

The United Nations must continue to have responsibility for Jerusalem, and to exercise final authority over this Holy City. We must constantly watch developments there, to ensure that the Holy Places, and access to them, and religious freedom in them, are duly protected.

We believe that the best step which the General Assembly can now take to discharge these responsibilities is the adoption of the draft resolution put forward by the delegations of The Netherlands and Sweden.

---