FOR THE BABIES

It is not necessary to buy corn cures. Men and women should remember that Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is the only safe, sure, and painless corn remover extant. It does its work quickly and with certainty. See that the signature N.C. Polson & Co., appears on each bottle. Beware of poisonous imitations.

Old gentleman (to messenger boy, who is running at the top of his speed)—"Why, lad, what is the trouble?" Messenger boy (breathlessly)—"Don't stop me, don't stop me, sir, I am going to my dinner."

One of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is, because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, for the past two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." Sold by all Druggists, 50c. and $1.00.

Lady, in shoe store: "I would like to look at some slippers for myself." Clerk, until recently in the dry goods line: "Yes, madam, something all wool and a yard wide?"

"Did you ever go to sea?" asked Mr. Brown of Jones, as he walked into his office the other afternoon. "No, I am no sailor," replied Jones. "I was going to advise you," said Brown, "if you ever did, to be sure and carry Minard's Liniment with you, for it is a whole medicine chest in itself."

The superiority of man to nature is continually illustrated. Nature needs an immense quantity of quills to make a goose with, but a man can make a goose of himself with one.—Reporter.

TO THE DEAF.

A person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it free to any person who applies to Nicholson, 177 McDougal street, New York.

Let every man be occupied, and occupied in the highest employment of which his nature is capable and die with the consciousness that he has done his best.

REWARD offered to any person shewing a case of headache, toothache, cramp, bruise, sprain, cough, cold, croup, quinsy, hoarseness, burns, or numbness of the limbs that can not be cured by Minard's Liniment. It is good as a gargle in diphtheria and ulcerated throat, and is perfectly harmless when given according to directions.

It is difficult for a lady to enter or leave a carriage properly. It requires practice and a carriage. The carriage is the hardest part to acquire.

Rector St. Paul's, Portland, Me.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous, kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books upon this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style, in the best sense. We commend it most heartily to every Clergyman for personal help and parochial use. We would, if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured, that once begun, it will be read with interest from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.—Church Record.
