SAME OLD STORY LOSE ON SUNDAY

Grays Double Score on Leafs
at Rocky Point on a Windy Afternoon.

Special to The Toronto World.
PROVIDENCE, May 9.—The Rocky Point ball yard was very well filled today at the third game between the Grays and the Maple Leafs, 5000 people going to the down-the-river resort. In the face of a howling gale, it was a warm wind, but blowing right in the face of the pitchers, making it almost impossible for the heavy hitters to control the ball, which took long rides when hit into the air, no less than five triples and two doubles being rapped off, most of them with men on the sacks. The Leafs got a fine start by sending over five runs in the fourth inning, but the Grays came back strong, and the game finished with a 12 to 6 score. The Grays' pitchers, Cooper and Manning, pitched the entire game and was in trouble most of the time, but stuck to his guns and managed to get things going his way in the last three innings.

Cochran started for Clymer. The Grays had pounded him for three runs in the fourth, following five sent over by the Leafs on good hitting. He was the goat of the first two men up in the fifth he gave way to Blankie, who was even worse, and after the Grays had slipped over a brace of runs on him and had two on he followed his predecessor, and Manning then took up the burden. He was the goat thru the sixth, but pitched fine ball in the next two. By the same token Cooper held the visitors helpless during the last four innings. Cochran tripled in the fourth with the bases full, and O'Neil turned the same trick in the sixth, giving hit for three bases with two on in the fourth, and Haley repeated in the fifth. Roach doubled with two on in the fifth, but only one of the men left. The fielding, especially by the Leafs, was brilliant. Most of the long hits were made on balls that rode down on the wind to the boundary, being carried like birds.
