Besides the address and the occasional "this side up," "glass," &c., a new legend may be seen now-a-days on cases of goods intended for shipment by the G. T. R. "Beware of plunderers" is significant, and we hope it may have some effect in the desired direction. Employees along the lines of shipment will please take notice.

We note that Mr. W. G. Parmelee, manager of the Eastern Townships Bank at Waterloo, has resigned his situation to accept a position of responsibility in the Finance Department at Ottawa. Mr. Parmelee has connected himself in many ways with the prosperity of Waterloo, interesting himself actively in many enterprises calculated to add to the importance and improvement of the town, and his removal will doubtless be felt in this respect. He will be replaced by Mr. W. G. Briggs, late manager at Cowansville. A branch of the "Federal Bank" has been opened in Guelph, under the management of Mr T. Y. Great. The Imperial Bank has opened a branch at Port Colborne.

Our city contemporary, the Herald, paid its respects to its readers last week in a new dress, and otherwise considerably improved and enlarged. This is evidence that our contemporary is alive to the growing importance and requirements of the commercial metropolis of the Dominion. We hope that its days may be long in the land, that it may long continue to herald forth Canadian industry and enterprise, and that its prosperity may keep pace with its endeavours. This is the third Montreal paper enlarged within a few weeks. The JOURNAL OF COMMERCE commenced giving its readers four additional pages with the new year.
