

CHAPTER XVII. Page 84.

Turnips excellent esculent roots. Fit for man and beast.—Time for sowing turnip.—It resists light frost very well. A recipe to save it from the fly.—Such as are best for culinary purposes—and for cattle.—How to save the seed.—It is an uncertain crop in Canada.—Carrot is tilled in same way—but must be sown sooner.—Its peculiar qualities. It is worthy of attention.—Cabbage to be planted in the fields in drills.—When to raise the plants.—When to transplant them.—Canada an unfavourable place for this vegetable.—Onions may be planted in drills.—It grows well here—it is a profitable crop.—Mangle wurzel a beneficial and very abundant crop—its uses.—It ought to be cultivated.

CHAPTER XVIII. Page 88.

Wheat, different opinions relative to the best time for sowing it.—Spring the best time in all probability—the reasons why.—Certain rules to be always observed for the purpose of obtaining a