Proposals of the Gospel, led careless and wicked Lives in this World, and have not truly repented, and amended their Ways, shall be doomed to everlasting Fire.

By such Hints as these, and a thousand other Truths, which the Good Spirit of God will put into the Hearts of such pious Christians as love God, and desire to have him known and glorified, by such Hints as these it will be proper to raise in their Minds a Fear for themselves, and a Desire to know more of the Will of God;—To know what they must believe, and how they must live, so that they may be happy when they die.

And certainly, they who have Negroes in Servitude, will find it the best Way to secure their Fidelity;—First, to convince them, that their State of Bondage, even in a strange Land, amongst People who are governed by Laws, is far better than always to have lived in their own Country, where no Man can live in safety, except a few lawless People, who kill or make Slaves of all whom they can overcome; whereas now they may live in Security, and have it in their own Power to come to the Knowledge of the true God, who will surely make them full Amends in the next World, for what they want or suffer in this, they shall bear their Condition, in which his Providence hath placed them, with Patience, and obey his Commands.

And now, if any Thing in the following Way shall be of Use, either to such well-disposed
