MARRIAGE OF THE PREMIER'S DAUGHTER.

We have to announce the mar riage of Sophia, second daughter of the Hon Sir Allan Napier MacNab, to Wm. Coutts Viscount Bury, only son of the Earl of Al bemarle, which took place at Dundurn Castle, the residence of the bride's father on Thursday, Nov. 15th.

The Roman Catholic marriage ceremony rendered necessary by the bride's adherence to that faith, was performed at an early hour in the morning. Shortly after 11 A. M. His Excellency Sir Edmund and Lady Head, attended by Captain Retallick, A.D.C. arrived at Dundurn, having come from Toronto in the steamer Chief Justice Robinson. which had been specially engaged to convey to Hamilton the numerous friends of the bride.

The Lord Bishop of Toronto, assisted by the Very Venerable the Archdeacon of Kingston, uncle to the bride, performed the marriage ceremony of the Church of England. The bride was given away by her father. She was attended by Miss Charlotte Boulton and the Misses Stewart, as Bridesmaids; Busonby Cox, Esq., R. E., was present as the Bridegroom's man. The bride was attired in white-glaced silk, trimmed with Honiton lace, and wreaths of orange blossoms, and veil. Her extreme beauty was the theme of every tongue.

The dejeuner was announced soon after the ceremony, and after the health of the newly married pair had been proposed in an exceedingly happy speech by His Excellency the Governor General, and which was received with rapturous applause, and responded to by Lord Bury, they entered the carriage, which was in waiting to convey them to the Railway station, amidst the warmly expressed congratulations of all present.

Amongst those present at the ceremony were Colonel Baron De Rottenburg and the Baroness De Rottenburgh; Hon. W. Cayley, Inspector Gen. ; Hon. Robert Spence, Postmaster General, and Mrs. Spence; Hon. J. C. Tache, Receiver General, and Miss Tache; Honorable G. E. Cartier, Provincial Secretary, and Madame Cartier; Revd. Dr. Adamson; Honorable W. Dickson Niagara; Col. Irvine and the Misses Irvine; Capt. and Mrs. Retallick; Hon. J. 11. Cameron and Mrs. Cameron; Hon. H. J. Boulton, and Mrs. Boulton; Hon J. C Morrison; Mr and Mrs Ridout, Toronto; Miles O'Reilly, Esq., Mrs and Miss O'Reilly; W 1' MacLaren, Esq., and Mrs MacLaren; Mr and Mrs White; Captain and Mrs. Stewart : the Mayor of Toronto : Mr and Mrs Strachan; Mr and Mrs Elmsley; Mr Galt; Mr Gzowski; Mr and Mrs Beecher, London; Mr and Mrs Deedes, Woodstuck; Mr and Mrs Street, Ningara Falls; Mr Zimmerman, Ningara Falls: Edmund Murney, Esq., M. P. P., and Mrs Murney; Mr and Mrs Ridley; Mr and Mrs Meredith; the Rev Dr McMurray, and Mrs McMurray, Dundas; and about a hundred others .--- Spectator.

FRATERNIZATION WITH SCHISM.

In a recent charge, the Archbishop e Dublin, (Whately,) warns his clergy particularly against mixing thomselves up with any movement of an irrogular character for the conversion of l'apists. His Grace's obsevations on this subject are not the less remarkable on account of the quarter from which they proceed:-

"Quard against being parties to or coun tonancing any such irregular and disorderly proceedings, in the efforts to enlighten those of an other Church, as may tend ultimately in various ways to weaken our own

" If, for instance, some such a plan she that of sending forth from England a host of missionaries, of Churchmen and Dissenters intermixed—appointed (I may say ordained since that is what it virtually amounts to) by a self-constituted association, without any reference to the existing authorities of our Church—without any security for their soundness of doctrine, or their discretion, or he adopted as we have heard rumors of-Church—without any security for their soundness of doctrine, or their discretion, or their acquaintance with the language of large portion of our population-without any profession of being attached to our Church or even not beatile to it—and without any responsibility except to the body which thus appoints thom-if such a schom should be set on foot. I am convicced that any countenance given to it by any of us would involve a danger (besides others) of favoring the charge brought against us of internal disunion and indifference to our own Church.

- Far, indeed, should we be from feeling any resontful jealousy or offering any op-position, if Protestants of any other religious communion-even in many points posed to us-chose to come forward to advocate principles common to us and them. But this they can do even more effectually by acting independently, and without any formal compact with us; especially such compact as would imply a disrogard on our part of the constituted authorities of our own Church. That Protestants are no agreed among themselves is indeed what i porpetually urged by Roman Catholics. But this view is not at all lessened (assome might on a hasty view suppose,) but on the contrary is much aggravated, by any such alliance of Protostants of different denominations as may be formed independently of the governors, and in defiance of the rules of their own respective communities, and which must thus tend to engender tresh divisions within each.

"Without being so bigoted to any partilar form of Church government as to insist that no other is permitted by sripture, one who is an actual member of a certain Church may consistently, and must, if he act on soripture principles, shown dutiful revorence for the regulations and constituted authorities of that Church to which he does belong.—Banner of the Cross.

Whilst congratulating Mr. James Bestty upon the improved appearance of the Daily Lea ier, we must rebuke him for permitting his sheet to be solled by the following mesrevolting and scandalous prologue to a huckster's advertisement :

SECOND BOOK OF MOSES. This is not Moses who spoke in the Wilderness;—nor Moses in the Bullrushes;—but this is the Moses, the very Moses, who hath withstood the wrath of his enemies for seventeon years, and is now speaking at "Pine Orchard Grove!!"

Can it be cossible that the "enlightened' O'Leary, occupies the editorial chair of the Leader? It looks very like it!

The Churchman's Friend, POR THE DIFFUSION OF INFORMATION RELATIVE TO THE United Church of England and Ireland Her Doctrines and Her Ordinances.

Edited by Clorgymen | [Published Monthly PARIS, 1st OCTOBER, 1855.

PROSPECTUS

The CHURCHMAN'S FRIEND is intended to supply a want, which, we believe, every Canadian Clergyman must have often and painfully experienced. We cannot perhaps be surprised that in a land where the number of the mir isters of the Church is so disproportionate to the population and extent of the country, there should be a lamentable degree of ignorance respecting the history of the Church, Her doctrines, and Her or linances. Yet it is plainty impossible to bring there subjects prominently forward from the pul-pit; there we must needs speak on more glori-ous themes, and presen the glad tidin; s of our common redemption. The Churchman's Friend has been projected to meet this difficulty: it is invended literally to fulfil the promise made in the title; namely, to convey information, relative to the subjects indicated.

The Theology which we wish to impart is apty and houselfy expressed in the first motto which we placed at the head of our publication
"Quod semper, quod ubique, quod ub omnibus Twelve copies and upwards, to one control of the copy per annum.

The undersigned has made arrangements for the regular recipt of the solve publications, and will receive orders for them at the above rates, which always, which every where, which by all has been believed," for that only is the faith of the Catholic Church. While the temper and spirit in which we desire to convey these truths, is with equal simplicity and correctness indicated by our second morto, In necessaries Unites, in dubits liberatas, in omnibus caritas.

"In necessary things unity, in doubtful things liberty, in all things charity."

With this object in view, we purpose to issue, for the present, one number monthly, commenc-ing on the 1st October; but we hope con-siderably to enlarge, or to publish more fre-quently, as soon as we receive the requisite amount f encouragement. A large proportion of sch number will be filled with original matter in the form of short tracts, dislogues, and tales; wich, with anecdotes, scraps of information and other selections, all strictly tending to illustrate the principles we wish to advocate, will make up the contents. While we hope to offer matter sufficiently interesting as to make it not without value even to the more highly educated, it will be our endeavour to clothe it in such plain and simple language, as to render our little publica-tion a welcome visitor in the farm house and the cottage, and a source of pleasure, as well as profit to both young and old. For the young especi-ally, some portion of our space will always be set apart : and we venture to suggest to clergymen and superintendents of Sunday Schools, the advantage of encouraging their elderly scholars to wall themselves of the reduced terms offered to those who subscribe for a number of copies .-They will thus be furnishing the young persons committed to their charge with a supply of read-ing, at once sound in its teaching and attractive character, and at the same time be lightenin their own labor.

We beg particluarly to call attention to our terms of publication, from which it will be seen that eight copies will be forwarded to one address. for fifteen shillings, currency, a year, and fifteen copies for £1 five shillings. But as these summare so small that they will not pay for the trouble of collecting, it is absolutely necessary to at all subscriptions be paid in advance.

All communications to be addressed (Pos Paid,) to the Editors of the Churchman's Friend," care of J. Greenstreet, Esq., Paris, C. W.

Attention is particularly directed to the fact that the CHURCHMAN'S FRIEND will afford an excellent modium for ADVERTISERS. as the Proprietors have determined to print at least 1000 monthly. The torms for ad-vertising will be us follows:

Six lines and under, 2s. 6d., for the first insertion, and 1s. for every subsequent insertion. Ten lines and under 3s. 9d. for the first insertion, and 1s. 3d. for every subsequent insertion. Above ten lines, 4d. per line for the first insertion, and 11d. per line for every subsequent insertion. Advertisements, with cash, must be sout by the 10th of each previous month. Price - Two Smilings and Six-Pence a Year, always in advance Clergy mon and Layrnen acting as Agents, or tak-ing a quantity for Distribution, will be supplied with Eight Copies for 15s. or Fitteen for £1 5s.
