DENIES SHAKE-UP IN THE DETECTIVE DEPARTMENT

Chief of Police Says Story is a "Pipe Dream"—Bishop Sweeny Holds Confirmation.

HAMILTON, April 5.—(Special.)—The report of a local paper this afternoon that there is to be a shake-up in the detective department, is characterized by Chief of Police Smith as a pipe dream. No change in this department is contemplated at present.

Constables Chas. Gibbs, Harry Thuk, Deskinen, Thos. Steward and Thomas Bettles and Patrol Driver Alex English are the constables who will be recommended for sergeantships at next meeting of the police commissioners, or whenever the commissioners decide to take up the matter of promotions.

There is very little doubt about the appointment of Constable Tuck to the office of sergeant, as he was promised promotion by the commissioners when the changes were made last March.

Constables Joseph Duncan and William Campaign, sen., are also in line for promotion. If the commissioners take into consideration length of service, Constable Campaign will likely be made patrol driver if Patrol Driver English is moved up.

In the non-jury county court this afternoon Thomas Howell was given judgment for $286.61 in his suit on note for $300 against Ernest Ironside. On a counter claim for $500 damages, Ironside was awarded $100.

The confirmation services which were to have been held by the late Bishop Du Montin, were finished tonight when the rite was administered to the combined classes of St. Mark's and St. Philip's Churches, at St. Mark's Church, by Bishop Sweeny of Toronto.

Mrs. Scott Raff has just returned from New York, having read Irish drama, at Columbia University on Monday evening.

While there she heard Brander Matthews at the New Theatre on the development of English drama, with scenes from "The School of Scandal," staged historically correct as in Sheridan's time, by the New Theatre players.

MOSURE-FLUKE.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride, 23 Geneva-avenue, Toronto, April 5, 1911, when Rev. E. E. Braithwaite united in marriage Nettie Josephine, eldest daughter of Joseph J. and Mrs. Fluke, to Harold Alvin Mosure (Herley), eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mosure of Paris Sound.

The bride wore her traveling suit of king's blue, with hat to match, willow plumes, and carried a bouquet of brilliant roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mae Fluke of Hamilton, who was becomingly dressed in white tulle, silk point footed chiffon over dress, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was assisted by Jack, brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosure left for Buffalo and New York, and upon their return they will reside in Whitby, Ont.

CUDMORE-LEONA GARDENS.

One of the last big pieces of land on the ridge to the north of Toronto is to be put on the market by the Robins firm, in high-class building lots. It is the old Cudmore estate at the corner of St. Clair and Bayview-avenue north of the C. P. E. tracks, and will be, in fact, an expansion of Rosedale.

A bridge across the Belt Line ravine will connect it with the streets and car service of Rosedale. English investors bought the property some time ago, and have instructed Mr. Robins to place it on the market. The 20 acres realized about $120,000. The surveys have completed the plotting, and plans will be out in a few days.

FREDERICK CROMPTON FINED

Accepted Notes of Farmers' Bank Illegally as Pledge.

Frederick Crompton, brother-in-law of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt and president of the Crompton Corset Co., was fined $40 and cost by Judge Winchester yesterday, with an alternative of 30 days in jail, for accepting notes of the Farmers' Bank as a pledge contrary to sec. 129 of the bank act.

Mr. Crompton had already made restitution of moneys wrongfully paid to him in this connection, and paid his fine before leaving the court room. He declared that while he had taken the notes in pledge, he had no idea that the act was criminal, and that the amount of notes so taken in pledge was $50,000.

This second sentence following the probe into the Farmers' Bank cases.

Abattoir Was Exonerated.

The abattoir Co. were adjudged not guilty in the general sessions yesterday afternoon on a charge of criminal negligence. The case arose through the collapse of a scaffold in the company's plant last December, when Charles King, a painter, was almost instantly killed.

VETO BILL WRONG WAY TO WIN HOME RULE OPINION

Moreton Frewen Says Second Chamber of Destruction Incompatible With Federal Solution.

LONDON, April 5.—Moreton Frewen will soon resign his seat in parliament for the northeast division of Cork County, as he opposes the government's veto bill and desires to create a vacancy for Timothy Healy, who was defeated in the last election. Discussing his proposed retirement to-day Mr. Frewen said:

"I am convinced that the veto bill includes every wrong method for winning public opinion in England to rational home rule views. A second chamber of destruction, instead of construction is incompatible with the federal solution; which is the only solution. It is quite impossible to achieve such a result by means of a rearrangement as is desired without the co-operation of both great parties.

"The furious passions that are being kindled in the federal movement for which Lord Grey is chiefly responsible. The heaven was already at work, but now we are likely to be undone. However, it is not possible for me to advance such views. To do so in this crisis would be to weaken Mr. O'Brien and his new movement, upon which is contingent that broader settlement which I anticipate with confidence, when this present attempt is seen to have miscarried."

E. H. Griggs On Marguerite's Expiation

Edward Howard Griggs impressively portrayed the expiation of Marguerite in his Faust series of lectures at Association Hall last night. Aesthetic repugnance of sin was shown to be but the manifestation of selfish weakness, while the ethical attitude was in accordance with the divine.

Marguerite, abandoned by her lover, disowned by her brother, denounced by her church, her reason shattered, yet by her perception of the selfishness of the transgression into which she had been enticed, commanded the reverent sympathy of all students of Faust. Her brother, in his pretended horror of her shame, exhibited the callous selfishness characteristic of mankind from the days of Adam. His aesthetic disclaimers were prompted by the personal disfigurement experienced because he could no longer boast of her perfectness before his soldier comrades.

In the cathedral, deserted, broken-hearted Marguerite, in seeking the solace of religion, merely encountered the stern reproaches changed in the "Day of Wrath" and the church, her last resort, failing, her reason fled.

The lesson of Marguerite's expiation was that there is no human atonement for sin. The wrong committed cannot be wiped out. When wrong has been done, expiation, taking the right ethical attitude of doing the best possible, is the human duty and privilege.

Such an outline, was Mr. Griggs' message to his Toronto audience last night. The audience listened with intense interest, and at the close warmly applauded.

WELCOMED SHEFFIELD CHOIR

Pleasant Function at City Hall in Honor of Visitors.

The Sheffield Choir, two hundred strong, led by Dr. Coward and Dr. Harris, stormed the city hall at noon yesterday, and conquered the entire staff of city officials, the members of the city council and a large number of citizens, who turned out for the city welcome. The choir took up a position west of the stairway, and a considerable number of Dr. Ham's National Chorus occupied the west side of the stairway. Chairs on the first landing were occupied by the mayor, Dr. Howard, Dr. Harris, Ald. Maguire, chairman of the reception committee, and Dr. Ham.

Mayer Geary expressed a hope that they would decide to become citizens of this part of the empire, and after emphasizing the benefits derived by such a tour in acquainting the various parts of the empire with one another, extended a hearty welcome.

The choir gave an excellent rendition of "O, Gladstone Light," an ovation greeted the singers at the conclusion.

A clever rendition of "You Stole My Love," a characteristic old English number, was followed by the last stanza of the National anthem.

Dr. Harris thanked the mayor and Ald. Maguire, and declared that the welcome was characteristic of that extended by the people of Canada to all from the motherland.

Dr. Coward joined in the thanks. The party adjourned to the luncheon to which the city had entertained them.

At the conclusion of the luncheon two toasts were honored: "The King" and "Our Guests." Ald. Maguire, in proposing the latter, made a brief speech and Dr. Harris, Dr. Coward and Frank Scott responded.

The Importance of Starting Home-keeping Properly

Many young people (and old ones too) have made the mistake of starting housekeeping wrongly. They have laid out the little bit of cash they had saved and bought a few articles for the rooms they have decided to make a home in. The effect has not been good. There has been a lack of comfort and the appearance has been so weak that they felt they could not ask friends to visit them, which meant that they in turn were prevented visiting their friends. This can be avoided by the well-known credit outfit system at the "Home." You can start with your rooms amply furnished and can easily meet the small weekly payments necessary without taxing your resources. In this way you have a comfortable, good-looking home from the start, and that is half the battle of life.
