

ment insolently produced ; the King's Servants were unanimously of Opinion utterly to reject the Thought of suffering those Disputes to be mixed in the Negotiation with France ; and submitted to His Majesty, that a peremptory Declaration, to that Effect, should be made to M. de Buffy, giving that Minister withal clearly to understand, that it would be considered here as offensive to the Dignity of the King, that farther Mention should be made of such an Idea, and that it is likewise understood here, that France at no Time has a Right to meddle in such Discussions between Great Britain and Spain.

I am now to acquaint your Excellency, that M. de Buffy did not come to me till last Thursday Morning, when, after delivering to me the same Memorial which Mr. Stanley had received from the Duc de Choiseul, and transmitted to me, he also gave me two supplemental Memorials of a most extraordinary Nature, Copies whereof I send your Excellency inclosed, together with a Copy of my Letter to that Minister, returning the Two said Memorials, as totally inadmissible.

With regard to the Memorial relative to the Disputes between England and Spain, that Piece will best speak its own Enormity, and the extreme Offensiveness of the Matter which it contains ; at the same Time my Letter, by Order of the King, to M. de Buffy, sending back the said Memorial, will sufficiently convey to your Excellency the just Sensations which such a Paper has excited here in the Breast of every one to whom it was imparted.
