Hamilton will next try the club bonspiel game for members. It is the intention of the Hamilton Bowling and Athletic Club to take a large delegation of bowlers to Buffalo on Friday, which is Canadian day at that place. The club has been exhibiting the club's funds recently to handle the undertaking. It has been decided to have a series of boxing exhibitions. The club is a chartered organization, and has made arrangements to have not only the best Canadian and American boxers, but also to have the best of the world's champions in the near future, and these will be matched with all care in order that the exhibitions will not only be clean and attractive, but also splendid exhibitions of the many art. The club will be staged at the Grand Opera House, the first entertainment in a couple of weeks there. The entertainment will be open only to club members and those who hold membership tickets will be sold at admission tickets for any of the entertainments.

New York Sun. Sporting men who know something about the history of the wrestling game say they expect to exhibit over the match between Hackschmidt and Zozako in the Garden Thursday night. Hackschmidt must have the big hole twice inside of a minute, and the hole in order to win. The opinion was expressed yesterday that Zozako could throw the Russian into any style if a match under certain conditions could be arranged. The fact that wrestling has come to be regarded with suspicion in England and other foreign countries is overlooked here.

They do say that last night's bout was an improvement. Wonder if the exhibition made an esteemed evening contemporary change its opinion, as it is still as a faking proposition has sprung back to a siding.

According to the Ontario Jockey Club's announcement, His Majesty King George V is to keep up the subject of jockeying to the plate for a grand-brother-in-law, inaugurated by Queen Victoria, and continued by King Edward. A year ago racing had a threefold outlook when the Miller Bill was before parliament, and also it was necessary to postpone the J. C. races on account of the death of the King.

They are not satisfied over in New York State to do without even amateur baseball on Sunday, and Senator Ferris has just introduced a bill to keep the law on Sunday sports bill. It empowers the mayor of a city, supervisor of a town or president of a village to issue a license for Sunday baseball, football, golf, swimming, jumping, tennis, skating, swimming, rowing, big, sky and other outdoor sports. The prohibition in the present New York law against fishing on Sunday is stricken off, so that if the measure becomes law anglers may indulge in their pastime without the necessity of taking out a license.
