

understanding of the Cambodian scene. At the Government dinner the other night, the Prime Minister of Cambodia made a series references to this.

"A short quiet session on the English Definition, I have evolved working with you on the basis practically identical to that of the Cambodian, bringing up and your best experience and knowledge to work here. If we need a better experience for me to work the work here, under you and my colleague would give me pleasure than any other number of soft oppositional tendencies in the case of promoting international peace. We shall all very greatly miss you in Phnom Penh and in these meetings of the Commission."

"In asking over from you, Sir, I am conscious of the high honor gone to us, put with you in embarking definitely tomorrow, I am still fully conscious that the present task has been left to me, however, to do. I am, however, confident that with such a good background upon which the co-operation, bringing up and shades of the Ambassador and Counselor I can to the best of my ability make myself fit for your delegation work of this Commission. I think you, Sir, for your delegation words to me the very spirit you have had in mind to the Military Advisers, Committee and the same.

"I thank Mr. Smith and Mr. Molinier for their warm words of friendly co-operation in the future and I would like to assure them that this co-operation will always be available to us to make our friendship stronger and closer still. I hope much from you and your colleagues in the Commission in this latest meeting of the Committee.

"Now Sir, in writing you off good luck on behalf of the Commission and a happy holiday in India, may I express our wish that it will not be long before we see you in Phnom-Penr again. I feel just if should be able to see you again. Please write soon and good news from time to time on behalf of the Commission. All good luck and good fortune to you on behalf of the Commission."