Soccer Glasgow Cup Draws 25,000

FOUR TEAMS TIED AT TOP OF T. & D.

Soccer Records and Results on Saturday in Two Local Leagues.

After two games three teams are tied at the top of the T. & D. senior record with two juniors on even terms.

An unfortunate incident occurred in the Wychwood-Toronto Scottish game on Saturday. Teddy Young received an injury to his hand, necessitating his removal from the field for attention, and upon returning to the field was ordered by the referee to leave the field without the referee's consent. This is a wrong decision and is contrary to the instructions to referees, and referees would do well to fully digest the whole of the rules, and not only the rule clearly states that any player leaving the field during the progress of the game (except thru accident) without the consent of the referee will be deemed guilty of misconduct and will render himself liable to be penalized. In this case the player was injured and was within his rights and the referee was wrong in sending him off the field. The case has been reported to the Ontario Football Association, and no doubt the referee will be able to explain his reasons for the action he took. The games and referees in the Provincial League for next Saturday are: Hamilton v. Wychwood, 3 p.m.; Hamilton, at Hamilton; Toronto Scottish v. Davenport, 4 p.m.; Larkin, Varsity Stadium; G. W. Veterans, R.F.C., Kerr, Appleton, Appleton, Appleton.

The monthly meeting of T. & D.F.A. delegates will be held in Sons of England Hall tonight at 8 p.m. and as business is important all affiliated clubs are requested to be represented. The Brien Cup competition will be commenced on May 15, and entries should be in at this meeting. The preliminary rounds of this competition will be played in mid-week and intending competitors should have their applications in so that the draw for the first round can be made. Referees who intend operating in this league should have their applications in at this meeting.

KENTUCKY DERBY NEXT SATURDAY

Fine Field of Three-year-olds to Face the Starter at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., May 4.—In Sun Briar and War Cloud, the former the biggest money winning horse of any age on the American turf last season, the latter winner of the $5000 Walden Stakes at Pimlico in November and a colt the experts of the east have picked as the likeliest of the 1917 two-year-olds to distinguish himself as a distance runner, the forty-fourth Kentucky Derby has attracted what seems to be the most formidable of the foreign-bred three-year-olds colts that will race in the United States this year.

In Ecobea, Precut, James T. Clark, Sewell Combs, Exterminator, Everest and Aurora, it has drawn a group of the smartest American bred three-year-olds colts that will race west of the Appalachian divide. With Rosie O'Grady, Atlanta, Enfilade, Ocean Sweep, Olive Wood and Viva America, on its eligible roster it bids fair to bring to the post a filly of the class of Regret, which, in 1915, under the silks of Harry Payne Whitney of New York upset the 40-year tradition that winning a Kentucky Derby was a task beyond the capability of any race of the softer sex.

Lots of Things Might Happen. A lot may happen to a race horse in a week's time, but it is safe to predict that Sun Briar, War Cloud, Ecobea, Precut, James T. Clark, Rosie O'Grady, Olive Wood, Sewell Combs and two or three others of the horses named above will be in the field that will actually compete for the New Louisville Jockey Club's $15,000 prize on May 11, and every starter will be primed for the struggle. Training weather all over the country has been favorable these 10 or 11 weeks and everywhere horses are going well. And, it is safe to predict that about the best field of three-year-olds that ever started in a Kentucky Derby will go to the post on May 11, and it is equally certain that the crowd which assembles to witness the race will be the biggest Churchill Downs will ever have seen called to attend.

The Kentucky Derby has become the great national race. In all parts of the country interest in the annual race has been kindled and from every section, north, south, east and west, thousands of thousands of people flock to witness its running. There is only one other race of as great value as the Derby, that on the side of the Atlantic, The Preakness at Pimlico, like the Derby, a gallop for three-year-olds, also is a $15,000 race.

Interest Very Keen. Interest in the coming Derby is keener than usual, perhaps, because of the intersectional character of the ownership of its most formidable candidates, Ecobea and Precut, the former Derby winner, and the latter of Sun Briar at Lexington the other day in his first three-year-old effort, belong to the same man, the late Mr. J. K. Long, two of the leading sportsmen of the Blue Grass. Precut, a son of the late Mr. J. K. Long, was bred at Bashford Manor, which is only a few miles distant from Churchill Downs. Olive Wood and Precut belong to Major Thomas Clay McDowell of Ashland farm, Lexington; Atlanta belongs to Senator Johnson N. Camden of Hartland Farm; Sewell Combs to the Gallagher Brothers of Louisville.

The allegiance of War Cloud and Sun Briar, both colts of British breeding, lies east. A King Macomber and Willis Sharpe Kilmer, their owners, call New York home. So does Harry Payne Whitney, the owner of Rosie O'Grady; so does Morton L. Schwartz, the owner of Enfilade, altho Schwartz was reared in Louisville.

Easterners in Pursuit. Since 1915, the year Regret scored her epochal victory over Pebbles, easterners have been coming out here and taking the Derby purse. John Sanford of Amsterdam, followed Harry Payne Whitney with George Smith and last year C. K. G. Billings and Frederick Johnson scored with Omar Khayyam. But western folk believe that the western worm will turn this year and that Kenneth Alexander's Ecobea will beat the best of the eastern stables. But there is something eastern even about Ecobea. He is by Harry Payne Whitney's stallion Bromstick, which, until this season, stood at Brookdale farm in New Jersey.

The Excelsior-Osler team of the Play-ground Senior League defeated St. Francis of the Western City League at Willowdale Park Saturday, 5 to 2. The features were the good hitting of the Excelsiors and a one-handed catch by German of St. Francis.
