

Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.
Matt. ix. 2.

A MEETING FOR ENQUIRERS

IS HELD

EVERY MONDAY EVENING,

From 7.30 till 9,

In Parlor C (up stairs) Shaftesbury Hall.

OUR DEBT.

An appeal is now being made to the friends and supporters of this Institution to extinguish its debt, and to make certain needed alterations in Shaftesbury Hall, (including an additional exit)

Appeals for the carrying on of the work have always been met in the most generous spirit, showing that the community have confidence that the Association is accomplishing a good work among the class, for whose special welfare it was established.

Towards the liquidation of the debt, and the improvements referred to, very liberal responses have been made, and handsome subscriptions (ranging from $2,500 to $100) payable in three equal annual payments, with interest, have been cheerfully given. On this list the most noticeable feature is the sum of nearly $4,000 contributed chiefly by young men, who are members of the Association.

A very considerable sum however is yet required to put the success of the effort beyond doubt, and it is hoped that when friends are waited upon, that the spirit of good-will which has ever been manifested, will so evidence itself that the Board will be able to announce that by the renewed liberality of well-tried friends, the Association has been released from all pecuniary obligations.

"COME AND SEE"—"GO AND TELL."

"Come see the place where the Lord lay; and go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead."—(Matt. xxviii. 8, 7.)

These words contain the pith of the Gospel. Just believe, and then try to get others to follow your example. That is the whole Christian system.

STILL WANTED.

"Give me," said John Wesley, "one hundred men who hate nothing but sin, fear nothing but God, and are determined to know nothing among men 'save Jesus Christ and Him crucified,' and I will turn the world upside down."

CATCHING COLD.

We hear it said, "It is fashionable to have a cold." Perhaps it may be, but it certainly is not healthy. "Cold is the chronic malady of the soul," says a great French writer. The question which some Christians might appropriately ask each other in these days is, "Where did you catch your cold?" Perhaps it was caught while sitting in a draft of worldliness, or by going into the raw current of social life without being sufficiently clothed with garments of salvation. At all events, it is an important question for the times,— "How did you take your cold?"
