

It may further be affirmed that the Similkameen flora is closely allied to those described by Lesquereux as the Green River and Florissant floras, and which he regards as Oligocene or Upper Eocene. It is to be hoped that ere long the discovery of Mammalian remains may throw further light on the precise age of the Tertiary lake basins of British Columbia.