

erful minds; and "what harm would they do? a great deal to the party: none to the church." In one sense this is all true; but in another sense we have enough of the feeling of brotherhood in Christ to rejoice in the anticipation that these collisions would do a great deal of good to the party, whatever it might be, by rendering it more enlightened, more truly charitable, more tolerant. Good men need to know each other better, by meeting personally, and not writing so many books against each other; and we trust Convocation will do this.

AMATEUR THEATRICALS.

We notice with mingled feelings of regret and indignation that the Daily Patriot continues to act as the patron and encourager of young, thoughtless lads, in the emasculating pursuit of private theatricals. What a thousand pities it is that our contemporary has not the moral courage to abandon a course, which his own better judgment, we are convinced, condemns as strongly as we can do. The Patriot we fearlessly assert, knows that the amusement we denounce is deleterious in the highest degree. We defy him to come forward and assert that the unhappy striplings who are seduced by the baby attractions of an amateur stage, are not, in nine cases out of ten; mentally enervated and debauched in consequence. Why then, in the name of manhood and humanity does our respected brother persist in blowing the coal of seduction, by his miserly misplaced puffs?

We live in stern and stirring times! Principle and democracy have taken the field, drawn the sword, and cast away the scabbard. Our rising generation require to trace and guide themselves for the momentous battle of life, more earnestly, perchance, than ever they required to do, at any former period.

Let us ask the Daily Patriot are the tinsel, the rouge, the spangled tom-foolery of the baby stage, are these the tonics which are to fit the beardlings of Canada for the coming contest? Shame upon you, man!

MR. CHARLES RAHN.

SURGEON DENTIST.

BEGS to acquaint his numerous friends, and the public generally, that he has just returned from New York, where he has been spending some time with Professor John Allen, of the College of Dental Surgeons, Cincinnati, from whom he has been acquiring a knowledge of the late great improvement in Dentistry, viz: that of uniting single teeth to each other and to the plate upon which they are set, by means of a fusible silicious cement, which is flowed in and around the base of the teeth upon the plate in such a manner, as to form a continuous artificial gum. By this method the cavities between the teeth, which are unavoidable in the old style, are completely filled up leaving no chance for secretions of any kind, and giving a perfectly natural and life-like appearance to the gum and teeth.

Specimens may be seen at his Office, on the corner of Bay and Melinda Streets. Office Hours from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Terms—Cash—without exception.

This important improvement has been patented by Dr. Allen in the United States, and steps have been taken to procure Patents in England and France. Dr. A. has authorized Mr. Rahn to give instructions in this beautiful art to educated gentlemen in the profession, on moderate terms.

N.B.—Mr. R. offers a friendly challenge to all the Dentists of British North America to compete with him at the approaching Provincial Exhibition, for a Gold Medal, value £12 10s. to be left to the judgment of the Professors of Toronto University, and of Trinity College. LEONARD SCOTT & Co.'s LIST OF British Periodical Publications.

Delivered in all the principal Cities and Towns, FREE OF POSTAGE.

The London Quarterly Review (Conservative.)
The Edinburgh Review (Whig.)
The North British Review (Free Church.)
The Westminster Review (Liberal.)
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value; and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the fatherly care of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Cantons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer,) "The Green Hand," "Katie Stewart," and other series of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by these publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.
