We prefer that remittances be made by post-office order or express order, drawn payable at London, Ont. If bank drafts are sent from the United States they should be made payable at New York or Chicago. Postage stamps (American or Canadian) are accepted for change. Money sent by mail will be at risk of sender, unless registered.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the views expressed in communications over the name, initials or other characters representing the contributor.

Edward Coale and wife, of Holder, Ill., expect to leave home soon for an extended trip through Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Nebraska, partly on religious work, but mostly for rest and recreation. Our readers may expect some interesting letters from him while he is away.

John J. Cornell, of Baltimore, returns to his home at Mendon, N. Y., for the summer, and expects to be in attendance at Genesee Y. M. next month.

DIED.

BROWN.—At his home, lot 3, 1st concession, Pickering, on the 25th of Fourth month, 1895, Sylvanus Brown, aged 98 years nine months and thirteen days.

Deceased was probably the oldest inhabitant of the community. He was the last of a family of seven brothers and seven sisters. He came to Canada from Vermont with his brothers when he was quite young, and while the country still possessed nearly all of its virgin forest. They travelled with ox teams, and crossed the St. Lawrence on the ice. In 1819 he was married to Mary Ann Pearson, of Yonge street. To them was born a family of seven children, two of whom died in infancy. She departed this life on the 28th of tenth mo., 1833, leaving her husband and five children to mourn her loss. On the 25th of twelfth mo., 1834, he was married to Pamela Keese, of Vermont, whose family numbered six children. She died nearly 26 years ago. Only three of his children survive him, viz., David Brown, of Whitby; Edwin M. Brown, of California; and Pamela K. Armitage, of Toronto. At his death there were living thirty-three of his grandchildren, fifty-three great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren. Deceased has been a life-long member of the Society of Friends, a man of temperate habits, a good citizen and neighbor.
