

NEWS FROM THE INSTITUTE

Information Services at the Institute maintain an essential library reference service to keep you up-to-date in the international peace and security field.

We would be pleased to do a data base search for you. For a limited period (September through December 1991) you can call the CIIPS library collect at (613) 991-0768.

Or contact us at:

Canadian Institute for International Peace and Security
360 Albert Street, Suite 900
Ottawa, Ontario K1R 7X7
Telephone: (613) 991-0768
Fax: (613) 563-0894
Electronic Mail: ENVOY, INET and Web: ciips

■ You may be looking for: statistics on yearly Canadian military expenditures, the view of developing countries on the state of global warming, a copy of the speech the Minister of External Affairs gave at the Canadian club last week, or informed analysis and reflection on the future role of the United Nations.

Whatever your current needs, we offer you:

- a unique collection of international peace and security sources from around the world, in French and English;
- quick, easy access to these sources through our computerized database;
- personal help from a competent staff.

Special Services

- our own computerized database giving subject access to the various materials in the library collection from 1985 on; includes the Nuclear weapons and arms control bibliography covering the English-language literature on this subject from 1945 on;
- access to the Canadian Mili- tary Industry Database containing information on Canadian companies' military sales in Canada and abroad;

- referrals to outside information sources;
- the preparation of customized bibliographies from our in-house database;
- an interlibrary loan service (ILL) via your own library;
- a competitive Bookshelf Grant awarded to public and secondary school libraries to augment their collection in the peace and security field.

The Collection

- French and English language materials cover international peace and security issues, specifically, arms control, disarmament, defence and conflict resolution; comprising:
 - over 200 periodicals and newsletters from around the world, including alternative press sources;
 - reference materials providing current statistics, biographies, terminology, maps, etc.;
 - newspaper clippings from major Canadian newspapers and a selection of key foreign newspapers covering international issues by subject;
 - a selection of government documents from Canada, other countries and international organizations;

- hard-to-find unpublished materials like speeches, conference papers, theses, press releases;
- books for detailed coverage and background information.

Publications and Hand-outs

- annual bibliography Canada and international peace and security.
- Peace and security bookshelf bibliography of Canadian publications for public and school libraries.
- Peace and security thesaurus, a classification of over 750 terms in the field.
- Peace and Security Information Resources, a guide to reference sources in the field.
- List of periodicals held in the library.
- monthly library acquisitions list.

Facilities

- microform reader-printer
- photocopier
- study carrels for on-site research
- user-accessible database

Hours of operation:

Monday to Friday,
8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. (Eastern)

Barton Awards Programme

■ The Institute invites applications for its Awards Programme, designated the Barton Awards in honour of its first Chairman, former UN Ambassador William Barton.

The programme is open to both academics and non-academics who wish to enter or continue studies in the field of international peace and security. The programme is intended to encourage expertise and scholarship in that area by supporting Canadians and permanent residents who wish to pursue their studies at institutions abroad or in Canada.

The Institute expects to make eleven awards: two fellowships valued at up to $30,000 and nine scholarships at up to $14,000 each. Applications will be assessed by an independent selection committee and decisions will be announced in May 1992.

Applicants must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents whose experience or academic qualifications enable them to pursue advanced study.

The deadline for applications for the 1992–1993 academic year is 1 February 1992.

For further information and application forms please write to:
The Barton Awards Programme, Canadian Institute for International Peace and Security, 360 Albert Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1R 7X7

Peace and Security Competitions Fund Procedures and Deadlines

■ For the semi-annual competitions with deadlines of 30 November 1991 and 30 June 1992, the Fund will be interested in receiving applications to support projects that would make thoughtful contributions to issues related to international peace and security on the 125th anniversary of Confederation in 1992. It is our understanding that Canadians will be invited by Parliament to reflect in their various fields on the record of opportunity and achievement in that record and on challenges for the future.

30 June for an October decision

30 November for a March decision

Write to: Peace and Security Competitions Fund, c/o CIIPS