, one dog, and five white mice,
A parrot that Bill's uncle lent.
All underneath a bedspread tent.

Then Ned and Buster took a sheet
That covered them from head to feet
And made a horse that kicked and pranced,
And when it heard the band, it danced.

And Sally Ann was 'Bareback Queen'
No finer rider could be seen;
She stood right up, and looked so proud,
But kissed her hand to all the crowd.

We took some chalk—blue, green
and red—
And made a "Tattooed Man" of Fred
Jim juggled lighted cigarettes,
And Tom turned double summersets.

We had tall stilts—and flying rings—
And lots and lots of other things—
And every girl and boy I know
Said yes, it was a dandy show!

PROVIDENCE, PS. 145: 18

The Lord is nigh to every cry
That from His child proceeds
The cry untrue will never do
Sincerity succeeds.

God sees the snares, and fleshly cares
That crowd around our being
If in the test we do our best
He's daily, hourly seeing.

We always find He's extra kind
To those that's imbecile,
But we've found we must be sound
"In whom there is no guile."

He guides, He leads, inspires, and speeds,
The soul that's bound to win
Our weakness knows so He bestows
More grace to conquer sin.

In our affairs He always shares,
The work that we should do
The strain, the stress, will make success
The finest shade of blue.

He asks that we should always be,
Friends of the Perfect Man
Our confidence, His providence
When we do all we can.

Our daily tasks He simply asks
To live them to His praise
To dedicate, and consecrate,
Our fast dissolving days.

The Lord is nigh just standing by
To succor, help, and save,
If we begin to sink in sin,
He pulls us from the wave.

The ancient saints had their complaints
When'er they turned aside
God can't forsake if we will make
His promises our guide.

FATHER'S FATHER

MOTHER'S MOTHER

Oct. 7.—The recent weddings of Karl Braun, 25 years old, and his father have started an endless chain of relationships which has got beyond the reach of genealogists and culminated in Braun becoming his father's father-in-law.

Young Braun married a widow of 45 with grown-up children. Shortly after his father, 50 years of age, married the 24-year-old daughter of his son's wife. Genealogists figure that as a result of the two weddings young Braun became his father's father-in-law and that his wife's daughter became her mother's mother-in-law and the step-mother of her own stepfather.
