

that he is and has been a bona-fide and continuous resident of the town, city, or village to which his club belongs, since the first day of May in the same season, and the Secretary, upon receipt of such declaration, shall issue a certificate entitling the said player to play with the club specified. A bona-fide and continuous resident shall include a student who may be absent from home attending a school of learning, but such student shall elect whether he will play with a club where his home is situated, or with a club where the said school of learning is situated, and shall notify the Secretary of the Association of his intention.

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 1.—The Senior Committee shall consist of the president of the Association, who shall be chairman, and one representative from each senior club, who shall have the arrangement of the schedule for the senior championship, subject to the general authority and rules of the Association.

Sec. 2.—Clubs competing for the senior championship must deposit before the commencement of business, at the first meeting of the Senior Committee, a fee of $50.00, and a bond to be approved by the said committee, in the penal sum of $200, payable to the president of the Association, for the proper fulfillment of the schedule as arranged. In the event of the condition of bond not being fulfilled, the president shall collect the same, and all legitimate expenses incurred by any other club in consequence of such non-fulfillment shall be paid out of the money forfeited, and the balance, if any, shall be handed over to the treasurer of the Association.

Sec. 3.—Matches resulting in draws shall be considered postponed matches. If, after the completion of the series, the standing of any club is affected by draws, they shall be played off on neutral grounds under order of the president. Should the president be a member of one of the competing clubs, the 1st vice-president shall order the game, and in the event of both the president and 1st vice-president being members of the competing clubs, the 2nd vice-president shall order it, the proceeds to be equally divided.
