TEAS A SPECIALTY.

Mattawan, referred to last week, are about $10,000; the assets nominally $13,000.—The local dullness in trade has brought another Mattawan dealer, L. H. Timmons, into trouble. He also carried on a store at Sturgeon Falls. Liabilities will probably amount to several thousand.—J. Sterns, grocer, Carleton Place, is offering 40 per cent in 4 and 8 months; liabilities about $2,000; assets about $1,000.

THEO. LACQUERRE, general store, Batiscan Que., has compromised at 40 cents in the dollar. Liabilities about $1,000; assets about $800.—Etienne Guenette carrying on a small grocery at Levis, has assigned to M. Letellier.—M. Fortin, grocer, Quebec, is offering 25 per cent in 2, 4 and 6 months, secured on liabilities of $2700 and assets of $1200.—Robt. Carr, of St. Hilarion, general storekeeper, has assigned.—J. B. Dumesnil, of Coteau Landing, has assigned to Kent & Turcotte. Liabilities about $1,500; assets nominally the same, including real estate valued at $2,000 but well mortgaged.

A HAMILTON creditor writes:—"Mr. James Logie, Courtwright, posed in your last issue as an injured individual. The creditors considered themselves misled, and in their judgment he would not have been able to pay 80 cents in the dollar and get credit for new goods. On 1st February, 1884, he was purchasing new goods, and his figures shewed surplus $4,844.80; on 22nd December, 1884, he wanted to compromise and write off for depreciation $2,333.58, but, allowing, this his surplus had shrunk to $259."

Mr. H. H. CURTIS, druggist, St. Catherine, street, this city, has not been meeting his engagements promptly for some little time past and, on being pressed by one of his creditors about a fortnight ago, concluded to assign. A statement prepared by himself shows a surplus of about $900 over liabilities of about $1,800. Mr. Curtis' fondness for dogs would imply the possession of a much larger estate, and it is at least possible that, had he divided his attention more practically, the assistance which he hoped for would not have been withheld.

J. P. BRISETTE, general store, St. Elizabeth, Joliette Co., Que., is again in trouble, having assigned to Geo. Daveluy, with liabilities of $4,822, and assets $3,632. In the spring of 1873 he compromised at 70 cents,—liabilities $18,000, assets $24,000.—Merrizze & Tremblay, general store, Granby, Que., have assigned to Geo. Daveluy; liabilities $8,000, nominal assets $10,000.—Renaud, Duret & Co., tobaccoists, city, have called meeting of creditors; liabilities $3,000, assets $2,500.—Carmody Bros., furniture dealers, city, have assigned to Henry Ward & Co.; liabilities $830; assets $643, consisting of stock, book debts, etc. An offer of 15 cents cash has been accepted.

M. W. MAXVILLE, auctioneer, London, Ont., has "skipped out," leaving a vast number of small creditors to mourn his departure. He left for Chicago, ostensibly on business, and has not since been heard of. He and his partner Mr. Kirchmer, agreed to dissolve partnership a short time before he left, and the dissolution was to have been completed on his return. Several executions have already been enforced, but Samuel Crawford holds a chattel mortgage on the stock, horses, drays, etc.; and it is probable the creditors will realize but little. At a meeting of creditors held on the 7th inst. it was decided to hand over the assets, estimated
