

The ceremony concluded by the troops, under the command of Colonel Nicol, firing a feu de joie, after which they presented arms, the bands playing God save the King. After the third volley, three hearty British cheers were given, and the troops in returning to the barracks passed his Lordship in review order on the Place d'Armes.

The inscription on the brass plate, has been since engraved on a Marble Tablet, but from some mistake the person employed has neglected to make the alterations necessary to adapt it to its new situation, and the stone has, in consequence, not been put up.

At the time the Monument was first set on foot, a Gold Medal, offered as a prize to the person who should produce the best inscription, was awarded to J. C. Fisher, Esq. L. L. D. Editor of the Quebec Gazette by Authority, whose composition was generally admired by scholars, for the Classic purity of its style.—It is as follows:—

WOLFE.        =        MONTCALM.

MORTEM.    VIRTUS.    COMMUNEM.

FAMAM.    HISTORIA.

MONUMENTUM.    POSTERITAS.

DEDIT.

A. D. 1827.
