Palmo-Sulphur Soap.

Is Marvellously Efficient in clearing the Skin of Impurities, and keeping it in a perfect state of health. It beautifies the complexion, while as a Healing agent for Sores or Wounds it passes all praise. There is no form of Eruptive Disease for which this renowned Soap has not proved efficacious. In the bath it is as beneficial to the waters of the Renowned Sulphur Springs, and Woolens washed with it are rendered comparatively white, and are disinfected from germs of disease lingering in the material. The value of Sulphur as a Cleansing and Purifying agent is everywhere recognized. Ask for Palmo-Sulphur, and refuse all others, and you won't be deceived.

Scientific and Useful.

CHOCOLATE CAKE.—Beat the whites of two eggs with a quarter of a pound of powdered sugar into a foamy cream, add the juice of half a lemon and six ounces of finely-grated chocolate; drop this mixture in spoonfuls on a flat tin, and bake them slowly.

PURIFY your blood and regulate your liver and digestive organs before the heat of summer, and thus save a doctor's bill by the timely use of West's Liver Pills. All druggists.

SILVER CAKE.—One cupful of sugar mixed with two tablespoonfuls of butter; add one cupful of flour with one teaspoonful of baking powder, half a cupful of cornstarch, half a cupful of milk, the whites of three eggs, flavour with vanilla. Bake in a moderate oven.

A CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.—Opium, morphine, chloral, tobacco and kindred habits. The medicine may be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, if so desired. Send 6c in stamps for book and medicine from those who have been cured. Address M. V. Lubon, 47 Wellington Street East, Toronto, Ont.

SUET PUDDING.—Three cups of flour, one of raisins, stoned, one-half cup suet, chopped fine, one-half cup molasses, one-half cup of sugar, one-half cup of milk, two teaspoons cinnamon, one of cream of tartar, one-half teaspoon soda; boil one and a half hours.

Figures Cannot Lie.
This has been said by a great many, and believed to be truth. But we are sometimes a little sceptical when distance of some remote planet is given, but never in the least doubt when J. L. H. of 467 271 Queen Street, West, say they have the largest and best stock of Furniture and Carpets in the city.

CHICKEN SALAD.—Mince the white meat of a chicken fine, then chop the white parts of celery, and prepare a dressing as follows: Rub the yolks of hard-boiled eggs smooth with a spoon; put to each yolk one teaspoonful of made mustard, half as much salt, a wineglassful of strong vinegar and a tablespoonful of the best olive oil. Put the celery in a salad bowl, lay the chicken on that, then put over it the dressing. Lettuce cut small may be used in the place of celery, but the latter is much more delicious. Cut the whites of the eggs in rings to garnish the salad.

THE ABBOTT AND HALLIDAY LIFE OF BEECHER.
There seems to be more brain talent connected with the book written by Lyman Abbott, D.D. and Rev. S. B. Halliday, than with any other biography of the late Henry Ward Beecher; for in addition to the work of the above-named gentlemen, about forty other eminent writers and thinkers have contributed reminiscences to the book.

STEWED CHICKEN.—Cut two or three long, neat slices from the breast of a fine, plump fowl, and sprinkle over each a little flour, nicely seasoned with salt, pepper and pounded mace. Put into a saucepan half a pint of good veal stock, and when this is just upon the point of boiling, lay in the slices of chicken. Cover the pan closely, and let the contents simmer very slowly for half an hour. Take out the fowl, and arrange it very neatly on a hot dish; if the sauce is not rather thick and creamy, add a teaspoonful of flour or arrowroot, mixed to a smooth paste with a little cold water. Stir the sauce till it boils; then pour it over the chicken.

A GOOD TEST.—What every one says must be true, or have some foundation, at least, and every one who has tested it, says that Hagar's Pectoral Balsam is a prompt and reliable cure for the various throat and lung troubles caused by colds, which are always prevalent at this season of the year.

PRINCESS OF WALES PUDDING.—One pint of fine bread crumbs, one quart of milk, one-fourth pound of powdered sugar, the yolks of four eggs beaten, the grated rind of a lemon, butter the size of an egg, bake an hour; whip the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth; beat in one-fourth pound of powdered sugar, in which has been strained the juice of the lemon; spread over the pudding a layer of red currant jelly; pour the whites of the eggs over this; replace in the oven; bake lightly. To be eaten cold with cream.

How to Gain Flesh and Strength.
Use after each meal Scott's Emulsion; it is as palatable as milk. Delicate persons improve rapidly upon its use. For Consumption, Tubercular Affections and Bronchitis it is unequalled. Dr. Thos. Prim, Ala., says, "I used Scott's Emulsion on a child eight months old, he gained four pounds in a month." Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

BEAUTY of Skin & Scalp RESTORED by the CUTICURA Remedies.
