flesh, he employs those of the Spirit. He invites all Christians to pour forth earnest prayers for the restoration of that blessed peace which is so consonant with the letter and the spirit of the Uhristian dispensation. And we have not a doubt that Catholics throughout Christendom, listening reverently to the voice of the Chief Pastor, will present again to the world the sublime spectacle, which only the Catho-lic Church can present, of two hundred millions of prayers will accomplish the last Belleville Democrat, "barvesting is geing on the present deplorable war. The solemn promises of Christ, confirmed by the brilliant teachings of history, clearly prove that these fears have no foundation whatever. Even in the highly probable contingency, that the French Emperor interest of the present deplorable war. The solemn promises of falling from the roof of his resident that the yield is very heavy—no rust."

KILLED.—Andrew Harvey was killed last week to falling from the roof of his resident to the highly probable contingency, that the French Emperor interest of the present deplorable war. Even in the highly probable contingency, that the French Emperor interest of the present deploration whatever. Even in the highly probable contingency, that the French Emperor interest of the present deploration whatever is the last Belleville Democrat, "harvesting is geing on this week in good earnest, and we are pleased to learn that the yield is very heavy—no rust."

KILLED.—Andrew Harvey was killed last week to falling from the roof of his resident to the highly probable contingency, that the French Emperor interest of the present deploration where it was camaged with the fly, it will be abundant. Alabama, North Carolina and Texas report favorably. In Southern Illinois, says the last Belleville Democrat, "harvesting is geing on this week in good earnest, and we are pleased to learn that the yield is very heavy—no rust."

KILLED.—Andrew Harvey was killed last week to street, while interest of the present of the pr Christians uniting in fervent prayer, to offer a holy violence to the throne of God, in behalf of peace fere with the temporal sovereignty of the Pontiff, in the face of his reiterated promises to the contrary, there is still no ground for serious apprehension. The Sovereign Pontiff would have as much spiritual power, and his voice would be as much respected by the faithful throughout the world, in his capacity as visible head of the Church, even if he were, against all law and right, to be deprived of his temporal possessions; an event of which we do not all apprehend the probability, or even the possibility. It would be sheer madness in the French Emperor to attempt to do what ruined his uncle. The Chair of Peter, the rock on which the Church is built, is secured from destruction by the infallible promises of the Man-God; and whoever attempts to remove or destroy it, will be himself crushed. All history proclaims this great truth.

THE FESTIVAL OF CORPUS CHRISTI AT NEWARK.-- To those who have lived in Catholic countries a procession of the Blessed Sacrament is nothing new .-They are accustomed to see it every evening during the Octave of this Feast, and village vies with village in endeavoring to do honor to our Lord in the Blessed Eucharist by the beauty of its procession and by the variety of the decorations with which it is ornamented. We were much pleased on the evening of the 23rd ult., by a visit which we paid to the cathedral at Newark. The church, with its noble spire, is indeed an ornament to the city, but the addition of a new chapel, in which the altar of the Blessed Sacrament will be erected, is in itself a great improvement. For it will thus enable the zealous pastor, Rev. J. B. McQuaid, to carry out the ritual of the Church, in not having the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept on high altar of the Cathedral. In the morning the Bishop gave confirmation to the children who had previously been prepared by the usual spiritual exercises, a number also received their first communion. In the evening all assembled in the church, where vespers were sung by the choir. The Blessed Sacrament was then exof the confraternity of the Elessed Sacrament, precoled by their banner, all dressed in white. these followed the boys of St. Patrick's Church, with their banner, bearing on it an appropriate device, then the choir singing appropriate hymns. The processional cross was carried by the cross-bearer, on either side of whom was an acolythe with a lighted candle. Then followed the Bishop carrying the Blessed Sacrament, with his deacons and the assistaut priest, the choir boys preceding, with thuribles, and scattering rose leaves as the procession advanced. Some of the most prominent members of the congregation carried the Baldachino over the Bishop as the procession left the church. In the garden of the Episcopal residence a temporary altar was erected on which were lighted a large number of candles tastefully arranged—the procession stopped before this. The Tantum Ergo was sung, and benediction was given. All went to the church, where the solemn ceremonies of the day were concluded by benediction, and returned home, delighted in being permitted to join in celebrating this festival in such an appropriate manner.—N. Y. Metropolitan Record.

Loss of the Steamship " Argo."-We learn from the New York papers of Thursday news of the loss of the steamship Argo, which left that port on the 23rd ultimo, for Galway, viz St. John's, N. F. The Argo, it appears, ran ashore on Tucsday night last, foundland coast to the disastrous St. Shott's. The at the diggings or pressing forward. passengers and crew of the Arge are said to have been safely landed, with their baggage, but it is feared the vessel will prove a total loss. The Argo had only lately been added to the Galway line, have about one dollar a dozen, this makes the number ing previously been engaged between England and

A Good Law.—A child in Albany was recently kicked by a horse whose vicious habits were known to the owner. The child died, and the case came up before a coroner's jury, who looked into the statute book, and rendered a verdict of "guilty of man-slaughter in the third degree" against the owner of the horse. The statute reads:—"If the owner of a mischievous animul, knowing its propensity, wilfully suffer it to go at large, or shall keep it without ordinary care, and such animal while so at large or not confined, kill any human being who shall have taken the necessary precautions which the circumstances permit, to avoid such animal, such owner shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter in the third degree." The punishment for "manslaughter in the third degree" is, according to the New York law, imprisonment for not less than four nor more than s ven years.

THE NEWSPAPER PRESS .- Maryland has a newspaper circulation of 224,000—the largest of any of the slave States. Massachusetts, with a population scarcely double that of Maryland, has a circulation of 715,960, or about two to one. Its circulation is nearly equal to that of all the Southern States. New NAMES OF SUBSCRIBERS (DISCONTINUED) York has a circulation considerably more than double that of all the States. At the South, more than one half of the papers are political; at the North, less than one third. The number of copies North, less than one third. The number of copies of neutral and independent papers printed in a year, in the slave States, is $,000,000; and in the Free States, 79,000,000; of the religious, in the Slave States, 4,000,000, and in the Free States, 29,000,000. The number of copies of scientific papers printed in the fifteen Southern States, 372,000; the number in Massachusetts alone is 2,000,000. The religious papers in the Slave states number of 200,000. pers in the Slave states number 4,000,000 copies aninally, in New York alone, 12,000,000. The neutral and independent papers of the South is 8,000,000; in Pennsylvania alone, 21,000,000.

AN ANGIENT TERRAPIN TURNING UP .- Twenty-seven years ago Robert Patterson found upon what is now the farm of Mr. Beck, lying on Casselmans' Run Western Virgiana, between Bethany and West Alex-ander, a land terrapin. He cut his name upon its and the date, and dropped it down again. Thirteen years afterward John Beck found the old fellow doubled up near the spot. He also cut his name and the date under that of Mr. Patterson, and turned the tortoise loose. Last week Flotcher Beck found the old thing again, within a hundred feet of where it was seen seventeen years ago, and performed a similar operation upon its back Mr. John Beck, who called upon us yesterday, says the terrapin had I not altered in appearance or in size in the whole twenty-seven years, and it is, of course, impossible to tell how old it was when the boy Patterson first I carved his name upon its shell. He may have craised about in Noah's Ark for all any one can tell. Anyhow the terrapin is a long-lived, strange sort of a varmint, that hides himself in winter and doubles himself up in summer, so as to look more like a small pumpkin than anything else.—Wheeling Intelligencer. Charles M'Sourley,

THE WHEAT HARVEST .- From the States in which P J M'Donell, the wheat harvest has commenced, the accounts are favorable. In lower Virginia the farmers a cutting their wheat and there is a good prospect of a fine crop. In Kentucky and Tennessee the yield of grain will be large, and quality is unsurpassed. The Knoxville (Tennessee) Whig says that the wheat crop of some of the counties of Lower East Tennes-E Cunningham, see will not be a small one; in the middle section it is promising, and in the upper counties, except in James Moran, some casee where it was damaged with the fly, it F Maguire, will be abundant. Alabama, North Carolina and G A Beaudry, John Connolly, H M'Cormack, J A M'Gillis, was absent in search of a policeman, he rolled off the roof and was instantly killed.

THE Young IDEA .- Within a week, three cases of frightful juvenile crime have occurred in New York and Brooklyn. Last week, in Brooklyn, a boy of six years killed his brother, aged ten years, with a knife. On Monday a boy in Cherry Street, New York, was stabbed by his playmate, and on the same day, in Brooklyn, two boys, aged respectively ten and nine years, quarrelled; the older stabbed the younger in the back, inflicting a severe wound. Hard as it seems to punish such young offenders, unless some example be made, it is to be feared that the tendency to imitation may produce serious consequences.

How to Escape the Responsibility .- We (New York Freeman) find the following in a connection in-tended to serve another purpose than ours. We Richard O'Hair, quote it as an admirable exemplification of the spirit J O'Brian, of mock humility that dodges responsibility and avoids action, by attributing to divine power the initiative that God has granted and left to the energy T Doyle. W J Alexander, of human will :-" Don't you think that you drink a little too much, Brother Crump?" "It is hard to say," returned Crump. "Sometimes I've thought I Michael Conway was a drinkin' too much, and then I'd think may be Michael C Murni not. What is man? A weak worrum of the dust .- | So I left it to the Lord to say whether I was agoin too far in sperits. I put the whole 'sponsibility on J M Murphy, Him; I prayed of I was drinkin' too much for Him James Doberty, Michael Conroy, to take away my appetite for sperits. I've prayed that prayer three times, and He hain't done it. So C M'Guinness, I'm clear of the 'sponsibility, eny way."

THE NEW JERSEY POISONING CASE.—The Jury which M Morris, sat upon the deceased Mrs. Cole, after the careful examination of many witnesses, brought in a verdict D Tasse, of murder against her busband and Dr. Wickham.— S Cavans The former, who is a weak-minded villian, is in custody. The latter was released by a country justice named Penny, after having been arrested. The feeling against justice Penny is very strong in Orange P Darty, Co., N. Y., and Essex Co., N. J., for the part he took in the matter in releasing Wickham when safe in his custody, and especially is this the case among the P P Finnigan, better class of citizens; and the facility with which Wickham was discharged, taken in connection with the testimony of Dr. Budd, Wickham offered large amounts to Dr. Doremus and him to know the result of the chemical analysis of the contents of the FA Begley, stomach of the deceased, has given rise to surprise among citizens not very favorably to the official integrity of Justice Penny. The case of Mrs. Cole is not only instance in which Dr. Wickham has specu-lated in life insurance. It is stated that he also holds a policy of $4,900 on the life a woman residing at Port Jervis named Clark. The mention of J E Tobin, life insurance to the ladies of Essex County causes a Sampson Wright, J J Roney, Thomas O'Connor, shudder, and the present case is not calculated to extend the popularity of the plan.—N. KANSAS GOLD DIGGINGS .- The statement of Horace W Carroll, Greeley and others by telegraph, in relation to the J J Saurin Pike's Peak gold region, has been published. tt is __ O'Farrell, signed by Horace Greeley, A. caught about a quarter of a million. The Salem Australia, and was the first steamship to circumnavigate the globe—going out by the way of the Cape of Good Hope and returning by the way of Cape Horn.

Caught about a quarter of a minor. The Estent (Mass.) Observer gives this account of the way they are caught:—"The pigeons are attracted to particular parts of the wood by the strewing of grain in open spaces cleared of the brushwood for the purpose. In this way they are not only toiled around the spot where traps are to be set and familiarised with the ground, but are fattened well before being taken. They are spread for some time previous to the spreading of the nets. When a sufficient number have congregated to make it worth while to entrap them, their grain is saturated with whiskey, which steals away their silly brains, as it does silly men's brains, and they become willing stupefied victims of the trappers. The net is set in such a way that, by the use of young saplings for the drawing springs, it is made to jump over the dense flock of fuddled pigeons gathered in front of it; and, when they at-tempt to rise, they are entangled in the meshes. The pigeons, we are told, when enticed by the grain and whiskey, will huddle together in a compact mass, as if for the special convenience and gratification of the trapper. When once caught in the net, they thrust their heads through the meshes; and the trapper, by a octain pressure en the neck, kills them one after another with great rapidity, and with more dexterity of touch than tenderness of feeling."

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 31 1854. Dear Sir,- I was attacked about five months ago with a severe cold, which settled on my lungs, and doctors (the most respectable in this city) said that I had inflamation or consumption of the lungs, and after exhausting their skill without relief to me, pronounced my case incurable. I commenced taking Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry about six weeks ago, and in four days I was able to walk all over the house, and am now a well man.

Yours respectfully, GEORGE HOOVER.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: -

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-FECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-HALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUN, DEBILITY, DYSPERSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSPPELAS, ROSE on Sr. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity or

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown. Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on
