

believed, it is the intention of the Bishop to form. The following letter has lately been received from Mr. Henry Budd. It is addressed to the Rev. Henry Budd, Rector of White Rooting, Essex; after whom, in memory of the warm interest taken by him in the Red River Mission, Mr. West baptized that native Indian.

Red River Academy, Aug. 3d, 1850. REV. AND DEAR SIR,—The time is now come round when I usually think of you, and I cannot let this favourable opportunity pass without sending you a memorial of my remembrance of you, though it is only in the shape of a letter. You will easily see by the date that I am now at Red River, with the Bishop. The Bishop of Rupert's Land has made a Missionary tour to the Cumberland Station, and has consecrated our church there, the burying-ground also; confirmed us, and 110 of our Christian Indians. I cannot tell you how much I rejoiced to see him, and I bless God that He has in mercy sent such a man as the Bishop is, to my country. I have come here with him from Cumberland, and arrived here with him on the 22d of last month. I left Mr. and Mrs. Hunter both in good health, and my family too were in good health when I left them. I have brought my oldest boy (Henry) with me to the Bishop's school. He is a stout boy, very willing to learn, and he knows a good deal too in English; and the Bishop is to see what he is to make of him.

After reading and studying Divinity for a season, with a view to Ordination, then, please God, I go back again to my family and my people at Cumberland; and after assisting the Rev. Mr. Hunter with the Indian translation in Cree, of the Scriptures, for a season or two, then, please God, I will go on further to the interior, and encounter, through God's grace, the strongholds of Satan, and endeavour, through the grace of God, to bring my poor deluded countrymen to the knowledge of the truth. I always think that it is time that I should do something, while in perfect health and strength, to make manifest my gratitude and love to that God, who, I can truly say, has been so good to me all my life; and also as being the only way I can show my gratitude to our good Society, in being the instrument, under God, of instructing me, and bringing me to a true knowledge of Christ and His great salvation. For I fancy I have done but little yet for Christ. What signifies the little I have already done at Cumberland in establishing the Mission there? Methinks it is only but a handful to what I ought to do. And yet it has cost me ten years of incessant labour, through thick and thin, through good report and evil report: and by the grace of God alone, we have succeeded in our object in a great measure. Our church, which is a very neat one, is just about being finished; which we expect will accommodate our congregation at Cumberland for twenty years to come. A substantial and very neat parsonage is quite completed, and a new large school-house is being erected, so that Station is about finished, and we must now turn our thoughts about establishing another further on. May God give us grace to go and be His faithful ambassadors in beseeching the heathen in 'Christ's stead to be reconciled to God!' and may He still own and bless my poor labours to the glory of His grace. It is not without a sense of my own insufficiency, weakness, and many infirmities, that I look forward to what is before me. I have often alleged my own unworthiness of being promoted a step higher in the Church of God; but our good Society* in England, our good Bishop here, and all the Clergy in this country, seem unanimously to recommend it. Let me ask you to pray for me, that should it please God that I take Ordination vows upon me, I may be faithful in discharging my own conscience, and also in dispensing faithfully the word of life to my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh. With regard to my family, of which you kindly requested me to give you information, we have now at Cumberland Station one little boy, named John. He reads in any part of the Scriptures, repeats the Church Catechism quite perfectly, says the Thirty-nine Articles of the Church of England very well, knows his arithmetical tables, and writes a little. Our oldest boy (Henry) is here, at the Bishop's school. He is just at his twelfth year, 9th of this month: he is of a far stronger constitution; and we have also four little girls; the eldest reads the Bible well, and can repeat the Catechism perfectly; Elizabeth, the next, reads the miracles of our Saviour.

"Give my respectful regards to all your children. May God be your support in your declining years, and your exceeding great reward hereafter!" "I am, dear Rev. Sir, Your humble Servant, HENRY BUDD."

* It is right to add that this Mission in Rupert's Land has been supported chiefly by the Church Missionary Society. There are now 7 Missionary stations, 17 Schools, 602 scholars, 464 communicants, and 1,649 attendants on public worship.

NOW IN PRESS. CANADA; Past, Present, and Future; being a Geographical and Statistical Account of Canada West, (formerly Upper Canada), exhibiting its past history, present condition and future prospects; showing its Resources and Capabilities as a great Agricultural and Manufacturing country, and its relative advantages as compared with the other British Colonies, and the United States, as a new home for British emigrants. Also, containing a particular account of the mineral wealth, and other valuable available resources of each district; with an Analytical description of the Mining Region of Lakes Huron and Superior. The whole compiled from information obtained in each locality, up to the date of publication, by W. H. SMITH, Author of the Canadian Gazetteer.

A chapter will be devoted to the special benefit of Emigrants—furnishing them with information concerning the proper measures and precautions to be taken in order to reach the Province in a comfortable and economical manner; with hints as to the readiest and most advisable means of acquiring land, on their arrival, &c.

Corrected tables of distances from place to place will be added, with abstracts from such Provincial acts as are necessary to be generally known; and a variety of miscellaneous useful matter. The whole forming a complete text book on the subject of Canada for families, a valuable book of reference for the man of business, and a guide for the traveller and emigrant.

For the convenience of subscribers, the work will be issued in numbers at 1s. 3d. each, and in parts, of double size, at 2s. 6d. each; and will be completed in about ten parts. Each part will be accompanied by a Map, containing one or more Counties; and a general MAP OF THE PROVINCE, compiled expressly for the purpose will be appended to the work. The Maps will be engraved on copper, in the best style of the art, and will contain the latest divisions of Counties, and all the new settlements in the Province up to the latest dates.

The work will be furnished to Subscribers only. A complete Business Directory of the Upper Province will be added to the work, being the first ever published in either Province. As the Author and Publisher possess peculiar facilities for collecting the necessary information; the subscribers will have the advantage of receiving this portion of the work WITHOUT ANY ADDITIONAL EXPENSE.

The first part of the work will be ready for delivery in about a fortnight, and will be supplied to Subscribers or Agents.

Local Agents wanted to canvass for the work; to whom liberal encouragement will be given. Apply personally, or by letter (post paid) to the publisher, Toronto.

Papers inserting this advertisement, and noticing the parts as the appear, will be furnished with a copy of the work as it is issued. THOS. MACLEAR, Publisher, 75 Yonge-st. Toronto, October 30, 1850. 19

VAYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL For the Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION

The annals of medical science, affording as they do ample proof of the power and value of many medicinal agents, have furnished no examples to compare with the salutary effects produced by "AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."

DR. PERKINS, President Vermont Medical College, one of the most learned and intelligent physicians in the country, considers it a "composition of rare excellence for the cure of that formidable disease, Consumption." Norwich, April 26, 1846

Dr. J. C. Ayer—Dear Sir:—Agreeable to the request of your agent, we will cheerfully state what we have known of the effects of your CHERRY PECTORAL, and they have been astonishing indeed. Mrs. Betsey Streeter had been afflicted with a severe and relentless cough, which reduced her very low; so low that little hopes could be entertained of her recovery. Numerous remedies had been tried without effect, before the CHERRY PECTORAL. And that has cured her. George Watkinson Esq., had to our knowledge been afflicted with Asthma, for eleven years, and grown yearly worse, until the CHERRY PECTORAL has now removed the disease and he is free from any of its symptoms as we are. The Rev. Mark Dane had been so severely attacked with the Bronchitis, as to disable him from the duties; and nothing had afforded his relief until I (Mr. Thorning) carried him a bottle of your PECTORAL, which cured him at once, and he now officiates as usual in his place.

These are three of the cases in which we have known it successful, but never to fail. We have great pleasure in certifying to these facts; and are, respected sir, your humble servants, REV. DAVID THORNING, HON. JOSEPH BATHLES.

Among the distinguished authorities who have given their names to recommend CHERRY PECTORAL, as the best remedy that is known for the Affections of the Lungs, are: "The London Lancet," "Canadian Journal of Medical Science," "Boston Medical and Surgical Journal," "Charleston (S. C.) Medical Review," "New Jersey Medical Reporter," Prof. Bartlett, Transylvania University of Medicine, President Perkins Vermont Medical College, Dr. Valentine Mott, New York City, Parker Cleveland, Bowdoin College, Prof. Butterfield, Willoughby College, Ohio, Prof. Braithwaite, Leeds (Eng.) Medical School, Sir Richard Kane, Queen's College, Ireland, Prof. Rosenbaum, Leipzig.

The public have but to know the virtues and astonishing success of the "CHERRY PECTORAL," in curing diseases of the Lungs, when they will feel secure from these dangers whenever this remedy can be obtained.

PREPARED BY J. C. AYER, CHEMIST, LOWELL, MASS. Sold by Lyman & Kneeshaw, Toronto; Hamilton and Kneeshaw, Hamilton; Wm. Lyman & Co., Montreal, Agents for the Canadas.
