

Last updated: December 1st, 1998

- What's New
- Our Role
- Client Management
- Client Policies
- Services to businesses
- Services to Partners
- Additional Services
- Post Support: People
- Post Support: Tools
- Discussion
- Français

Policies - Canadian Importers

- Standard letters
- Cases

The Trade Commissioner Service abroad does not exist to serve Canadian importers or promote the export of foreign goods to Canada.

Questions and Answers:

Q. Do I serve a Canadian company wishing to import into Canada?
 A. You should systematically direct Canadian importers or local exporters to local government entities or other organizations responsible for handling this type of service. Use the related standard letter). Publish information to this effect on your post's Web site. See the related case.